

March, Saturday 5

Snowed in the morning pleasent [sic] through the day John Canfield and his boy staid [stayed] here last night Went down into the field and cut some wood and drew up three loads and cut the wood to last over Sunday John came back to stay over Sunday with us he is pedling [sic] tin ware

March, Sunday 6

Snowed the most of the day did not go to meeting to day [sic] The boys went a horse back up to the school house up by Father Holts I staid [stayed] at home and read for the children And how many have gone since this year has commenced from earth but our little family is still spared

March, Monday 7

Snowed through the night not very cold John left here this morning We ground the axes and we chopped [sic] wood at the door in the forenoon and after dinner went over to Fitchburgh and Mrs Richmond came home with us We had been home but a little when John Holt came down to get Andrew to do his chores while he went to Howel a visiting

March, Tuesday 8

Pleasant [sic] went into the woods to chop in the forenoon and after dinner hitched [hitched] up the team to get some ice to wash with Squares folks and Hiram's folks came here I went and got the ice had not been here but a little while when Square was sent for the [illegible] [illegible] had come

March, Wednesday 9

Pleasant [sic] and thawing in the roads drew up wood in the forenoon in the afternoon went to Dansville to get the mail and something and got the rocking chair that I left to Mr Fieldses to get repaired which cost 63 cts [cents] and bought 1/2 lb of tea at Mr [illegible] for 70 cts [cents]

March, Thursday 10

Cloudy part of the day went out into the field to chop wood we had not been out there but a little while when a man came out there to buy some cows I came to the barn with him but did not sell any drew up a load of wood in the afternoon and Mr Beals came along I sold him a cow for forty dollars