1. Delphinia WOOD, daughter of Spencer & Relief (McCONNELL) WOOD, married 2 June 1856 in Pike County, Missouri.

John MARTZ married Delphine (WOOD) Griffith sometime between 1870 and 1880.

Although Delphine is recorded as living with him and two step-daughters in the 1880 census she is also recorded as living with her brother, Jessa, and family as well as her mother Relief and grandmother, Nancy Brandon.

Mr. Martz, Delphine and two step-daughters are living in Clarksville, Pike County, MO. Mr. Martz works at the stove factory.

The step-daughters (to Delphine) are ages 18 & 17 and were born in Missouri.

Although Mr. Martz is 47 in 1880 and was born in Germany his eldest daughter was born about 1862 in Missouri. So it is evident that he was residing as early as 1862 somewhere in the State of Missouri.

Mr. Martz was not found in the 1870 census record of Clarksville, MO, so is evidently not living there at the time of that census enumeration.

Although Delphine does not appear to have had any children by Mr. Martz further research should be done to determine the relationship between Delphine (WOOD) Griffith and Mr. Martz after 1880.

Loretta had 2 step-children by her marriage to Noah.

1. Loula Griffith
b. Oct. 1890
2. Floyd N. Griffith
b. Sept. 1891

It appears that Loretta's first 2 children, Yancie & Eugene are step-children of Mr. Griffith. Yancie was born 1 yr. & 7 mos. before their marriage and Eugene was born only 5 or 6 mos. after their marriage.

OMOHUNDRO & CO.

A special from Louisiana, Mo., dated Jan. 23d, says: "Mrs. Nancy Brandon of this city died at her home this morning. She had the distinction of being the oldest settler in Pike county. Her maiden name was Nancy McConnell, and she was a daughter of Wm. McConnell, a soldier in the Revolutionary war. She was born in Woodford county, Kentucky, on the 16th of May, 1793, and was consequently 91 years and 8 months old. Her parents removed to this county when it was embraced in the limits of St. Charles. They came as early as 1810, and made up one of the nineteen families, that went into the old Buffalo fort, two miles south of this city, to protect themselves from the Indians during the war of 1812. In this fort she was married to Peter Brandon, a soldier of that war, and a private in Capt. Thomas Hamilton's company, United States infantry, who was then encamped in the fort to protect the settlers from the tomahawks of the savages. Her husband died about forty years ago, and she has, since April, 1878, been drawing a pension on account of her husband's services in the war of 1812. Her daughter, Mrs. Letho Woods, took the prize, a silver cup, at the old settlers' reunion at Bowling Green in 1883, for being the first child born in Pike county. Mrs. Brandon's descendants numbered four generations, and at the time of her death was mother, grandmother, great grandmother and great great grandmother. She had always been an active and energetic woman and retained her faculties to the last, and her death was the result of old age."
