These graves are next to several of the graves of members of the CHILTON families who were buried in the Jordan-Buffalo Cemetery.

The stones for the above were in a rather poor condition and difficult to read. It is possible there is some error in the dates. A transcription was made by this compiler from these stones on 10-22-88.

JAMES N. HICKS, President.

December 22, 1866--21

Notice.—On Friday, Saturday and Sabbath of Christmas week, at Ashley, there will be in session a Sabbath School Convention, to which all interested in said Sabbath School cause in the county, and counties adjacent, are earnestly requested to attend and lend a helping hand to the good work. Agents, laboring in the Sabbath School cause, are expected to be present and give such directions as will make the Convention a success. The two Mr. Paxons and others who are devoting their time and attention to the good cause throughout the United States, have promised to be with us if possible. Let us have our county Sabbath School Convention.

REV. J. POACHE,
REV. J. A. MOABEE,
J. D. MERIVETTER, } Committee.

E. F. Matthews informs us that his object in keeping the largest and best selected stock of staple and fancy groceries, choice liquors, tobacco, cigars, and confectionery, is to accommodate the people and gather in one place a few ragged stamps. He buys largely, buys close and gets the best articles; and he does this for the same purpose. For is prepared to fix you up for Christmas in any shape you like. Call and see him, he means no harm by selling you just what you want at the lowest figures. Fresh butter, live turkeys, fresh eggs, and pure old Bourbon, and Christmas close by. For knows how to put things together.

A Chance.—Joel M. Behears lost $500 the other day, and offers a reward of $100 to any one who will find his money and deliver all of it to him. See his advertisement.

We again remind our readers that Bladok keeps constantly on hand the largest, finest, and best flavored fresh oysters that can be procured anywhere. Give him a call.

Those who want to pay ahead for their subscription will please bring it in.

dreary and unprofitable place in which to live, there will be none to blame but the Old Fogies, those who had the means and the power to build her up, but lacked the will. Unless a move is made, and made at an early day too, Louisiana will be far in advance of Hannibal. We sincerely hope that this lethargy which has so long overcome the people of our town, will wear off and they may all awake to the realization of their position and take such steps as will prove to the country at large that they are wide a wide-awake set of people fully up to the times in every respect.

KILLED BY A PAPER COLLAR.—An Iowa paper says a child in New Jefferson, Iowa, was fatally poisoned a few days ago, by chewing pieces of an enameled paper dollar. Whereupon the Cincinnati Union observes, "We look upon paper collars as extremely dangerous. We knew a young lady once who was always extremely agitated whenever she came in contact with one of those apparently innocent articles."

MARRIED.

On the 20th ultimo, by Rev. W. D. Mahan, Mr. THOS. S. DOUGHERTY to Miss CORNELIA STONE, all of Pike county.

On the 18th inst., by Elder M. M. Modisatt, at the residence of the bride's mother, Mr. H. O. WRIGHT and Miss ANNE JONES.

DIED.

At his residence in Buffalo Township, Pike county, four miles South-west of Ibouliann, on the 14th inst. of Bronchitis, Mr. JOSEPH BURBRIDGE, in the 65th year of his age.

Mr. Burbridge was one of the old settlers of the State and has resided in this township and county for thirty-six years. He was a native of Kentucky. He was a quiet, orderly citizen, and goes to his long home without leaving an enemy behind.
