I will admit I needed it. I feel like a heel but there was nothing to write about. I spent a dull weekend as I never left the Klapdohn. I had seen the shows before I left the States and there was nothing else left to do. I actually had my first job today I drove a 2 cyl [cylinder] DKW german truck  $\frac{3}{4}$  ton. I haft [sic] to drive it the rest of this week to. Here I come again Sat [Saturday] I leave for school down in Murnau [Murnau, Germany] don't change the address until you here from me [page 2] for sure. I hear it is going to be rough inspections and what have you every day. I suppose it will be a change thou [sic] I am tired of this hole. By the time I get back I will have a little less than a year to go. I miss you lots wish I were there with you. Well I have run out of paper filler so will close tell all hello for me.
