Terry Lee Adams, age 57, of Springfield, exited the stage for the final time at 9 p.m. Sunday, August 20, 2006, after a courageous two year battle with lung cancer. He was at home surrounded by his family. Terry was born November 10, 1948, in Springfield, Missouri, to Dean and Thelma Adams. As a young man Terry attended College Street Baptist Church. In 1961 he moved with his parents and two brothers to Ozark, Missouri, where on July 24, 1964 Terry was baptized at the First Baptist Church in Ozark. Terry was active in debate and theater and graduated from Ozark High School in 1966 and attended SMS. Terry worked for the Zenith Corporation in Springfield for 18 years, then in 1994 he went to work for Bass Pro for 10 years. Terry was a writer, director, composer and actor. He was an entertainer. Terry had a golden talent for making people laugh. He especially enjoyed performing at the Springfield Little Theatre and was a member of the Actors Theatre of Missouri. Some of his most memorable roles were as Ernie Cusack in Rumors, Mr. Stanley in The Man Who Came To Dinner, Paul Sycamore in You Can't Take It With You, Mr. Potter in It's a Wonderful Life and pictured here, as a gentleman whose air of dignity and composure is hilariously lost (along with his hat) when bestowed with sudden and unexpected generosity by Ebenezer Scrooge in A Christmas Carol. Terry had an abiding love for animals. Four stray black cats that found their way to his doorstep over the years were rewarded with a safe, loving and happy home, their names-Blackjack, Java, Catrina and Emerald. Terry was rewarded with their antics and love in return. Terry was a loyal friend, an eccentric uncle, a much loved brother and adored son. He will be sorely missed, though we take comfort in knowing Terry has gone home to his Heavenly Father permanently healed and reunited with his earthly father Arthur Dean Adams. Terry leaves behind his mother, Thelma Adams; two brothers and sisters-in-law, Dean and Mary Adams and Jeff and Andra Adams; one sister, Valerie Adams; a niece Sarah Orr and her husband, Mark, all of Ozark; two nephews, Arthur Adams and his wife, Kimberly, Nixa; and Jesse Adams, Ozark; one great-niece, Emily Orr; an English Bulldog named Winston and two very special miniature Schnauzers named Freddy and Willy who stayed at Terry's bedside and helped watch over him during the final days of his illness. Bravo Terry! Services will be held Wednesday, August 23, at 6 p.m. in Adams Funeral Home, Ozark, with Pastor Tommy Bilyeu speaking, and visitation following the service. Burial will be in Sparta Cemetery. Memorial contributions may be made to the American Cancer Society, 3322 S. Campbell Avenue, Ste R, Springfield, MO 65807, or church or charity of the donor's choice.

Allen, Brooksey H. (Holt) 11 Feb 1908 - 11 Aug 1949 CCR 11 Aug 1949

[Note: Daughter of Hudson & Mary Ellen Holt; married Ray Allen]

Mrs. Tisha Haslip, 65, route 1, Ozark and Mrs. Brooksie Allen, 41, Battle Creek, Mich., were killed in a head-on collision Thursday afternoon near Ozark. Both women were passengers in cars which rammed together during a driving rain about 1:30 p.m. Thursday. The scene of the crash was on highway 14, about a half mile east of highway 65. In "only fair" condition at Springfield Baptist hospital Thursday night were Mrs. Haslip's husband, Sam, 65, Miss Winnie Fay Allen, 17-year-old daughter of the dead woman, and Miss Allen's grandmother, Mrs. Mary Holt, 77, of Pampa, Texas. Mrs. Holt, a widow, appeared to be most seriously injured, suffering from severe shock and possibly internal injuries. Mr. Haslip is receiving treatment for a broke right leg and multiple cuts on his head and face. Miss Allen suffered a fractured jaw, a contusion on her left knee and severe lacerations on the right cheek and upper forehead. Both dead women suffered head and other injuries in the wreck. Mrs. Haslip was killed instantly. Mrs. Allen died enroute to Haguewood hospital at Ozark, where all the victims were given emergency treatment before being taken to Springfield in two Chaffin ambulances. Cause of the crash was not learned immediately, since both drivers, Miss Allen and Haslip, were in a state of shock. Coroner T.B. Chaffin stated that an inquest will be delayed pending their recovery. No one was thrown out of the cars although both machines were virtually demolished. The entire motor of Miss Allen's 1948 Frazier sedan was telescoped back into the front seat of the car by the impact and the front of Haslip's 1932 DeSoto coupe suffered heavy damage. Officers said the pavement was extremely slick. The crash occurred on a straight stretch of pavement. The car carrying the Michigan women appeared to be over the center line, authorities reported, and added the heavy downpour may have blinded the driver. The elder Mrs. Holt, her daughter and granddaughter had been visiting relatives at Chadwick and were believed to have been enroute back to Michigan at the time of the mishap. The Haslips, who live about seven miles south of Ozark, were returning to their farm home after a trip to Ozark. Mrs. Haslip had been a lifelong resident of the Ozark vicinity and in addition to her husband, she is survived by four sons, Clyde, Clifford, Claude, and Carl, all of Ozark, and two daughters, Mrs. Edith Hamby of the state of Washington, and Mrs. Ida Delisle of Ozark.

Amos, Gary J. 4 Mar 1969 - 2 Apr 1989 NN-E 18 May 1989

David Tremble was arrested this week in Springdale, Arkansas, following continued investigation by the Christian County Sheriff's Dept. into the April 2 shooting death of Gary Amos near Nixa. Trimble, age 28, was arrested on a charge of voluntary manslaughter after the Missouri State Highway Patrol and Christian County Sheriff's Department continued their joint investigation of the shooting. Amos was shot with a 30.06 rifle at Trimble's home northwest of Nixa during the evening hours of April 2. A coroner's inquest found April 4 that Kimberly Trimble, David Trimble's estranged wife, had shot Amos. Kimberly had told investigators that Amos had beaten and threatened her repeatedly. Evidence was revealed in the later investigations which resulted in the filing of charges of voluntary manslaughter against David Trimble. Prosecuting Attorney Tim McCormick declined to release details of the additional evidence pending further court action. Voluntary manslaughter, a Class II felony, carries with it punishment ranging from 5-15 years in prison. Trimble waived extradition, and was transported to the Christian County jail from Springdale last Thursday. He was arraigned by Associate Circuit Court Judge Anthony McConnell Friday. Trimble will be represented by Springfield attorney Bill Wendt. His original bond was reduced from $75,000 to $50,000.

He is currently out of jail, after posting a $50,000 property bond Monday. Trimble is set to appear for his preliminary hearing June 15.

Daughter to Accept Top Honor for Lucile Anderson

A Meritorious Award, Missouri Library Association, for outstanding services in the library field will be given Sept. 27 in honor of Mrs. Lucile Adams Anderson who died the past July 22, She was nominated for the honor last May. Mrs. Anderson's daughter, Mrs. Sam (Anne) Appleby of Ozark will accept the award at the Howard Johnson Lodge of Springfield, at the annual conference of the Missouri Library Association, Sir Phillip Richardson of London, England, will be the speaker at the awards banquet. The award presentation will be by Charles O'Halloran of Jefferson City, the Missouri State Librarian. Mrs. Prosser described Sir Phillip as a public relations and communications consultant who was on a speaking tour of the United States. His topic will be 'Caring and Communicating.' Mrs. Anderson founded the Christian County Library in 1954. She was the librarian for 20 years. And her last great achievement was the new building which the modern up-to-date library now occupied. "Without her," said Mrs. Marilyn Prosser, who succeeded Mrs. Anderson when she retired in 1974, "we wouldn't have this new building." Even after her death, Mrs. Anderson's influence on the library's growth is continuing. Memorial contributions still coming in, are being used to buy microfilm of Christian County newspaper issues dating back to 1898 and up to 1953. The microfilm purchase was at the suggestion of the family. Newspapers on the microfilm will include the old Sparta Christian County Leader, the Billings Times, the Ozark Herald, the Ozark Tribune and the Christian County Republican (not the Ozark Headliner). A microfilm reader has already been purchased and about 36 rolls of microfilm have been ordered, developed by the University of Missouri Film Laboratory. Following is the nomination letter by Mrs. Marilyn Prosser. It sets out Mrs. Anderson's public career and library accomplishments. "Lucile Anderson has had a colorful and outstanding career in library service. "After completing a 20-year career as a newspaper journalist for the Springfield (Mo.) Republican and the St. Louis Times and a second 20-year career in the book store business, she was asked to help the people of Christian County establish a library, thus beginning her third 20-year career. "In 1954, in a small one-time livery stable, the Christian County Library started with a collection of 1,300 volumes. Over the years, Mrs. Anderson was very involved in the growth and development of the library's collection.

At her retirement, the collection had grown to 49,000 volumes. "The school administrators in the county will remember Mrs. Anderson's undying devotion to the young people. A desire to see libraries in every school district throughout the county was one of her special goals. In 1974, all eight school districts has library services for their youngsters. "One project Mrs. Anderson had a deep fondness for was the collecting of local history of Christian County. In 1959, she served as an editorial supervisor in the writing of Christian County: It's first 100 Years. She developed an outstanding collection of materials on the county as well as Southwest Missouri. The room housing these materials now bears the name "Anderson History Room" in her honor. "As early as 1957, Mrs. Anderson worked with Willard Dennis and Vivian Maddux in forming what is now the Southwest Regional Library Service, Inc. in Bolivar. "In 1961, the Bibliographic Center" was created. Mrs. Anderson was instrumental in the development in Southwest Missouri. The Bibliographic Center then evolved into O.P.L.S. (Ozark Pioneer Library System) and finally the Southwest Missouri Library Network. Lucile Anderson was actively involved in each stage of growth in library cooperation. "I hope you will give her high consideration for the Meritorious Award."

Final Tribute Paid Veteran Educator

Funeral rites were held at 2 p.m. Saturday for veteran educator, Felix J. Appleby, 82, who succumbed last Thursday in Blythe Nursing Home. A grand old man, beloved and respected by many people in Palo Verde Valley whose lives he touched, Mr. Appleby spent 50 years in public education, and was principal of a local grammar school from 1929 to 1956. Kind and gentle, yet firm with students when firmness was required, Mr. Appleby taught and lived the golden rule, friends recall. Neighbors had never heard an ill word about him. Former students still prize good test papers marked with Mr. Appleby's initials. Two schools were named for the one - one was the former Blythe Grammar School on E. Barnard, the main portions first built in 1916 - and the other is the new Felix J. Appleby Elementary School which "broke ground" in 1963 and first opened last fall. Mr. Appleby was a charter member of the original Blythe Lions Club and again when the club reorganized. He remained honorary Lion Tamer, even after he became inactive. He was an honorary life member of the Blythe Rotary Club. Mr. Appleby was also active in the Blythe Community Methodist Church and was a trustee for many years. Born Jan. 21, 1883 in Missouri, Mr. Appleby held a BA degree from Southwest Missouri State Teacher's College and an MA from the University of Missouri.

Years of Experience

He came to the Palo Verde valley with 27 years of continuous experience gained as superintendent at Hartville High School 1900-1911 and Ozark High School, 1911-1924, both in Missouri. He was principal at Milan High School in Mo. From 1924 to 1927. Prior to 1909, he taught in several school of Greenfield, Mo. For four years. Survivors include his widow, Frances, whom he married at Lockwood, Mo. in 1910; and two sons, Jack, a U. S. Navy Rear Admiral, Washington, D. C. and Dan, employed by Kemling. Co. of Dallas, Tex, and four grandchildren. Funeral services were held from the Community Methodist Church, with the Rev. William Opitz officiating. Interment followed at Palo Verde Cemetery.

LAID TO REST - The Obituary of Cathryn Applegate as Printed in 1928

Cathron Applegate, better known as Grandma Applegate, passed to rest on Marsh 21, 1928, after a life of 84 years, 3 months and 25 days. She was born in the state of Arkansas on December 28th, 1843. Her life was filled with the varying scenes of this world's events, among the most trying for a young woman of her age, being the Civil War. Being deprived of her father, who went to serve his country in the war and also saddened by the loss of her mother in 1862, she took upon herself the care for a large family of 8 sisters and 2 brothers, she being only 16 years of age at the time. Only those who have experienced the responsibility can realize the duty which fell upon the shoulders of this young woman. But. she did her work well and met, with a smile and a determination every trying duty which came her way. At the close of the war, she and Gilbert Applegate were married in 1865. She had been converted during the trying scenes of the war and immediately after her marriage with Mr. Applegate, she united with the Christian Church, with which congregation she has kept in constant touch and affiliation, living and teaching the Divine principles of Truth and Honesty and righteous living. She has always kept the faith of Jesus paramount in her life and had been the means of bringing many souls to see the way of salvation, Her husband preceded her in death, being called from the stage of life on December 17th, 1926. He, also, was a consecrated Christian, being a member of the Baptist Church and so well did these people live and work for the better things of life they won themselves the love and respect of the entire community to such an extent that they were known by all as Uncle Gill and Aunt Kate. They also leave a large posterity to mourn their departure. There are 7 sons, one daughter, 57 grand-children, 77 great grandchildren, left to mourn, while in the valley beyond the Shadow of Death there will be 2 sons, 11 grandchildren and five great grandchildren. She will also be mourned by 5 brothers and 3 sisters. It is seldom that we chronicle the death of one whose service to her own life and to the lives of others had erected such a wonderful monument of love and affection. Aunt Kate, as she was known, began the building of the foundation of her life when she became the mother and father to that family of 10 during the trying tearful days of the Civil War, and from that hour she was a giver of some good and perfect gift to the lives of those about her. As her blood multiplied, each succeeding life, was just another flower to bloom in her garden of memorable deeds and gifts. She was of the foundation stock of this great United States, hers being one of the paramount examples of sacrifice and service. May her soul find rest as sweet and restful as will the memory she had left for those who will await the hour when they, to, may again know the pleasures of the presence and associations of Uncle Gill and Aunt Kate.

Mr. L.L. (Lenza) Applegate, former resident of Keltner in Christian county, was killed about 7:35 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 8, when he was struck by the Santa Fe El Capitan train near the Terminal grain elevator in east Hutchinson, Kansas. His home was at Haven, Kan. He was 45 years old. Papers carried in his pockets made identification possible. Applegate was walking on ties alongside the track when struck by the train. His body was catapulted upward by the force of the impact and struck the windshield in front of the engineer. The body passed over part of the engine and fell to one side of the track. Dave Hunter, Newton, engineer, said the El Capitan left the Hutchinson station and headed east at 7:30 p.m. The accident came a few minutes after the train pulled out. The engineer estimated the train was doing 45 miles an hour at the time of the accident. Hunter told police he saw Applegate on the track walking in the direction of the train. Hunter said Applegate had his head down. Hunter said as soon as he saw the man he blasted the horn and attempted to stop the train. Applegate did not stop walking, he said. Trainmen said there were six tracks at the point where Applegate was struck and it was possible that Applegate believed he was on a safe track. The track on which he was walking was the southernmost track of the series. Applegate suffered a crushed and mangled skull and broken arms. His body was crushed although it was believed his body was not run over by the train. The train stopped after the crash and Hunter, with Dan Conway, conductor, also of Newton, found the body only a few inches away from the track. Relatives said Applegate had planned to go to Hutchinson to get his son, Lowell, a Hutchinson junior college student, and bring him home for the weekend. However, Applegate left his car in Haven. Apparently he caught a ride with an unknown person. It is not known why he was on the railroad tracks and so far from the center of the city. Mr. Applegate was a pumper at a Cooperative Oil Co. lease five miles north of Haven. Survivors, besides Lowell, are his widow, Leola, two other sons, Marvin, Manhattan, Kan., and Chesley, Haven; three daughters, Mrs. George Oller, Hutchinson, Mrs. Oliver Smith Jr., Ft. Worth, Tex.; and Elizabeth of the home; four brothers, John, Valley Center; Elzie, Davenport, Okla., Oscar, Augusta, and Calvin, Augusta; three sisters, Mrs. Leona Patterson, Wichita, Mrs. Edna Turner, Detroit, Mich., and Mrs. Effie Young, Springfield, Mo., and his mother, Mrs. Myrtle Applegate, Augusta, Kan. Mr. Applegate, who went to Kansas 22 years ago, had many relatives and friends in this community.

Two killed in plane crash near Ozark Friday, investigation ongoing.

By Marsha Paxson, Headliner News Staff

Two Ozark residents were killed Friday when they Beechcraft Bonanza airplane crashed near the intersection of Route CC and Fremont Road, ½ mile west of Air Park South. Wyman Bailey, 66, the pilot and his wife, Betty, 67. Were apparently attempting to land at the airport at about 1:30 p.m. when the left wing of the low-flying plane struck the ground and flipped the craft end over end. Witnesses said the plane crashed nose-first into the ground. No explosion or fire occurred upon impact. A first responder administered CPR to Wyman Bailey to no avail. It is believed Betty Bailey died upon impact. Although construction workers in the area said the airplane seemed to "miss" or sputter as though it were out of fuel. Federal Aviation Administration investigators said all four fuel tanks had fuel in the., Mitch Robbins, an Air Safety Investigator with the National Transportation Safety Board, said Sunday that weather was not likely a cause for the crash despite the fact winds were higher than normal Friday.

JOHN BAKER, ALLEGED MOONSHINE, SHOT AND KILLED
SHERIFF'S POSSE WHILE SEARCHING FOR STILL AND LIQUOR FIRED UPON
AND FIRE RETURNED WITH FATAL RESULTS
BODY BROUGHT TO OZARK BY OFFICERS

Upon information received Tuesday by Sheriff E. M. Bishop, search warrants were procured to search the homes of the Bakers near Beachler's store some twenty miles south of Ozark and a posse organized consisting of Deputies Ollie Bishop, Bob Logan and Amos Johnson, city marshal and accompanied by Omer E. Brown, Prosecuting Attorney. The officers left Wednesday morning and arrived at the John Baker home about noon and searched his home but found nothing in the whiskey line, but noticed a large revolver lying on the Victrola. They then proceeded to search the home of Leonard Baker and found there a ten gallon keg of liquor in a tree top and 15 new empty jugs, a fruit jar from which the liquor had been poured by the wife of Leonard and a jug from which she had poured the liquor into a dishpan full of dishwater. This force was still making the search according to evidence before the coroners' jury, when John Baker, the father, was discovered by Mr. Brown, through the brush, approaching with a drawn revolver. Mr. Brown called to him not to do that and to throw up his hands which was answered with a shot at Brown. Logan who was nearby and heard the demand made by Brown was also approaching at the time Baker fired and could also see Baker through the brush, and upon Baker shooting, Brown and Logan both fired almost simultaneously and Baker fell with a bullet through his body, entering near the right shoulder and coming out under the left shoulder, evidently having passed through his heart. At this point, Johnson came up and seeing the situation and seeing Baker who had fallen against a log but still in a standing posture called for him to "put them up" and all three advanced when they discovered that he was already mortally wounded. While this was going on, Deputy Ollie Bishop was at the home of Leonard Baker, he having already placed Leonard under arrest. Upon discovery of what had happened during the shooting, the officers took Leonard to the scene of the killing where the dead man was loaded into the automobile and together with the prisoner Leonard Baker and four officers came at once to Ozark arriving here shortly before three o'clock, thus fixing the time of the killing about one o'clock or shortly after. Upon arrival in Ozark, the body was taken to the Undertaking rooms and Coroner H. W. Wise of Sparta notified at once and arrived shortly before six o'clock. The coroner at once summoned a jury consisting of T. L. Robertson, Chas. L. Walker, Clay Jones, C. P. Cox, A. M. Melton, and Frank Biers who proceeded to view the body after which they adjourned to the circuit court room to take the evidence. The testimony of Bob Logan and Omer Brown were taken, also that of Leonard Baker to the effect that he was at his home and had accompanied the officers to the scene of the killing and was satisfied that he found his father just as he had fallen. After hearing the evidence, the jury retired and a little later brought in the following verdict: "We, the jury, find that John Baker, the deceased came to his death from gunshot wounds at the hands of Bob Logan or Omer Brown while in discharge of their duties as officers of the law." T. L. Robertson, Foreman. The deceased was about 73 years of age and leaves the widow and a large family of children, all grown. The remains will be taken Friday by T. B. Chaffin to a cemetery near Swan post office where burial and services will be held. Among other things they found upon the person of the deceased was a receipt for $65.00 paid to J. J. Slone who operates a store in that vicinity on July 16, 1923. Items listed as follows: 5 bags of sugar, $60; 100 lbs potatoes $3.00, 1 box of yeast $1.50; 6 packages of hops $1.00. The purchase was made July 3, according to the receipt. Mr. Baker was, we understand, a native of Kentucky, but had lived in this county for many years., and while generally considered of an inoffensive nature, but had operated a still at different times when it was lawful and since the passage of the 18th amendment had been frequently accused of continuing in the business and in our judgment furnished an opportunity for the Prosecuting Attorney and Sheriff's force to openly declare was on the moonshine business through Christian County. Charges were proffered against Leonard Baker for having liquor in his possession. Bond was fixed at $500 which was given and he returned home Wednesday with other members of the family who had come to Ozark late Wednesday night.

Ball, Jackson 20 Jun 1823 - 18 Feb 1904

Captain Jackson Ball died at his home in this city on Thursday night, February 18th, 1904. Captain Ball was born in North Carolina on June 20, 1823, and came with his parents to Giles County, Tennessee, two years later. He was married to Elizabeth M. Keltner on February 20th, 1840, and came first to Missouri in 1841 and settled in Greene County, in that portion which afterward became a part of Christian County. Going back to Tennessee the next year he remained there till 1848, when he again became a resident of Missouri and of Christian county where he made his home until his death. Captain Ball, though of Southern ancestry, espoused the cause of the Union in the late war, and entering the service he was commissioned a second lieutenant to rank from July 28, 1862. He was commissioned as Captain of Co "A" (?) 2nd Regiment Enrolled Militia to rank from November 9th, 1862. These commissions were signed by Hamilton R. Gamble, the Governor of Missouri. He was elected Captain of Co. "L" 6th MO Rangers and having been mustered into the United States service he was commissioned as Captain of Co. "C" 16th Cavalry Volunteers, ranking from November 1st, 1863 and continued in command of the company until he was mustered out in July, 1865. Captain Ball saw much hard service and always possessed the fullest confidence of his superior officers. The men whom he commanded, many of whom were his neighbors after the war, loved him as a father, and never forgot his kindly consideration for them in the "days that tried men's souls." As a husband and father Captain Ball was a model worthy of imitation, kindly, thoughtful, affectionate. His aged widow and his sorrowing children as they stood about his bier, felt that a shadow had fallen on their lives which cannot be lifted. In all the relations of life Captain Ball was an exemplary man. In his dealings with his fellows he always heaped the measure, and nothing small and narrow entered into his make-up. As soldier, citizen, neighbor, he met every crisis with courage and discharged every duty with fidelity, fulfilling every obligation with kindness and charity. CHRISTIAN COUNTY REPUBLICAN, Contributed by Cassie Hill.

Billings Man Hangs Self in County Jail

Grant Norman Didion, 34-year-old employee of the Billings Farmer Exchange, committed suicide last Sunday afternoon in the Christian County jail, after being involved in a fatal one-car accident near Billings early Sunday morning. Wendell Baum, 51-year-old Billings farmer was instantly killed when thrown from Didion's car as it overturned on a gravel road a half mile west of Billings at 2:15 a.m. Didion, who was dazed and cut about the head and body, walked to a Billings service station where he was unable to find Baum. When he returned to the scene of the accident with searchers and Baum's body was found. Didion threatened to "end it all" and had to be restrained by officers. He was lodged in the Billings jail and at six o'clock Sunday morning and was removed to the Christian County jail at Ozark. Sheriff Clay Hodges was at the jail at three o'clock Sunday afternoon and Didion seemed to be in good condition then. Sheriff Hodges found his body when he returned to the jail about 8 p.m. Coroner Dean Harris reported that Didion's death occurred when he looped an electric extension cord around his neck and allowed the weight of his body to sag against it. Scott Douglas Beshears, age 55, left his loved ones behind at 12:14 a.m. on Thursday, July 27, 2006, as the result of an automobile accident. Scott loved life, and all that it had to offer. He loved being a teacher and was currently working on his Master's degree. Scott was a great influence on many lives. He was loved and respected by all who knew him. He had great talent, especially when it came to working with his hands, and thinking outside of the box. He never met a stranger in his life, and was willing to help everyone. He was a devoted husband, son and father. He talked often about "his girls" and did everything he could for them. Scott cherished the time he spent teaching his grandson the "finer things in life" exploring the backyard, examining bugs, hammering on an anvil, shooting his Black Widow bow, driving the tractor, and so much more. His friends describe him as "a real dandy, never lacking in personality or character". Scott was an involved and devoted member of his church, serving as a sponsor on many youth mission trips, working in Bible schools, and participating in church building trips. He was a member of Second Baptist Church and had recently attended South Gate Baptist Church. Scott is survived by his wife, Corbi Jo (Burrows) Beshears of Springfield; his two daughters and sons-in law, James and Chris McNeal and grandson A.J. of Nixa; and Brian and Jennifer Hissink of Ozark; his mother, Duna Lynn and her husband, Reverend Fred Lynn, of Springfield; his father, Roy Beshears of Springfield; and a host of family and friends. Services will be at 2 p.m. Monday, July 31, 2006, at Walnut Lawn DeGraffenreid-Wood Funeral Home with the Reverends Nolan Carrier and Fred Lynn officiating. Visitation will be from 2 to 4 p.m. Sunday, July 30, in the funeral home. Burial will be in Greenlawn Cemetery. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to the South Gate Baptist Church Children's Ministry for playground equipment. Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at Chaffin Funeral Home chapel in Ozark for Mrs. Bertha Alice Bilyeu, 58, who died Monday afternoon in Springfield Baptist Hospital. Mrs. Bilyeu was fatally injured Saturday when she stepped into the path of a pickup truck driven by Keith Stine, 24, of Ozark on Highway 65 near her home, one mile south of Ozark. The eldest daughter of Judge John T. Moore, third circuit judge of the 31st Circuit, and his wife, Henrietta, Bertha Alice Moore was born near Crane in Stone County and spent her girlhood in the family home there. She moved with her family to Galena, and in 1907, when Mr. Moore was elected circuit judge, to Ozark, where she has lived most of the time since. A graduate of Ozark High School and Southwest Missouri State College, Mrs. Bilyeu taught in the schools of Christian County before her marriage to Harlan Bilyeu of Ozark, 28 years ago. Survivors are her husband, of the home; two brothers, Ross Moore of Oklahoma City and Tom R. Moore of Ozark, present circuit judge; two sisters, Mrs. Cora Meade of Goodman, MO, and Mrs. Thelma Crowe of Old Henderson, Webster County. Funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Harold H. Hurst, pastor of Ozark Baptist Church, and interment was made in the Moore family plot in Ozark Cemetery, beside her father and mother. A reconstruction of the accident which proved fatal to Mrs. Bilyeu, made by Sheriff Clay Hodges, Deputy Sherriff N. C. Nelson, and members of the State Highway Patrol, showed that Keith Stine, driver of the truck did everything possible to avoid hitting Mrs. Bilyeu. Eyewitnesses said that Mrs. Bilyeu was crossing Highway 65 from the east side of the road, just south of the Highway's intersection with State 14. She was standing in the east lane, waiting for a car coming from the north to pass. Stine, coming from the south, saw Mrs. Bilyeu in his lane and applied the brakes. There was not enough shoulder for him to pass Mrs. Bilyeu on the east, so when the southbound car had passed he swerved and attempted to pass Mrs. Bilyeu on the west side, Mrs. Bilyeu by that time had progressed into the west lane. The front of Stine's pickup missed her but she was caught and thrown about 40 feet by the right rear fender, suffering a head injury and a fractured ankle. Taken to Baptist Hospital in unconscious condition. Mrs. Bilyeu recovered consciousness late Saturday but took a turn for the worse Monday morning and died that afternoon.

Bingham, Sarah Agnes 2 Aug 1904 - 14 Sep 2001 gwobit

Sarah Agnes Bingham, 97, Springfield, died at 4 p.m. Friday, Sept. 14, 2001, in Mercy Villa, where she had lived for many years. Agnes was born August 2, 1904 in Ozark, Mo., the daughter of Mary and Wade Bingham. She, as well as her two sisters, the late Marguerite Bingham and the late Dorothy Bingham Barrett, lived and went to high school in Ozark. All three attended Drury College (now Drury University), and Agnes and Marguerite received advance degrees in education at Southwest Missouri State University. For several summers they studied at Columbia University in New York. After their father died, in the mid 1920's, Agnes and Marguerite, with their mother, moved to Springfield where they lived for the rest of their lives. Agnes taught first and second grade at Springfield schools for all her long professional life-so long, in fact, that the children and occasional grandchildren of former students learned to read and write from her. The Bingham sisters were active members of the "Saturday Club" and of the Delta, Delta, Delta alumnae group. They enjoyed travel and, with their mother and sometimes a niece or an aunt, took extensive trips in the U.S. each summer. One of Agnes' most outstanding characteristics was her eagerness to work hard at any task. During World War II she grew a large "victory garden" in the back of the home on Elm Street. She industriously painted the garage and whitewashed the basement-in spite of being noticeably short. Because of spending so many years in the elementary grades, Agnes knew a great many children's songs, such as "The Tired Old Horse", which she could render in a high voice. Without always meaning to, Agnes could be funny. An article by Hank Billings in the Springfield News Leader, November 9, 1959, dealt with Agnes' teaching of penmanship. When the reporter wrote "The quick brown fox on the blackboard, Agnes exclaimed, "Hurry! Erase that, I don't want the children to see it" Funeral services will be at 1 p.m. Friday, Sept. 21, 2001, in Mercy Villa Chapel with Dr. Gary Metcalf officiating. Burial will be in Ozark City Cemetery, Ozark, Mo., under the care of Herman H. Lohmeyer Funeral Home, 500 E. Walnut. Friends may call from 1 to 6 p.m. Thursday in the funeral home. Black, Thomas Jefferson 1887 - 5 Nov 1950 CCR 9 Nov 1950

Jeff Black, 63-year-old printing salesman and principal stockholder in Jeff Black, Inc., Ozark printing firm, died early Sunday morning in a fire that completely destroyed his home on the bank of the Finley River across the stream from Riverside Inn north of Ozark. The fire was discovered by Mrs. Lloyd Garrison, who lives nearby, about 6 o'clock. She reported the fire, and the Ozark fire siren was blown to get help at the early morning hour. Ozark volunteer firemen were among volunteers who went to the fire. "The place was a furnace," said A.C. Berberia. "We couldn't get close enough to get a line on his car and pull it out of the garage even though there was just one tire burning when we arrived. A door immediately in front of the attached garage had fallen outward from the stone walled 6-room house and flames kept everyone at a distance, he explained. When it was generally decided that Mr. Black must have died in the flames, firemen took the Ozark fire truck out and used water from the pressure tank to beat down the flames in the corner of the house where Mr. Black had a couch on the second floor. The body was burned beyond identification. Coroner T.B. Chaffin attributed death to suffocation. Firemen believed the fire started probably from an overheated stove, in the side of the house toward the river. The couch was on the side of the house away from the river and at the head of the stairway leading to the second story. The firemen said that he probably suffocated from smoke that rolled up the stairs before the blaze reached him. The house was a six-room stone and frame structure on a park-like bench between the river and a wooded hillside. He called his home "Hidden Valley." The stone walls on the first floor held the flames inside and produced furnace-like heat. Windows had fallen in when volunteer fire fighters arrived, making a draft that sent flames roaring upward. Heat was so intense that only the frost on the ground kept the leaves and trees on the nearby hillside from catching fire. One of the last to see Mr. Black alive was Harold Hartley of the Hartley Bros. Lumber Company, who had delivered a piece of door glass to him Saturday afternoon. Mr. Hartley said the stove was red hot. Mr. Black lived there alone. He had lived in Ozark the past twelve years and operated the printing company that bore his name, specializing in advertising booklets. A native of Dallas, Texas, Mr. Black had lived in Texas before coming to Ozark. He is survived by two sons, Ralph, of Dallas, Texas, and Rex, of Topeka, Kansas, and one daughter, Mrs. Francis Wheat of Tucson, Arizona, a brother, Horton H. Black of Olustee, Okla., and three grandchildren. Both sons arrived in Ozark Monday and are here this week. Funeral services were held Wednesday morning in the Chaffin Funeral Home with the Rev. Worth Caughron officiating. Burial was in the Ozark Cemetery.

Cancel Search for Housewife

The office of Christian County Sheriff L. E. Lamb said Monday that the search for a missing housewife is being called off "until further evidence develops." Mrs. Neva Carol Blades, 20, has been missing since Monday night, Dec. 15 when she disappeared while doing her laundry in a Nixa laundromat. An organized search by Sheriff and his department, assisted by about 75 volunteers as well as a helicopter was carried out last Wednesday and Thursday in the area surrounding Nixa. The keys to a car driven to the laundry by Mrs. Blades were found in a field nearby, but no further evidence was obtained in the search. Her car was found the night she disappeared, a short distance from the laundry. Over the weekend, a 16-year-old created some excitement when he told a friend he knew Mrs. Blades whereabouts. The youth was questioned, and the sheriff's office is convinced he was merely making boastful conversation.

Grand Jury Would Pose Money Problem

Circuit Judge Garner L. Moody of the 38th Judicial Circuit said Thursday morning he has under advisement the request of Nixa residents for the calling of a grand jury in Christian County. The request, in the form of petitions containing some 600 names, asks for grand jury investigation of the disappearance of Mrs. Carol Blades of Nixa on Dec. 15, 1969. Lengthy investigation by local authorities, private investigators and others, has been fruitless. Neither did the posting of a $1,000 reward for information produce any takers. Many consider it unlikely that a grand jury would cast any light on the Blades' woman's disappearance winter. If called by Judge Moody, the grand jury would cost the county several hundred dollars at best and could run into the thousands. The county has already used half of its 1971 revenue for 1970 expenditures, and is face with an immediate need for increased revenue through higher tax levies. The calling of a grand jury would only compound the problem.

Long Vigil Ends on Christmas
Body of Carol Blades Found in Stone County

The perplexing question "What Happened to Carol Blades?" was partially answered Christmas Day with the discovery of a body, identified by her family as that of Mrs. Blades, 20-year-old Nixa housewife who was last seen December 15, 1969 in Nixa. The body was found by Ernest Wilhelm, Route 1, Galena, as he looked for cattle on his farm just west of Ponce de Leon. Wilhelm had gone to check on his cattle about 2:00 o'clock Friday afternoon. When he did not find them in the open pasture, he remembered a cedar glade west of his home which the cattle sometimes used as a windbreak. As he walked through the cedars, he saw something lying against a log. When he went to investigate what he thought was a fallen cow, he found it to be the remains of a body. Returning to his home, Wilhelm summoned Stone County Sheriff James Barnes. Sheriff Barnes and his deputies and Christian County Sheriff Buff Lamb and his staff arrived in a short time and combed the area until darkness halted their search. The remains were identified by members of the Blades family and articles of clothing found at the scene matched those worn by Mrs. Blades at the time she disappeared more than a year ago. A later comparison of teeth and dental records was made and the results were "positive;. Little doubt remained that Carol Blades had been found. By 10:00 Saturday morning news of the discovery had circulated, and a crowd of curious spectators had assembled at the Wilhelm farm to see the general area and talk in hushed tones of the tragedy which had bewildered the Ozarks for the past year. Later Saturday, Sheriffs Lamb and Barnes and their deputies returned to the area to hunt for anything which might aid in their investigation. A metal detector brought to the scene by Deputy Gene Haworth, Nixa, located Mrs. Blades' wedding and engagement rings about 20 feet from where the body had rested. They were buried under a mat of leaves. Officers said the body bore no visible signs of violence. No skull fractures were detected, and there was no blood stains that could be seen with the eye on the clothing. The articles of clothing found are being sent to the State Highway Patrol laboratory in Jefferson City for analysis. Officers hope that this report will uncover some evidence as to how and why Mrs. Blades met her death. Sheriff Land and his deputies are re-examining all reports and leads compiled in the Blades case, and report they have had a number of calls from persons seeking to add pieces of information which might tie in. Lamb said he worked in the Nixa vicinity until 1:00 a.m. Sunday, talking to various people who might recall something that would be helpful. Tuesday morning, Christian County Deputy Harold Wampler said that a strong lead had turned up. but no information could be released at this time. He also said that three persons had taken polygraph tests since the discovery of the body and that more will be asked to submit to the tests in the immediate future. The mysterious disappearance of Carol Blades, which was climaxed by the finding of her body on Christmas Day, began just before Christmas last year. On the afternoon of her disappearance, Mrs. Blades had gone to a Nixa laundry to wash clothing. She had been seen by several persons in Nixa and had made a purchase in a Nixa store that afternoon. When she failed to return home, a check showed her washing was still in the machines in the laundry. The car she had been driving was found on Highway 160 on the west edge of Nixa and according to observers, showed signs of having been "driven hard." A massive search of the entire area by Sheriff Lamb and deputies failed to produce any results. The hunt was continued for several days, but no trace of Mrs. Blades was found until Christmas Day, 1970. A reward of $1,000 for information relating to the case was posted by Nixa American Legion Post early this fall. After their offer had gone unanswered for many weeks, the Post announced that the offer would be withdrawn if no information was forthcoming. Week before last, the offer was canceled, and the money was returned to the donors. On December 8, petitions were presented to Judge Garner I. Moody of the 38th Judicial Circuit, asking that a grand jury be called to investigate the circumstances involved in the case. The petition and request had not been acted upon at the time the body was found. Mrs. Blades was a member of the Bible Baptist church of Republic and was a 1967 graduate of Nixa High School. Survivors include her husband, Larry, of Nixa; her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis I. Horton of Springfield; a brother, Robert Gene of Springfield; and maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Swearengen, Fayetteville, Tenn.

[Note: Daughter of Arthur & Annis Iorg; married Bill Blakeslee 1962]

Betty Blakeslee, age 61, of Nixa, Mo., went home to be with the Lord on March 10, 2005, in Frankfurt, Germany, returning from a trip to the Holy Land. She had a great love for the Holy Land as evidenced by her third trip there. She loved to walk where Jesus walked, and now she walks where Jesus is. Betty was born to Annis and the late Arthur Iorg on December 21, 1943, in Springfield, Mo. Her father, Arthur Iorg, and infant son, Scott Eric Blakeslee, preceded her in death. She is survived by her husband of 42 years, Bill; one daughter, Julie; one son, Mike and wife, Karen; three grandchildren, Chanelle, Scott, and Isaac; her mother, Annis Iorg; one sister, Twyla Nelson and husband, David, of Blue Springs, Mo.; one brother, Jim Iorg of Texas; one aunt, Elsie Martin; many nieces, nephews, cousins; and a host of friends. Betty was a lovely, warm, and friendly lady, always a Christian inspiration to others. Many described her as the most resilient person they had ever known as she faced histoplasmosis, phlebitis, cancer, diabetes, hearing loss, and vasculitis in her lifetime. She never complained and never stopped pushing, always putting the needs of others before her own. She had a great love for people and life, and went on several mission trips to Guatemala and India to touch the lives of others. Even in Israel she didn't want to negotiate with people in the Marketplace when making purchases because she felt they needed the money more than she did. She celebrated her love for life by skydiving with her best friend, Jane, on her 60th birthday. Betty's greatest love on this Earth was her family; they always came first. She and Bill invested in their children's lives by supporting them in every endeavor they undertook. Family vacations began when her children were small and continue to this day with her kids and grandkids. Betty felt investing time together as a family would bond them together. The family has a unique and special bond that was fostered by Betty's love. This bond is what allows them to cope with her death. She supported her grandchildren in the same way, letting nothing, including her own pain and discomfort, come in the way of being with them. She was very proud of them. Betty and Bill were able to travel together extensively, especially when Bill retired. The Lord was gracious by allowing them to spend their last days together walking where Jesus walked. Betty was and has always been active in church. She felt her main purpose was to lead people to the Lord, minister to people, and help them draw closer to Him. Everyone that met Betty felt instantly drawn to her because the Lord's love and grace shone through her. She was a tool for Jesus and impacted thousands of lives. She will be greatly missed. The family would like to extend a thank you to the James River Assembly family for their love and support. They would also like to extend a special thank you to Pastor Mike Messner for his support of Bill in Germany. Visitation will be from 5 to 8 p.m. on Wednesday, March 23, 2005, in Walnut Lawn Funeral Home in Springfield, Mo. Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. Thursday, March 24, in James River Assembly's Clark Chapel in Ozark, Mo. Burial will follow in Hazelwood Cemetery in Springfield, Mo. Brashear, Donice Eileen (Shields) 25 Aug 1935 - 20 Nov 2002 CCH-N 27 Nov 2002

[Note: Daughter of Carl & Ada Shields; married Lee Brashear]

Our mother, Donice Eileen Brashear, was born Aug. 25, 1935 near Pineville, Mo. on the family farm. Her parents, Carl and Ada Shields, had come to the Missouri Ozark region to escape the parched land of Oklahoma and the depression. This they did in the fashion of that time. She was close to, and much loved by her two older brothers, Carl Jr. Shields (KIA World War II, Feb., 1945) and Doyle Shields. Like her parents before her, she embraced the Christian faith and protestant work ethic. She never preached; if she had an ounce of badness or malice, we never saw it. She demonstrated only love, good works and dogged determination. Our mother was the church pianist from the time she was 9 years old. She knew every song in the Baptist Hymnal. She was a good music reader, but she didn't need to read. She improvised. In 1956, she married the love of her life, Lee Brashear. From this union came two children, Katharine Leigh Hanks born in 1960 and William Christopher Brashear born in 1962. Her grandchildren are Hollis and Luca Brashear, Michael, Krystle and Cassidy Hanks. She loved her son-in-law, Kevin S. Hanks and her daughter-in-law, Elizabeth L. (Betsy) Krause. She spent most of her working life working for the Melvin G. Hall family. She will be sorely missed by them. Don and Carl Brashear, from Pineville, Missouri, complete her circle of closest and loved kin. Many wonderful songs, have been written about the passing of a soul. A few words once sung by the Carter Family and Bill Monroe we will leave for her: "And now my mother has gone to rest In the land of perfect joy. And I wonder if she thinks of me. Her poor, little orphan boy. In Heaven, we'll meet again someday." Mother was the heart of the family. She will always be so. A service was at 10 a.m. Saturday, Nov. 23, in First Baptist Church, Ozark, with the Rev. Troy Rhoden and the Rev. Jim Jeffries officiating. Burial was at 3 p.m. in Pineville Cemetery, Pineville, Mo.

PLANE CRASH KILLS SIX

Photo and Caption: Dennis Clinton, Coroner Dean Adams and Sheriff Buff Lamb discuss the plane crash near Boaz, west of Nixa, last Saturday which killed all six occupants. Icing was blamed for the mishap.

A twin engine plane from Battlecreek, Michigan crashed near Boaz, between Nixa and Clever Saturday, killing all six passengers. The plane hit the edge of a field and skidded into the timber. a two-foot deep hole in the ground where the plane first hit was evidence of the tremendous impact of the crash. FAA Investigations were summoned from Kansas City. Weather was too bad to fly, so the trip was made by car, arriving late Saturday night. A local farmer, George Wright, saw the plane just before the crash. He said the plane was in serious trouble and was weaving back and forth badly, and the engine was "sputtering". This happened about 2:30 Saturday afternoon. Because the FAA officials were delayed, they allowed the bodies to be removed. Christian County Coroner Dean Dams identified the bodies as: Rev. Robert Brizendine, 46, his wife, Edith Mae, 42, Dexter, Michigan, Robert L. Sweezie, 42, his wife, C. Elizabeth, 39, from Hickory Corner, Mich., Terry DeVries, 40 and his wife, Lois Jane, 40 from Portage, Mich. An air controller at Kalamazoo, Mich, FAA said the plane left its Battle Creek base Friday and was on a flight plan to Joplin and was later to fly to Miami. A spokesman for the Joplin control tower said the aircraft left the airport Saturday in what he termed "bad weather." An air controller at Springfield Municipal Airport said the radar facility there had radio contact with the pilot who said he was headed back to Springfield because of ice buildup on the plane's wings. Authorities at the scene said the wings were covered with a half inch of sleet and ice. Debris from the white and green plane was confined to a small radius. One occupant of the plane, a man, was thrown clear, but the other bodied remained buried in the rubble. Attendants from Meadors Ambulance Service, Republic, extricated the bodies. They were later taken to Adams Funeral Home in Ozark.

Ever administering her loving care.
To all her friends and loved ones dear.
Her light shone out with a ray of cheer.

With a cheery goodbye.
And a wave of her hand.

She has left earthly cares
For a promised land.

We are sure her path is lined,
With flowers bright and fair,
The seeds of goodness she planted,
And they have grown there.

Harris reported Burky had been in ill health and had been hospitalized frequently, and that his wife, Clemie, had attempted to get him to consult a doctor when he was feeling ill recently. "My beloved husband Ruel has called me home and together we will meet the great God, Jehovah." Pauline or the (Punk) as she was known to her husband, wrote these words. After losing him last winter, Mom could no longer bear to be parted from her beloved. She was born Pauline Barnett in a rural area at the Lake of the Ozarks on July 11, 1922. At the age of 17, she married Ruel Calkin and they moved to Springfield. Together they raised three children and had 64 wonderful years of marriage. Pauline was a member of the Grant Avenue Baptist Church, where one of her greatest joys was teaching Sunday school. Although the loss of our mother will leave a great vacancy in our hearts, there are many warm and wonderful memories. Mom loved animals and we grew up in a house where there was a menagerie of animals, ranging from robins to guinea pigs, and always, of course, a dog. Mom was always famous for her homemade yeast rolls, a favorite of any family or neighborhood gathering. Callahan, Kathryn Louise (Claussen) 5 Jul 1953 - 5 Jan 2006 SN-L 8 Jan 2006

[Note: Daughter of Charles & Myrtle (Austin) Claussen; married 1972 Bob Callahan]

On Thursday, January 5, 2006, my wife, my daughter, my sister, my sister-in-law, my aunt, my great aunt, my friend, my mentor gave up the limitations of this earthly body and started singing and running on the golden streets of heaven. Kathy was born in Ogden, Utah, on July 5, 1953, as the second born to Myrtle (Austin) Claussen, Ozark, Missouri, and the late Charles Claussen. Kathy gave her heart and life to Jesus when she was only eight years old. She lived for Christ like no other Christian you will ever meet. She loved to entertain in her home and guests were always made to feel welcome. She tried to brighten the life of every person she saw throughout her day. She had an insatiable thirst for knowledge and enjoyed discussing any topic with whoever would want to talk. She loved children and could get a smile and a story from each and every one. Kathy had said that children want and deserve our attention. She never failed to give hers. She was giving of herself to the very end in organ donation. Kathy retired from a career at AT&T in 1998. She was married to her first and forever love, Bob, for 33 years. One thing that Kathy did that is truly amazing was to love her husband for a lifetime, a gift that would be the greatest anyone could receive. They worked side by side through many travels with his career and made many friends everywhere they went. She was always excited to visit someplace new. Her passing will leave an empty place in the hearts of family and friends, neighbors and acquaintances the world over that she met along the way. For her there is no more concern with diabetes; no more vision problem; no more painful swollen ankles; no more pain...no more tears...no more sorrow. Thank you God for the time we had with Kathy.
