

June, Wednesday 15

Cool looks some like rain yet Fixed the plow for plowing the summer fallow and commenced this forenoon I sold three steeres [sic] for one hundred and twenty five dollars Plowed in the afternoon Clyde is three months old to day [sic] If he should live thirty years he will [illegible]

June, Thursday 16

Cloudy and cool Went to Fitch burgh to get some beehives went to Amos Lawrence he was not but Mrs Lawrence let me have three hives The boys plowed to day [sic] and worked in the garden The United States Census Marshal he staid [stayed] with us over night

June, Friday 17

Cleared of [sic] pleasant [sic] Went to Stock bridge with the cattle that I sold to Mr Taylor for one hundred and twenty five dollars two for forty five apiece and one for thirty five Went to Mr Ivess and paid the mortgage on Marthas place of one hundred and twenty six dollars and thirty nine cts [cents] Stopped [sic] to Mother Hopkins a little while very warm to day [sic]

June, Saturday 18

Very warm Mr Pickett had the old horse to cultivate corn and Alpha plowed in the fore noon and in the afternoon Andrew plowed to till supper time and then after supper I plowed till night Andrew started for John Holt to stay all night

June, Sunday 19

Pleasant [sic] and very warm did not go to meeting any where to day [sic] Went to Sunday school in the afternoon Harriet was here three or four days but went home to day [sic] Samantha went up to Johns and they were gone up to Hiram Burrell The boys took the team and took Harriet and the girls home

June, Monday 20

Warm and clear Backed the mowing machine out of the barn and com-menced [sic] mowing and worked till ten o'clock and then a swarm of bees came out I got them in to the hive and started to plow when another swarm came out In the afternoon it looked like rain Johns came here to shear sheep Raked up a small load of hay and loaded it and drew it to the barn