

June, Monday 27

Very warm and dry threatens to rain Plowed in the forenoon in the afternoon marked the sheep Talked of going to Dansville after supper but gave it up and went to plowing and [turned?] out at supper time on the account of looking like rain

June, Tuesday 28

Still very warm did not get much rain last night Started early for Dansville to take Martha home and get my horse rake got home at ten o'clock Went up to help Mr Poxson draw hay drew an one load and then it rained a

June, Wednesday 29

Still warm after so much Thunder but no rain here yet to speak of yet Went to plowing to day [sic] till after supper and then mowed around a piece of grass Georgie Down died this morning he has been sick a long time so we are all passing away the old must die and the young do

June, Thursday 30

Pleasant [sic] went to mowing in the forenoon in the afternoon went to George Downs funeral Mrs Pickett was here to day [sic] Went to rakeing [sic] hay after supper it looks like rain and rained north of us and here a little

[Notes added by transcriber]