

W. Dean Payton

Winford Dean Payton, loving husband, brother, parent, grandparent, uncle, and friend, died on January 14, 2010, and today is home with the Lord.

Memorial Services will be at 11 a.m., Tuesday, January 19, 2010, at Christ United Methodist Church, 14506 E. 39th St., Independence, MO. Visitation will precede the services from 9:30 until service time. Private inurnment will follow. In lieu of flowers, memorials to Christ UMC.

Dean was born on January 12, 1926 in Downs, Kansas, and moved to Kansas City in the 1930s. An honored U.S. Navy veteran, he served with distinction as a medical corpsman with the U.S. Marines on Iwo Jima, receiving the Purple Heart. He retired from the Southland Corp (7-Eleven Stores) after 23 years of service. His life revolved around family, church, friends and travel. Receiving and visiting his extended family at home and around the world gave him great joy. Dean was active in Christ United Methodist Church for decades through United Methodist Men and Asbury class. An avid motorcyclist and member of Christian Motorcycle Assn. for years, he enjoyed rallies and rode in 49 states. His supreme joy was biking 9,000 miles to/from Alaska with friends. He is now a proud graduate of "Hub University."

Dean was preceded in death by an infant son, his parents, and in-laws. He is survived by his wife of 63 years, Maxine Chinn Payton; son Gary (Nancy); grandsons Ian (Charity), Adam, and Graham, and great grandson, Alec; a sister Patty McLees; nieces Susan Guerrero, Barbie Marquis (Keith), Laurie Lentz (Chad), Lisa Gard (Dennis); nephews Fred Weatherford (Elaine), Paul (Lisa) and Rich (Holly) Chinn; and, 12 great nieces and nephews.

WILLIAM DALE BOWLES

William Dale Bowles (W.D., Bill, or Billy) passed away on June 12, 2011, at St. Luke's Hospital in Kansas City. He was born in Stover, Missouri, to Elton Pack Bowles and Dale Caroline Bowles on June 17, 1939.

There are no words that can describe the whole of his interests and talents. He would read everything he could get his hands on and some of his ideas were brilliant, he was a true Renaissance man. He would discuss scientific theories, Biblical truths, and the best lure to use to get the biggest fish. He loved teaching and he took delight in sharing life lessons with his children and grandchildren.

Nearest and dearest to W.D.'s heart was the love of his Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. He knew his greatest role in his life was as father and grandfather, and he taught the children in word and deed. W.D. is survived by his wife of 52 years, Carolyn (Walker) Bowles of Leawood, KS, two daughters, Suzette Caroline Groebner and her husband Markus Groebner of Kansas City, MO, and Cynthia Sue Schmidt and her husband Jon Schmidt of Leawood, KS; one son, William Walker (Bill-I) Bowles and his wife, Deena Bowles of Paola, KS; four grandsons, Isaac, William, Mason and Andrew; two granddaughters, Bailey and Brooke; and one sister, Linda Hargenrader and her husband, Gary Hargenrader of Warrensburg, MO.

He was preceded in death by his mother and father, his brothers Richard Wayne and John Pack Bowles, and one sister, Carolyn Sue (Bowles) Mathews.

A celebration of life will be held for W.D. at 1:00 pm, Thursday, June 16 at Maywood Baptist Church, 10505 E. Winner Road, Independence, MO 64052; interment at Salem Cemetery. Visitation will begin at 11 am prior to the service.

In lieu of flowers the family requests contributions to God's Mountain Bible Camp, 14771 S.W. Old Highway, Rushville, MO 64484 or Maywood Baptist Church.

Condolences may be sent to the family at www.speakschapel.com. Arrangements: Speaks Suburban Chapel, 18020 E. 39th Street, Independence, MO 64055 816-373-3600.

DORIS MAE PRINDLE

Doris Mae Prindle, October 4, 1919, to June 13, 2011, was born to Homer and Lavada Rainey in Albany, MO. She was married to Wilford V. Prindle in 1938. She bore five children.

During her life she resided in Jame-sport, MO, Kansas City, MO, Independence, MO, Grand Junction, CO, Sedona, AZ, National City, CA, Buckner, MO, Bryan, TX, and Duncanville, TX.

Doris's husband always marveled how God gave him the perfect help mate 10 years before they accepted Christ. She couldn't have been a better pastor's wife. She worked mostly with youth and young adults, but was always willing to help anywhere. She was always a loving and supporting wife and a great mother. Her unconditional love and integrity will live on.

She is survived by two sons, Wilford Ronald Prindle and Charles Edward Prindle, a daughter, Debra Jean Khadivi, 10 grandchildren, 12 great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandson. Her loving husband and two children, Anna Louise and John Mark preceded her in death.

We rejoice in her life and she is rejoicing in a life well lived.

Funeral services will be 3:00 p.m., Friday, June 17, 2011, at New Salem Funeral Home. Burial in Salem Association Cemetery. Visitation will be 2:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m., prior to the service, at New Salem chapel.
