Biographical History

Wilma Mallicoat, along with her husband Alfred, gathered genealogical information for Mallicoats across the United States. Wilma's research took her from Virginia to California and most states in between. Her goal was to create a comprehensive resource for the Mallicoat family.

Scope and Content

This collection contains genealogical and family history information for the Mallicoat family. Alternate spellings of Mallicoat and families that intermarried with Mallicoats are included within this collection. In addition to the genealogical and historical information, the collection contains photographs, legal documents, military records, vital records, correspondence, probate documents, census information, and court records.
