Cave-In Kills Local Workman

Buried under several feet of dirt when a ditch collapsed at a Springfield sewer line project yesterday, a 40-year-old worker died before rescuers could reach him. Rushed to Cox Medical Center after oxygen failed to revive him at the scene of the tragedy, Carl Schupbach, Highlandville, was pronounced dead on arrival. The victim and Bob Donham, 17, Highlandville, employees at Milnes Plumbing and Heating Company of Rogersville, were installing a sewer line beside a house at 2317 College when the accident occurred about 5 p.m. After using a backhoe to dig a ditch about 12 to 16 feet deep, Schupbach was working in the bottom of the trench when the west side began crumbling. Young Donham, who was standing outside the ditch, told Officer Joe Kind he saw Schupbach jump up in a futile effort to keep free of the falling earth, but a large section of the wall caved in and completely buried him. Donham ran for help and police and two fire department rescue teams from stations 2 and 6 were quickly sent to the site. They used shovels and their hands to frantically dig away at the earth after Donham pointed to the spot where the victim had been standing. A backhoe at the site was used to dig out an area beside Schupbach as soon as an operator was rushed to the scene and fireman applied oxygen as soon as Schupbach's face was uncovered. Fire chief Bob Harrison said the victim showed no signs of life. A veteran of the Korean War, Schupbach was employed as a plumber and heavy equipment operator for the Rogersville firm. [Note: Daughter of Emory Leonard & Artie Mae (Stiffler) Masteller; married 14 Jun 1947 John Russell Sellars]

She loved the flag, the scent of carnations, the taste of peppermints, the legend of King Arthur, the song of birds, the epic beauty of the southwest, swing music, swimming, a good mystery to read...she remembered these things and so many others, when her memory returned and she left us here on Sunday, July 10, 2005. Helen Jean Masteller was born on January 1, 1922, in St. Joseph, Mo., the daughter of Artie Mae Stiffler and Emory Leonard Masteller, who nicknamed her "Sally". After her father died, the family Artie, Sally, and young brother Jim moved from Chicago, Ill., to rural Christian County, Mo., where initially dubbed "city kids", Sally and Jim were soon accepted as part of a fun-loving group of friends including many of their cousins. Sally graduated from Nixa High School, where she loved poetry and excelled in basketball. She married John Russell Sellars on June 14, 1947, in Nixa Christian Church. As newlyweds, they lived in Branson, later moving to Springfield where they raised four children. Sally was a Cub Scout Den Mother, a PTA president, a home room mother, a Little League Mom and a dangerous early morning pajama clad wheel woman in a tomato soup colored station wagon with fins. After her youngest went to Junior High School, Sally returned to the working world, first as a clerk at the Kickapoo Farm Store, then as an accountant with James A. Van Camp and H & R Block, retiring reluctantly in the early 90's after over a decade as office manager of Owen Contracting. She was a member and friend of Covenant Presbyterian Church. She was preceded in death by her husband; her parents; her brother, Jim; her infant sister, Frances Nell; as well as many other beloved family members and friends. She is survived by her children: John Emory and wife, Jane; Jean

Marie; Jim David; and Jo Frances and her husband, Jim Johnston; 10 grandchildren; seven great-grandchildren; one great-great-grandson; her sister-in-law, Ida Masteller; her niece and nephew; her great-nephews and their families; her cousins; her friends near and far including her "favorite child", Iris Treadway Hardison, Iris' husband Steve, and family; as well as her faithful friend, Marge Daniel. She also leaves behind loving friends who cared for her compassionately at Christian Healthcare West. A graveside service, with the Reverend Julie Mercer-Kidd of First and Calvary Presbyterian Church presiding, and special readings by Covenant's Pastor, the Reverend Ward Rudolph, will be held in National Cemetery, Springfield, Mo., at 10 a.m. on Wednesday, July 13, 2005, under the direction of Gorman Scharpf Funeral Home. With hundreds of old friends and relatives crowding into and around the Community church at Galena, last Thursday, J.G. (Uncle Jack) Short, father of Congressman Dewey Short, was paid high tribute as funeral services were conducted by the Rev. Joe Dethridge and the Rev. Chas. E. Beech. Masons from all over the county in the section also paid last respects and from several other communities to one of their members who had been active in the organization for over half a century. Fred Wad, of Ozark, spoke at the graveside during Masonic burial rites. The church where last rites were conducted for Mr. Short was banked with flowers sent by old friends from all over the country. In his funeral oration, Mr. Dethridge said, "Uncle Jack was no ordinary man. He was a great man among his fellow men. A common man. Not common in the ordinary sense of the meaning, but common as an old shoe, as Lincoln said. Common in the sense of kindness and public service to the poor and to his friends and neighbors. He was a king without the royal purple." Rev. Dethridge continued. "His life expressed itself most at his fireside, where all true men live greatest. He loved the things of life that were eternal and imperishable. If everyone in this beautiful Ozark country of mystery and beauty who knew him would bring one blossom to his grave, he would sleep beneath a wilderness of flowers. He was born in 1864 when Abraham Lincoln was president and Grant was leading his armies over the hills and valleys of this new nation. And in him was instilled that patriotism and ruggedness that made the American frontier."--Crane Chronicle.

He also did additional graduate study there and at the University of Chicago. For a period of years, Mr. Shubert was engaged in business in Ozark. Later he became a campaign director for National Fund-Raising Services, Inc. of Fort Worth, Tex. In 1958, he returned to the teaching field, becoming assistant superintendent of the Waynesville-Fort Leonard Wood school system, the position he held at the time of his death. Long active in community work, Mr. Shubert had served as president of the Lebanon Rotary Club, president of the Waynesville-St. Roberts Lions Club and as a member of the USO Council in Waynesville. For several years, he spearheaded school drives for the United Fund, the USO and other services and charitable organizations. He was a member of the Waynesville Methodist Church. A scholarship fund has been established at the Pulaski Community Bank, Richland, in memory of Mr. Shubert.

Shubert, Mary Elizabeth "Liz" (Shollenberger) 6 Aug 1911 - 22 May 2003

Mary Elizabeth Shubert was born on August 6, 1911 in Ozark, Missouri. Mary Liz was the first of three children born to Ethel King and Charles Shollenberger. She was married to Harry Shubert on August 1, 1937, and their son, Charles Harrison Shubert, was born May 2, 1945. Mary Liz died on May 22, 2003. Her parents; her husband; her brother, James Norvell Shollenberger; her stepfather, L.K. Ellis; her stepsister, Margaret Ann Crowe; and many close friends preceded her in death. Mary Liz leaves behind her son, Charles; her daughter-in-law, Jan; her grandson, Sean, and Sean's family, Jessica and Jillian; her brother, Charles King Shollenberger, and his family; her stepsister, Elizabeth Gilbert; extended family; and many close friends (among them many former students). Mary Liz loved going to school. She graduated from high school in 1929. She studied music at Drury College where she was an advanced student at the Drury conservatory, a member of the Drury Mirror editorial staff, and a member of Pi Beta Phi. She completed her undergraduate education at Southwest Missouri State Teachers College where she was a piano major in the Music Department. She taught music and English. After returning to teaching in elementary school in the late 1950s, she earned a Masters degree in guidance and counseling. She taught school at Nixa, Ozark, Waynesville, and retired from the Springfield school system in 1977. After her retirement she enjoyed returning to the classroom from time to time as a substitute teacher. Mary Liz had a lot of friends. She treasured them. Some of her friendships spanned most of the last century. Some were brand new. She was a member of the Ozark Presbyterian Church for most of her life. She was a member of the Modern Seekers Women's Club for most of her adult life. She loved to play bridge and was a member of several bridge clubs. When she was no longer able to drive a car, she became an active participant in the Ozark Area Transportation Service Volunteers. She met many of her dear friends through participation in these organizations. She loved doing things with her friends. When she lost one of her dear friends, she would make it a point to make a new friend as a memorial to that loss. Mary Liz loved doing projects. She tended to do things in a very concentrated way. If one thing was good, many things were better. As a child, she loved to practice the piano. She practiced for hours. As a student she loved to do projects. She and her friends produced the first Ozark High School annual in 1929. As a teacher, she loved to prepare materials for projects. As a newspaper employee, she loved to sell advertising and write articles. As a part owner of a dairy bottling company, she loved to drive the truck and deliver the milk. As the wife of a fundraiser, she loved to create fund raising material. As an older member of her church, she loved to work on projects and events. As an OATS bus rider, she loved to help raise money. Mary Liz was both smart and optimistic. She would encourage her friends and family to stretch and follow their dreams. For her no dream was beyond reason if you worked hard enough at it. When things didn't work out quite to plan, she would fall back on the family view that "it's good experience for later." In later life she did wonder from time to time if she would "ever be able to use all this experience." Mary Liz was fiercely competitive. She probably learned to be competitive while playing cards with her grandmother as a child. Her grandmother was a Cady and related to the women's rights advocate, Elizabeth Cady Stanton. When told of her decision to fight her advanced cancer, an old friend and fellow bridge player smiled, shook her head, and said, "That's just like Mary Liz to bid a slam with only one trump." Nobody would have been surprised if she had won. For three generations the family home on Church Street, less than a block from where Mary Liz was born, has rung with music, laughter, and happy times and has been a source of strength in the not so happy times. Mary Liz loved living there and celebrating birthdays, anniversaries, and holidays. She loved being the hostess for her bridge club and Modern Seekers. She loved any excuse to set the tables, make things glamorous, and bring together a group of people for a good time. Mary Liz will be missed. She would probably encourage you to make a new friend, to invite your friends over for a party, to be optimistic and follow your dreams, and to do the best job you can with the cards you are dealt. Funeral services will be at 11 a.m., Friday, May 30, 2003, in Adams Funeral Home, Ozark, with Rev. Karla Endicott officiating. Burial will follow in Weaver Cemetery. Visitation will be 6 to 8 p.m. Thursday, in the funeral home. The family would encourage memorial gifts be made in her name to the Ozark Area Transportation Service c/o Mildred Hill, P.O. Box 275, Sparta, MO 65753. Springfield News-Leader, May 28 2003.

[Note: Son of Clarence & ? (?) Sissel]

In a procedure so unusual as to be conclusive, the death last October of "Sonny" Sissel, 17-year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sissel of Nixa, was declared accidental and payment has been made by the Victory National Life Insurance company on a double indemnity policy. At the time of the lad's tragic death last fall, Coroner Clyde Abbott of Greene county termed it suicide. Parents and friends of the boy were shocked and grieved by the verdict and instigated an investigation of facts surrounding the death. Facts brought out in the private investigation were presented to the insurance company, which waived Coroner Abbott's verdict and adopted the report of the investigators. Joe H. Monger of Ozark, local agent for the insurance company, stated: "with the information we have been able to develop, our legal counsel, home officials, agents and manager are fully convinced that Sonny Sissel came to his death by accidental means while attempting to adjust the front sight of his rifle"

Skaggs, Leroy Fouse 1 Mar 1845 - 14 Aug 1930 "The Sabbath Recorder", Vol 109, No 12, p 356, Sep. 22, 1930.

[Note: Son of James Alexander & Maria (Sterling) Skaggs; married 5 Dec 1872 Rosanna Pearce 8 Jan 1843 - 6 Feb 1917]

Leroy Fouse Skaggs was a son of James Alexander and Maria Sterling Skaggs. He was born near Knoxville, Tenn., March 1, 1845. When he was yet a child the family moved to the vicinity of Bentonville, Ark. Before the Civil War the family moved again and settled in Green County, Mo., a few miles from the site of the city of Springfield. At the age of sixteen years, as the Civil War had begun, he entered the service of the United States Government as a teamster and served for three years, helping to transport food and other necessities for the soldiers. His educational opportunities were very limited, so far as formal schooling was concerned. However, he made sufficient progress in subjects usually taught in rural schools to be able to teach, and was engaged as a teacher for several years. He had a keen mind, good memory, a thirst for knowledge, and he spent much time in reading and careful study throughout the years of his active life. He often expressed regret that he had not been able to secure college and university training. He was married December 5, 1872, to Miss Rosanna Pearce. They established a farm home southwest of Springfield, in Christian County, and near the James River. There came five children to this home. The first break in the family came in February, 1917, when the wife and mother died. All the children are still living and were at the bedside of their father as he passed away, August 14, 1930. The sons and daughters are in the order of ages: Mrs. Emma Conley, Dearing, Kan.; Hannibal M. and Mrs. Mary Caughron, Clever, Mo.; James L. and Mrs. Harriet Grant, Milton, Wis. He is also survived by twenty-one grandchildren, twenty-two great-grandchildren, one brother, James. G., Clever, Mo., and one sister, Mrs. Ida Forrester, Marionville, Mo. In youth he became a member of the Baptist church. In 1872 he was by that church licensed to preach, and in 1876 he was called to ordination to the gospel ministry. The original certificates are in the possession of the family. In 1882 he became convinced that Christians should observe the seventh day of the week as the Sabbath, and he added the observance of the Sabbath to his otherwise standard Baptist principles. Several other families in the community became interested, and a little later the Delaware Seventh Day Baptist Church was organized. The church had an active existence of twenty years or more and attained considerable influence in the community. Much of the time worship was conducted on both Sabbath and Sunday and many people attended who were not particularly interested in the Sabbath. Nearly all the meetings of this church were under the direction of either Elder Skaggs or Elder W. K. Johnson. In 1889 the Seventh Day Baptist Missionary Society engaged the subject of this sketch as general missionary in southwestern Missouri, and his labors were continued in this field for about ten years. Since the death of Mrs. Skaggs in 1917, he has lived most of the time in the homes of his son Hannibal and his daughters Emma, Mary, and Harriet. He passed away on August 14, 1930, at the home of his daughter Mary, near Clever, Mo. His body was laid to rest beside that of his wife in the local cemetery. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Earl French, a Baptist pastor of Springfield, Mo.

Skaggs, Rosanna (Pearce) 8 Jan 1843 - 6 Feb 1917 "The Sabbath Recorder", Vol 82, No 10, p 317, Mar. 5, 1917.

[Note: Daughter of Edmund & Abigail (Frazier) Pearce; married 5 Dec 1872 LeRoy Fouse Skaggs 1 Mar 1945 - 14 Aug 1930]

Rosanna Pearce, daughter of Edmund and Abigail Frazier Pearce, was born in Bradley County, Tenn., January 8, 1843, and died near Clever, Mo., February 6, 1917. With her parents, she moved from Tennessee to Christian County, Missouri, in 1854. The remainder of her life was spent in the neighborhood in which they settled. She was married to LeRoy F. Skaggs, December 5, 1872. To them were born five children: Mrs. Emma Conley, Coffeyville, Kan., H. M. Skaggs, Nortonville, Kan., and Mrs. Harriet Grant, School, Mo. She leaves her husband, five children, and twenty grandchildren, who feel very keenly their loss. She became a Christian and joined the Methodist church at about the age of twenty-five years. After her marriage to Rev. L. F. Skaggs, she changed her membership to the Baptist church of which he was a minister. Husband and wife studying together became convinced that the seventh day of the week is the Sabbath according to the teaching of the Bible, and August first, 1880, they began the observation of the Sabbath, and later became constituent members of the Delaware Seventh Day Baptist Church. Though for many years she rarely met Seventh Day Baptists, other than members of her own family, to the end she remained most faithful to denominational ideals and interests. Her courage and ability were demonstrated during a period of ten years beginning in 1890 when her husband was called by our Missionary Board to the home mission field, and she was left at home with her five children raging in age from nine to fifteen years. She not only looked after the interests of the home and the training of the children, but gave the boys much assistance and encouragement in the management of the farm. Her circle of friends was as wide as her circle of acquaintances, and many are they who feel lonely, now that "Aunt Rose" is gone. The funeral service was conducted at Frazier Chapel (Methodist Church) by her son, James, pastor of the Seventh Day Baptist Church, Nortonville, Kan.

Funeral services are pending here for Alva Owen Smith, 49, Lubbock, Tex., who was killed about 7:30 p.m. Saturday in a car-truck crash on U.S. 64, about 12 miles northwest of Lubbock. Smith, son of Mrs. Fred Davis, Billings, was reportedly a passenger in a car driven by Mrs. Barbara L. Burton, Mule Shoe, Tex. The couple had planned to be married, according to members of the family. The driver of a pickup truck, John William Blair, 50, Springtown, Tex., pulled onto the highway from a roadside park and the rear of a trailer being towed by the truck hung up on a culvert. The pickup truck was partially blocking the highway when Mrs. Burton approached and rammed the truck. The Burton car overturned, killing Smith instantly and injuring Mrs. Burton, who was taken to a Lubbock hospital. A member of the family noted that the tragedy marked the third time in which a relative had been killed in traffic accidents since 1944. In 1961, a son of Smith's was fatally injured in Kansas, and in 1944, Smith's brother was killed in Springfield. Smith's son, Wesley, Seattle, Wash., reportedly flew to Lubbock to take charge of the body and return it to Billings, where burial will be in Rose Hill Cemetery. Rogersville Man Takes His Own Life

Funeral services for Sherman Smith, 74, of Rogersville, were held at 2 p.m. Wednesday in the Rogersville Methodist Church with the Rev. W. E. Cundiff and the Rev. Ray Hodge officiating. Burial was in Roller Cemetery southwest of Rogersville, under direction of Marsh of Rogersville. Smith apparently took his own life by slashing his throat about midnight Saturday. He was found by his wife, lying across the back door of their home which is located on old US 160 just inside the Greene County line on the west edge of Rogersville. Smith's wife, Katie, told Greene County Sheriff's Lt. Ed Young that her husband said he was going outside for a walk and that she was getting on her clothes to go with him. But Smith went out first, and when she found him out the back door, she found him lying in the snow with a 2-inch laceration across the throat, Lt. Young reported. The slash was about half an inch deep, he said. Smith was brought to St.

John's Hospital, Springfield by Marsh Ambulance Services of Rogersville and was pronounced dead on arrival at 1:50 a.m. Sunday. Smith's son, J. N. Smith of Springfield, told Lt. Young and Green County Coroner Ralph Thieme that his father had been under medical care for some time. Lt. Young returned to the Smith home where he said he found a pocket knife covered with blood and snow lying on a bench near the back door. Apparently the knife had been picked up by someone in the confusion and left on the bench, he said. Ambulance officials reported that several neighbors had carried Smith inside the house before the ambulance arrived. Officials attributed the suicide to despondency over ill health and said no inquest would be held. Smith, a farmer, was a member of the Rogersville Methodist Church. In addition to his wife and son, he is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Edith Rogers, Route 1, Rogersville; a brother, Fred Smith, Route 1, Rogersville; and seven grandchildren.

[Note: Daughter of Edward & Marie (Houser) Graf; married 3 Nov 1943 Tom B. Smith]

Services for Mrs. Mary Helen Graf Smith, 97, will be at 1 p.m., Thursday, Sept. 29, 2005, in Greenlawn South Chapel. Burial will be in White Chapel Cemetery. No formal visitation is planned. Mary was born Sept. 22, 1908, near Billings to Edward and Marie Graf, two Swiss immigrants. She died Sept. 26, 2005, in St. John's Hospital, four days after her 97th birthday. She was a 1929 graduate of Marionville High School and later graduated from Draughon's Business College. She worked briefly as a legal secretary and in the office of Holsum Bread Co. before joining the business office of Sears, Roebuck and Co. Her work earned her a promotion to credit manager at Sears at a time when few women held comparable positions. While working at Sears, she met the love of her life, Tom B. Smith. They were married Nov. 3, 1943. She continued working, while he served during World War II, at O'Reilly Hospital and in Europe. After his discharge, they built the Sunshine Court Motel, operating it for about a year. They then worked together in real estate development and construction, with Tom supervising the building and Mary handling all the business operations. Their first major project was construction of 44 homes west of St. John's Hospital. They then purchased 147 acres at Campbell Avenue and Republic Road, when the area was agricultural and several miles south of the city limits. There they developed the Park Crest subdivision and shopping center. They put in streets, a water system, and even one of the first volunteer fire departments in the county. After selling the Park Crest water system to the city of Springfield, they thought about retirement, but not for long. They began to develop the Villa Park Heights water system and subdivision west of the airport. They sold the system in 1985 because of Tom's failing health. Family was always important to Mary. She and Tom adopted their only daughter, Betty, and encouraged her journalistic career. The Smiths celebrated 48 years of marriage. Their dedication to work was superseded by generosity and charitable giving. Mary and Tom made generous donations to Cox Medical Center, Primrose Place, St. John's Chapel, College of the Ozarks and many other charities. They were founding member of St. John's Chapel. Mary continued to participate in its activities although her attendance was limited after her health began to fail three years ago. She was the church's oldest member. Mary was preceded in death by her husband in March 1991. Also preceding her in death were her three brothers, John, Rudy, and Ernest; and eight sisters, Betty, Freida, Anna, Lena, Lydia, Johanna, Beth, and her identical twin sister, Martha. The twins enjoyed a special, close relationship. Until Martha's death in 1997, the two frequently wore identical outfits and continued to keep children guessing who was who at family gatherings. Surviving are her daughter, Betty Smith, of Tahlequah, Okla.; a sister-in-law, Loretta Smith of Springfield; and many nieces, nephews, and friends. Her family, friends and neighbors would like to thank the caregivers from Home Sweet Home Care, who lovingly cared for her in her home for the past three years, until her final hospitalization. Knowing Mary has enriched many lives. Donations are suggested to St. John's Chapel of the charity of the donor's choice.

St. John, Matilda Jane (Scott) 2 Sep 1877 - 19 Oct 1972 OH 9 Nov 1972 p8

The year 1877 was a historic one in the course of time. New inventions were to change the course of history. The Civil War had ended 12 years earlier and Rutherford Hayes had been elected 19th President of the 27 years. On Sept. 2 of that year, a daughter was born to Lucy Belle Bostic and Hamilton J. Scott in a village near Richmond,

Virginia. She was the third of nine children, and they christened her Matilda Jane but always called her "Tildy". When she was 70 years old, she announced to her niece, "Don't call me Tildy. My name is James," We will honor her desire and refer to her as Jane, although her family and friends knew her as "Tildy" most of her life. When Jane was about 12 years old, Hamilton Scott moved his family to Christian County, Missouri. This is where Jane grew into womanhood. It was here that she married Thomas Leroy St. John and established a home near Sparta. She had a flair for homemaking and was admired for her culinary skills and gracious hospitality. Jane bore Tom two daughters, Cuma Talitha and Buena Vista. These daughters were the delight of their parents' lives. They grew up in Christian County and were married. During the great depression of the 30's, Cuma and Buena left Missouri and established homes in California. The St. John's longed to be near their girls and grandchildren. In 1941, they sold their farm and joined their children in California. Four years later, Tom died in Yuma City with Jane, Cuma and Buena at his side. Jane remained in Yuba City for 25 years where Cuma and her husband Clarence were near her. She moved to Redding in 1970 where she resided with Buena and her husband Cleo. Two years later, at the age of 95 years, six weeks and five days, she died with her devoted daughters at her bedside. Besides her daughters, she is survived by a sister, Mary Garrison of Sparta and a brothers, James Scott of Rogersville; as well as 2 grandchildren and 9 great grandchildren. Jane's sky, quiet manner covered a quick wit and sly sense of humor. Her great grandchildren were fascinated by her enchanting games and full cookie jar. They nicknamed her "ol Bear", and she loved it. Jane had been an invalid for three years. Buena and Cuma nourished her with love and tenderness unsurpassed. Remember her eagerness and spirit of independence - that God has called her "Home" is evidence of his steadfast providence. In spite of the pain of physical separation, we rest content in the assurance that Jane has "inherited the Kingdom built from the foundation of the world." For us then, there is a place of quiet rest, near to the heart of God. A place where sin cannot molest, near to the heart of God. There is a place of comfort sweet, A place where we our saviour meet, near to the heart of God. There is a place of full relief, A place where all is joy and peace, near to the heart of God. Oh Jesus, blest redeemer, sent from the heart of God, Hold us who wait before thee near to the heart of God. - Prepared by Mrs. Arl Anderson for services held on Monday, Oct 23, 1972 - McDonald Chapel, Redding, California. Delivered by Arl Anderson

Paul Stafford, 21-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Stafford of Bruner, drowned Sunday afternoon in James River three miles east of Half-a-Hill. Stafford was one of a party of six, none of whom could swim, who were on an outing near Kinser Beach. All six were wading upstream about 12 feet from the bank when three of them stepped off in a hole 12 feet deep. They floundered in the water and called for help, but the other three could do nothing because of their inability to swim. A Springfield fisherman, Herbert Goodman Jr., heard the calls for help. At first he thought the calls were play. When he noticed the frantic splashing he went to the scene, jumped in, and pulled out two, Bobby Rippee, 21, of 1230 East Olive in Springfield, and one of the three girls in the party. He was too exhausted to get Stafford out. Stafford had disappeared under the surface. Others in the party besides Stafford and Rippee were another youth named Paul Stafford, 15, of 1026 East Webster in Springfield, a cousin of the drowned youth; and Gladys Sloan, 18, Peggy Wilson, 17, and Evone Schaeffer, 18, all of 1456 Benton in Springfield. Sheriff's officers and an ambulance attendant used grappling hooks to recover the body, which was brought to the surface about 6:50 p.m., about two hours after he disappeared under the surface. Pat was born in Muskegon, Mich. on Nov. 3, 1936, to Arthur and Mildred Luxford. She moved to Springfield in 1954 where she met her husband, Dan Stowe, and they were married on Jan. 7, 1955. During most of the year, she would perform with the Senior Kicking Kountry Line Dancers at nursing homes or wherever they were asked; she was very proud to be the "girls" captain. Stricker, James Thomas 31 Jan 1846 - 14 Feb 1928 Henry County, MO newspaper

[Note: Son of William & Elizabeth (Jones) Stricker; married Mary Catherine Fulkerson
22 May 1852 - 27 Oct 1919]

STRICKER, James Thomas - 1846 - 1928

The death of J. T. Stricker, a pioneer of this county occurred on February 14th, 1928, at Springfield. A very fitting obituary appeared in the Clinton (Missouri) News and we herewith reproduce it, as a eulogy to the fine life that Mr. Stricker lived in this county, having been one of its sturdy, progressive pioneers: - The Old Pioneers are passing away - the men and women who led the way in the early history of Henry County, Mo., will live in memory, though they sleep the sleep that know no waking. Among the many noble men who lived in our county in those early days, none were more worthy to be loved and honored than the object of this sketch. J. T. Stricker, familiarly called "Tom Stricker", was born January 31, 1846, and died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. A. C. Shawley, in Springfield, Mo., February 14, 1928, aged 82 years and 13 days. Many interesting facts are connected with his early life and it was always a pleasure to hear him tell of his early experiences. Born on the farm now owned by Mrs. Christian, three miles west of LaDue, Mo., He was rocked to sleep in a cradle made from a hollow log and practically all of the furniture in the farm homes at that time was home made. At one time when he was quite small, the Indians stole him and carried him away, but his father, William Stricker, through much persuasion and strategy, recovered him and returned him to the grief stricken home. In the year 1874, he moved to Christian county, Mo., and in the year 1877, he was united in marriage to Miss Mary Fulkerson of Ozark, Mo. Seven children were born to this union, four of whom are still living and mourn the loss of a loving father. The three daughters who lived in or near Springfield, Mo., and cared for their father so tenderly during his last illness are: Mrs. A. C. Shawley, of Springfield, and Mrs. Geo. Gregg and Mrs. Fray Ball of Nixa, Mo. The other daughter, Mrs. Mattie Ashbury, lives in Kansas, and could not be present. He is survived also by two brothers - W. W. Stricker, of this (Henry) county, and Frank Stricker of Orange, Calif. Many other relatives and friends are sad on account of the passing of this good man, neighbor and friend. The funeral was held at Springfield and was attended by many relatives and friends from Henry county. The discourse was by Rev. Wilson, and there was a profusion of flowers. The special music was sublime. The remains were taken to Richwood cemetery, near Cassidy, Mo., and there was a short service held for the benefit of his old neighbors, among whom he had lived so long and so happily. There in the South Land. Nature's ideal spot for a resting place, his body was lain by the side of the departed wife, who went to her reward some seven years ago. With him 'It is finished.' The veil between the two 'eternties' is drawn and he walks the 'streets of gold' in perfect bliss. The church that he served so faithfully since early manhood has lost an earnest worker, but he has left foot prints proving that a real man has been this way and there is no doubt but what others will be influenced by his good example while time shall last. Blessed thought There is no sting in what we call death, and the grave has no victory when a good man is called home. Tom Stricker and I were friends. He was about 20 years my Senior, but our associations were such that I knew his mind and heart. There was no harm in him. His life was pure, noble and true. He would deny himself to help others, and he died as he had lived, conscious to the last and interested in his friends and loved ones. - Wm. Lee Pinkston

Woman Died In City Crash

Excessive speed was said to be the main factor in the crash here about 4 a.m. Saturday which took the life of Linda Faye Stroud, 34, Springfield. Mrs. Stroud, in a 1979 Chevette, was driving east on 14-65 and lost control when she rounded the curve where 14-65 becomes 3rd Street. Police Chief Bill Ramsey said the car was traveling about 60 miles and hour when it veered off the curve. Officer Floyd Keene investigated. Paul Anderson, owner of the Dairy Cup, 502 N. 3rd St., said the car ran up the bank, went across the Dairy Cup parking area, crossed Farmer Street and wound up against the north side of the Western Auto store. Anderson said he heard the crash and went to investigate while his wife called the Ozark ambulance. She died later at St. John's Regional Health Center where it was said that head injuries were the cause of death. Greg Hanks, Western Auto assistant manager, said there was little damage beyond some stucco knocked off the outside wall. There wasn't enough impact to dislodge electronic merchandise on the interior wall.

Ozark Youth Dies of Gun Wounds

First Degree Murder Charges Are Filed Here Against Springfield Ex-Convict

Charges of murder in the first degree have been filed in Christian County against Cecil Brayfield, Jr. and unemployed 25-year-old Springfield ex-convict and father of four, following the death by gunshot wounds Monday afternoon of Coy Tim Stumpff, 18 of Ozark. Stumpff's body was found shortly before 3 o'clock Monday afternoon, lying on the floor of the Neil Williams Service Station a half mile north of Ozark. He was pronounced "dead on arrival" at Haguewood Hospital, Ozark and death was found to have been caused by two 32-calibre gunshot wounds in the center of his chest. Events leading up to Brayfield's arrest in connection with Stumpff's death occurred in the following manner. Around noon Monday, a man called at the Guy Eakins residence in Eastland Heights and inquired as to the location of another residence in the neighborhood. He said his name was "Collins". He was directed to the residence by Mrs. Eakins. Later Monday afternoon, Mrs. Eakins discussed the matter with the residents of the house he sought and learned his true name was Brayfield. Mrs. Eakins learned of Stumpff's death and thinking there might possibly be some connection with the man who gave her a fictitious name, she called Sheriff Clay Hodges about 8 o'clock Monday evening and informed him of her experience. Sheriff Glen Hendrix of Greene County was in Ozark to assist Sheriff Hodges with the investigation and the name Brayfield immediately "rang a bell". A search for Brayfield was immediately instituted which resulted in his arrest at 12:45 p.m. Tuesday at his home, 422 East Harrison. At approximately 2:00 o'clock Monday afternoon, Mrs. Neil Wilkins, wife of the owner of the service station, drove to the station on business, and at that time Stumpff was in conversation with a man answering Brayfield's general description, The man's green 1951 Ford 4-door was parked at the pump lane next to the station. At approximately 2:15, James Richardson of Sparta drove into the station to purchase gas and the man and the green ford were still there. Shortly before 3:00 o'clock, Harold Glenn Hartley, a customer and former owner of the station, drove in and found Stumpff's body lying behind the counter. He immediately rushed to the Texaco Station at Ozark to notify Sheriff Hodges and he and Richard Ramsey of Ozark returned to the scene of Stumpff's death. A Chaffin ambulance was called and the body was removed to the hospital. The cash register drawer was open by apparently the contents were intact. No gun was found on the premises. Following Brayfield's arrest Tuesday noon, he denied having been in Ozark Monday. Upon being confronted with witnesses who said he was in town Monday, he asked for time to "think it over" and at 10:30 Tuesday night made oral confession that he fired the shots. He has since then made no other statements. He told Sheriff Hodges and Hendrix he had thrown away the gun and it was recovered Wednesday morning about a quarter mile north of the station. Two bullets were removed from Stumpff's body and ballistic tests will be made to tie them in with the recovered weapon. A coroner's inquest was held Wednesday night and the jury's verdict was that Stumpff met his death "by gunshot wounds at the hand of person or persons unknown." Brayfield was arraigned Wednesday on the first degree murder charge before Magistrate Herbert Taylor at Ozark and is being held without bond. Preliminary hearing is scheduled for next Wednesday, March 14. Young Stumpff is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest B. Stumpff who moved to Ozark two years ago from Cassville and operate the Dairy Queen and the Ozark Tourist Court on highway 65 in Ozark. Funeral services will be at 2:00 o'clock Friday afternoon at Cato, west of Cassville, with burial there.

Brayfield Bound Over to May Term of Circuit Court

Cecil Brayfield, Jr., 25-year old Springfieldian and accused murderer of Coy Tim Stumpff, 18-year-old Ozark service station attendant, was bound over to the May term of Christian County Circuit Court at a preliminary hearing her Wednesday morning. Magistrate Herbert Taylor denied Brayfield the privilege of making bond on the first degree murder charge and he is being held in the Greene County jail pending trial. Only two witnesses- Sheriff Clay Hodges of Christian County and Sheriff Glen Hendrix of Springfield - were called to the stand by Prosecutor Sam Appleby. The two sheriffs told of the investigation which resulted in Brayfield's arrest, of his oral admission of the slaying and of finding the murder weapon close to where Brayfield though he had thrown it from his car as he sped toward Springfield following the killing. Brayfield, represented by Attorney D. Raymond Carter of Springfield, made no statement at the preliminary hearing. A packed court room heard the preliminary.

Life for Brayfield on Guilty Plea - Makes Full Admission in Murder of Young Ozark Station Attendant CCR 31 May 1956 p 1

In a brief but dramatic session Thursday morning in Christian County Circuit Court, 25-year-old Cecil Junior Brayfield made complete admission to the March 5 murder of Coy Stumpff, young Ozark service station attendant, in an armed robbery of the Hartley Brothers service station, a mile north of Ozark on 65. Judge Joe Crain, following a 5-minute interrogation of the young defendant, sentenced him to imprisonment in the Missouri State Penitentiary "for the rest of your natural life". Prosecuting Attorney Sam Appleby of Christian County and Special Prosecutor Royle Ellis of Cassville, employed by the Stumpff family, presented a resume of facts of the crime and of ballistics tests which showed the gun the Brayfield led officers to was the same gun that killed Stumpff. Brayfield's attorney, former State Senator D. Raymond Carter, then made a plea for the defendant's life, pointing out the dire financial condition as the unemployed father of five children. Both Appleby and Ellis for the prosecution concurred in a recommendation of life imprisonment. Judge Crain then interrogated Brayfield and the defendant's answers to the court's questions were clearly audible and forthright. Brayfield made no attempt to justify his actions in the murder of Stumpff. He candidly admitted that robbery was his motive, that he obtained $11 from the cash register after he shot Stumpff, and that his most vivid recollection after the shooting was speeding up the highway and throwing out the gun. Describing the episode "like a bad dream", Brayfield insisted that he had no recollection of what prompted him to pull the triggers twice unless it was panic when the 18-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest B. Stumpff of Ozark started "around the counter" toward him. In pronouncing sentence, Judge Crain impressed upon the defendant the magnitude of his crime and emphasized the only factor that deterred a sentence to the gas chamber was the lack of evidence of calculated premeditation of the murder. Brayfield accepted the life sentence with obvious relief.

PLANE CRASH KILLS SIX

Photo and Caption: Dennis Clinton, Coroner Dean Adams and Sheriff Buff Lamb discuss the plane crash near Boaz, west of Nixa, last Saturday which killed all six occupants. Icing was blamed for the mishap.

A twin engine plane from Battlecreek, Michigan crashed near Boaz, between Nixa and Clever Saturday, killing all six passengers. The plane hit the edge of a field and skidded into the timber. a two-foot deep hole in the ground where the plane first hit was evidence of the tremendous impact of the crash. FAA Investigations were summoned from Kansas City. Weather was too bad to fly, so the trip was made by car, arriving late Saturday night. A local farmer, George Wright, saw the plane just before the crash. He said the plane was in serious trouble and was weaving back and forth badly, and the engine was "sputtering". This happened about 2:30 Saturday afternoon. Because the FAA officials were delayed, they allowed the bodies to be removed. Christian County Coroner Dean Dams identified the bodies as: Rev. Robert Brizendine, 46, his wife, Edith Mae, 42, Dexter, Michigan, Robert L. Sweezie, 42, his wife, C. Elizabeth, 39, from Hickory Corner, Mich., Terry DeVries, 40 and his wife, Lois Jane, 40 from Portage, Mich. An air controller at Kalamazoo, Mich, FAA said the plane left its Battle Creek base Friday and was on a flight plan to Joplin and was later to fly to Miami. A spokesman for the Joplin control tower said the aircraft left the airport Saturday in what he termed "bad weather." An air controller at Springfield Municipal Airport said the radar facility there had radio contact with the pilot who said he was headed back to Springfield because of ice buildup on the plane's wings. Authorities at the scene said the wings were covered with a half inch of sleet and ice. Debris from the white and green plane was confined to a small radius. One occupant of the plane, a man, was thrown clear, but the other bodied remained buried in the rubble. Attendants from Meadors Ambulance Service, Republic, extricated the bodies. They were later taken to Adams Funeral Home in Ozark.

Tatum, Huber Faires 15 Feb 1922 - 2 Apr 2005 SN-L 3 Apr 2005

[Note: Son of Faires S. & Elma (Sims) Tatum; married 1949 Betty]

Huber Faires Tatum, 83, died at 1:10 a.m. Saturday, April 2, 2005, in his home in rural Christian County, southwest of Ozark, where he had been cared for by his family through a long illness. He was born Feb. 15, 1922, to Faires and Elma Tatum at their home on the farm homesteaded by Huber's great-grandfather. The youngest of six children, he was preceded in death by his parents, two brothers, Neal and Lowell, and two sisters, Eula and Merle. He attended school in Ozark and was a farmer all his life on property west of Selmore where he and his wife, Betty, have lived since 1950, a year after their marriage. He loved his farm and enjoyed few things more than time spent working the fields and caring for livestock. Watching the changes of the seasons and the cycles of nature were a quiet, but constant pleasure for him. Through the years, Huber also held down a variety of outside jobs as a carpenter, propane deliveryman around the region and a millworker in Ozark. He counted among his countless friends the people to whom he delivered fuel and for whom he blended and sold feed and grain. And they returned the gesture. Countless times over the years, his family has seen a chance encounter with an apparent stranger turn into a long conversation with a rediscovered friend from years gone by. Huber remembered names like nobody else. And children's names. And the name of your dog if he'd ever been introduced. He was a member of Selmore Christian Church, where he was baptized in 1935. He served most recently as an elder at the church built on land granted to the congregation by his great-grandfather. Members of the church have kept him in their prayers and visited regularly, bringing along plates of food or desserts after every church social he was unable to attend. Survivors include his wife and lifetime companion, Betty; son and daughter-in-law, Bil Tatum and Julie Glennon of Springfield; daughter, Beth Tatum; son and daughter-in-law, Carroll Wayne and Dalene Tatum; daughter and son-in-law, Lee Ann and Les Day; and sister, Lena Tatum, all of Ozark. Grandchildren, Erin, Tahd, Shyra and her husband Aaron, Kyle, Caleb, Skyler, Scott, Tara, Amanda and Bryan; great-granddaughter, Hali; nephews, Joe Nyal and Keith Tatum and Eddie Glenn; seven great-nephews; and one great-niece. He was a loving and beloved husband, father, grandfather, brother and uncle. We will miss him terribly, but we are comforted that his suffering is over and grateful to all the friends and neighbors whose help and attentions have made his last few months more bearable for him and his family. The family also sends special thanks to Dr. Galen Hasler, Arlene McCormack, R.N., and staff of St. John's Hospice for their kind, capable and intuitive care. Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday, April 5, 2005, in Selmore Christian Church, under the direction of Adams Funeral Home. Burial will be in Selmore Cemetery. Visitation will be from 6 to 8 p.m. Monday, at Adams Funeral Home in Ozark. Contributions may be made to The Selmore Christian Church Memorial Fund.

Taylor, John Sanborn 15 Nov 1865 - 10 May 1949 CCR 16 Jun 1949

Resolutions of Respect to the Memory of Brother John S. Taylor. Whereas, It has pleased the Supreme Architect of the Universe to call from labor to eternal rest, our beloved brother, John S. Taylor, who departed this life on May 10, 1949, having reached the ripe old age of 83 years, 25 days and five months, being born at the family homestead north of Ozark, Missouri. In his youthful days, Brother Taylor attended the country school at Hopedale, and the village school in Ozark, to later graduate from Marionville College and attend business college in St. Louis, Missouri, in preparation for this work as Cashier of the Christian County Bank, which position he held for almost 50 years meriting the respect of all with whom he came in contact. He was raised to the Sublime degree of Master Mason on July 19, 1897, in Friend Lodge No. 352, Ancient Free and Accepted Masons, at Ozark, Missouri, where he remained a faithful member until his death, being presented a 50 years badge for his long and faithful service to the fraternity on Sept. 18, 1947, having served the lodge as Master for three terms, and was also District Deputy Grand Master of this district for two terms, where he served with honor to himself and his brother master masons. Brother Taylor gave much of his time to the cause of Free Masonry and by his example of honesty and loyalty brought honor to himself as a citizen and respect to our fraternity. The institution where he spent so many years passed out of existence in the year 1936, and was liquidated, not on account of any mis-management or defalcation on the part of its officers or directors, but because John Taylor didn't want to embarrass men that he had dealt with for a great number of years by foreclosure, and who he knew were honest and would pay if given a chance, and rather follow the dictates of human compassion than lifeless rules and regulations his choice was, that the institution he had done so much in the interests of should close its doors as did the time honored institution that we know of as The Christian County Bank. Therefore Be It Resolved, That in the death of Brother Taylor, his family lost a devoted father, the lodge a faithful and most useful member, holding the office of Treasurer therein for almost 40 years, and the community an upright, useful and honored citizen. That we will hold in pleasing and grateful remembrance the zeal, fidelity and devotion with which Brother Taylor discharged his Masonic duties, and may we try to live as loyal and devoted to the grand principles of our Fraternity as did Brother Taylor. That we tender to his children our heart felt sympathy, and commend them to the care and protection of Almighty God, whom Brother Taylor loved and trusted. That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon records, a copy be published in the newspaper, printed and published in Ozark, Missouri, and a copy be sent to the family of our deceased Brother. Tom R. Moore, J.B. Anderson, George Breazeale, W.L. Hixson, G. Purd Hays, Committee.

Carbon Monoxide Blamed in Auto Death at Clever.

Billy Ray Teague, 40-year-old Galena resident, apparently died of carbon monoxide poisoning early Christmas morning, according to Dean Harris, Christian county coroner. Teague and a companion, David White, had spent the night in their car after becoming mired in mud just west of Clever between 8:00 and 9:00 p.m. Christmas Eve. White told a Christian County deputy that he and Teague walked into Clever and found a local man to help them free the car. Tindle became a Master Mason in Lyceum Lodge in Kentucky in 1875, and affiliated with Friend Lodge, January 10, 1885. May 7, 1887, he demitted from this Lodge to assist as a charter member in the organization of the Lodge at Sparta, and returned to Friend Lodge March 17, 1894, and maintained continuous membership with us until his death, which occurred at his home five miles southeast of Ozark on Sunday, May 6, 1923, at the age of 76 years, 1 month and 5 days. He was one of the oldest members of Friend Lodge and one of the oldest Master Masons in this section, having been a member of the Order for 48 years. In his younger days he was fairly active in the work of the Fraternity, to which he was strongly attached, much more so than his usually quiet manner would indicate. For several years his name has been on our honor roll as a "Life Member," exempt from local lodge dues because of long membership. He was buried in the Prospect cemetery by the side of his wife, on Monday, May 7, 1923, the burial ceremony of our Fraternity being performed by officers and members of this Lodge, led by Past Grand Master C. H. Briggs of Springfield. Be it Resolved, That in the death of Brother John C. Tindle, Friend Lodge has "lost a faithful member, the community a good citizen, and his children a devoted father.:

Resolved, that our sympathies be extended to the bereaved relatives; and that this tribute be spread upon our records and published in the Ozark papers; and that copies hereof be furnished to relatives of our departed Brother.

Michael A. Todd, 12, of Route 1, Rogersville, was dead on arrival at St. John's Hospital about 4 p.m. last Sunday afternoon after sustaining an accidental gunshot wound in the upper abdomen. Christian County Coroner Dean Harris said that Michael A. Todd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Beryl Todd, and a 12-year-old friend, Hanson, Taylor, Jr., had been playing outside the Todd home. Young Taylor said they went into the house about 2:30 and Michael showed him a .22 pistol. The boys apparently didn't know the gun was loaded and it discharged, striking the Todd boy in the upper abdomen. Mr. and Mrs. Todd were reportedly working outside and apparently did not hear the shot. The Taylor boy rode his horse home and told his father of the accident. Taylor returned to the scene with his son, and then took the Todd youth to the hospital. ### A farewell to a fine friend

By: Donna Osborn, Headliner News 03/17/2004

Another Ozark icon died early March 12 in a Springfield hospital. Ozark Mayor Donna McQuay, with the sound of tears in her voice, said Jim Turner will leave a deep void in the community. "He was an icon around here," she said. "He never stopped giving to this community. The whole family has done nothing but contribute to this community. It is hard to get these kinds of people-he's a tough act to follow." McQuay said Turner became her friend as soon as she moved to Ozark more than 20 years ago. He retired from Empire Electric as district manager and became even more involved in community volunteerism. He served on the city's planning and zoning board. "I've known Jim for more than 20 years-ever since I moved to Ozark," McQuay said. "He was a friend as well as a member of the (park) board here." Turner was a charter member of the Ozark Rotary Club and rarely missed a meeting. Jordan Needham, president, said Turner exemplified the club's motto. "Jim Turner was a charter member of the club which was established in 1968," Needham said. "He exemplified the true meaning of Rotary and our motto of 'Service above Self.' He will be greatly missed as a friend of Rotary and of the community" Rick Lamb knew Turner for more than 20 years, primarily through involvement in the Ozark Booster Club. He echoed Needham's comments. "I thought a lot of Jim Turner," he said. "He was 'Mr. Civic Duty.' He wasn't one of the founding member of the Boosters, but he was certainly our sustaining member. He was always there doing something, but not everybody knew it. He was always there serving and there will really be a hollow spot without him. We need more guys like Jim Turner -he got stuff done." Turner is probably best known in Ozark for his tireless efforts supporting the Ozarks Parks and Recreation Department. He's been a board member from the beginning, serving as its chairman from 1986 to 1994. In 1996, in appreciation of that support, the Parks Department dedicated the Finley River public access to him in honor of his service. The Jim Turner Public Fishing Access Point in the Finley River Park is a testament to a man who was considered a true gentleman and a modest one. "I'm glad I've been able to contribute to the parks system," Turner said in a news clip about the dedication from the Headliner in 1996. "We started almost at zero. All park board members deserve credit for keeping the thing going without adequate funds." But it is Turner who Parks Director Dodee Matthews credits as being a true inspiration to her as well as an advocate for the city. "He really was my mentor," she said. "I just loved him. He was like a father to me." Matthews has not known the park system without Turner as a guiding light. "I started here 10 years ago-1995," she said. "He was totally involved in the city. I'll miss his sense of humor and his smile and his willingness to always talk about the park and how to make it better." Not only did Turner bring hard work and enthusiasm to his efforts, he brought knowledge, Matthews said. "He was such a gentlemen and had so much historical information," she said. "When we needed to know that information he had it. He always kept great records. We teased him and called him Mr. Park."

LOVING MEMORIES

Your gentle face and patient smile with sadness we recall
You had a kindly word for each and died beloved by all.
The voice is mute and still the heart that loved us well and true
And bitter was the trial to part from one so good as you.
You are not forgotten, loved one, nor will you ever be.
As long as life and memory last, we will remember thee.
We miss you now, our hearts are sore.
As time goes by, we miss you more.
Your loving smile . . . your gentle face.
No one can fill your vacant place

Death Claims Aged Resident

Luther Ashley Vaughan of Ozark died Tuesday morning at the Christian Rest Home after an illness of two weeks. He was 86. A bachelor, Mr. Vaughan lived at his life at the farm homesteaded by his parents southeast of Ozark and for much of that time had been a member of the First Baptist Church of Ozark. His parents, Granville H. and Mary Elizabeth McGaugh Vaughan, took up a section of land before the Civil War and received a patent from President Buchanan. The farm was distributed to members of the family as they married, in the manner of pioneer days; and Luther retained only 20 acres at the time of his death. He was the last survivor of his generation in his family. Mr. Vaughan was a member of the 1893 class at Ozark High School, the second graduating class. He later attended Queen City Business College at Quincy, Ill. Known for his perky wit and individualism, he had many friends in the community who repeated the comments and they became legendary. He never owned a modern automobile. In his later years, he rode a gentle mare horseback to town for provisions. Survivors include a number of nieces and nephews as follows: Children of his sister, Lina Givan: Hiram Givan of Ozark, William Givan and Forrest Givan of Porterville, Calif.; Edward Givan of Garden City, Calif; Geneva Jacobs, Inverness, Fla.; Mary DuPree, Americus, Ga.,
