Prior to 1875 there was no regular preaching by the Baptists in Curryville, Pike County, Missouri. A union church was built during the summer and fall of 1875.

The third Saturday in November, 1875, the following 18 names were enrolled going into the organization of the Baptist Church: Benjamin King, Luke Lewis, Rachel King, William K. Biggs, Martha Biggs, Emma Biggs, Anna Biggs, James W. Riggs, Lucretia Riggs, M. J. Trabue, William Brandon, Ann Brandon, James E. McPike, H. P. Lewis, Lou Lewis, George W. Wylie, T. J. Ayres, Mollie E. Ayres.

February 21, 1883, William Brandon, a constituent member was called to his reward. At the March meeting, following, the church adopted resolutions of respect to him. By energy and economy, William Brandon had accumulated a good estate. Of these means he contributed at one time $500.00 to the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, then located at Charleston, South Carolina.

John Edel, will sell at his residence, on the old Davison or Chas. Sidle farm, 3 1-2 miles southeast of Bowling Green, on Thursday, Feb. 22nd, 2 brood mares, 2 work horses, 1 sucking mule, 3 cows, 6 fat hogs, 6 steers from 1 to 3 years old, 23 head sheep, brood sow, one bull, farming implements, household and kitchen furniture. See bills.

Mr. Wm. M. Brandon, aged 67 years and 20 days, died at his home six miles west of this place, yesterday. Mr. Brandon had been ill for many months past, and his sufferings have been very great, during which time his estimable wife has been his constant nurse. Mr. Brandon was born and raised in Pike county, his parents having been, we believe, the first couple married in Pike county. They were married in the old fort on Buffalo. Mr. Brandon leaves a wife and one daughter, Mrs. Jep D. Newman, besides a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn his departure to that home beyond the grave. He had for a number of years been a member of the Baptist Church. His remains were interred at Mt. Pisgah yesterday at 2 p. m. We extend to the bereaved wife and sorrowing relatives our sympathy in their loss.

most to R. J. Harrington; Wm. P. Hamlet to Cora B. McMillen; Arthur Crandall to Teresa Ryland; John Kew to Sallie F. Hiles; Geo. T. Smith and Ada M. Griffith; Leonard Murphy to Nettie Kirk; Spencer Smith to Sophia Hammer; John S. Johnson to Martha A. Motley; Jas. D. Jewell to Minerva J. Shoemaker.

A CARD

I would respectfully inform the citizens of Pike county that I have been granted license to keep a Beer Saloon in the town of Bowling Green and that I intend to use my best efforts to conduct the business in a legitimate and orderly manner. To the wife, who has a drunkard for a husband or a friend who is unfortunately dissipated, I say, give me a notice in writing of such case in which you are interested and all shall be prohibited from drinking at my house. I pay a government, state, county and city license to sell beer by the drink, but I want it distinctly understood that I do not want to sell to drunkards or minors or the destitute and poor. I would say to those who want to trade with me, come and I will promise to treat you right.

Very Respectfully,
T. L. WELLS

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 1st, 1883.

Sunday night. We extend our congratulations.

Look out for the wedding at the brick. HAVEN.

Dimension of Heaven.

Coroner W. H. Campbell being notified of the sudden death of Mrs. Ann Brandon, which occurred Tuesday night, held an inquest over the body yesterday. We only give the testimony of one of the witnesses (which was corroborated by several others) and the verdict of the jury of lawful age, being duly sworn, says, I was at Louisiana on the 18th inst., and returned about 8 o'clock p. m.; found the deceased, as well as usual. I got up about 7 o'clock a. m., on the 19th; about half past eight the boy I have living with me called her. He came back to the cook room and said Aunt Ann did not answer. My wife then went to see what was the matter; she went to the stair door and called her; she did not answer; she then went into the room of the deceased. She then turned around and came back where we were at breakfast. My wife said Tuck, I believe Aunt Ann is dead. I got up and went up in the room and called to her. She did not answer. I walked up close to the bed; I then turned round and stepped back and told my wife and the boy I thought she was dead. I told the boy to get a horse and tell Mr. Tinker and wife to come as quick as they could. She went to her room about 8 o'clock p. m. I did not see anything more of her until morning.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 19th day of December, '88.

W. H. CAMPBELL,

Coroner.

VERDICT OF JURY.

We, the undersigned jurors, impaneled and sworn on the 19th day of December, 1888, at the county of Pike, by W. H. Campbell, Coroner for said county, to diligently enquire and true presentment make, how and by whom Mrs. Ann Brandon, whose body was found at her late residence in Pike county, Missouri, on the 19th day of December, 1888, came to her death. Having viewed the body and heard the evidence, do find that the deceased came to her death, being subject to epileptic convulsions, which in all probability caused her death.
