IN Memorium

A good person died last week, Mable Campbell. Mable was a good friend to me. She was first a Kentling, then a Campbell, and fiercely proud of it. She had an open heart to all animals, giving food and a warm bed to any strays, that happened by. She was a friend to countless Highlandville residents, as she had been for years. People who didn't know her cannot begin buy a few word on a page. Those who did don't need words. She finally made me understand those words before had always seemed menaingless - gone but not forgotten.

A Tribute to Mable Campbell, by Alice West Holt.

To speak of Mable Campbell was to speak of Highlandville - with her passing so has a era of Highlandville history. Being the only daughter of the eldest son of Frank and Katie Kentling, the founders of Highlandville, she was the postal service in the city for three generations.

She was born at Reno, Mo March 23, 1899. From the time she was nine years old, she ever was at her mother's side in the store business. They moved to Highlandville in her early childhood, and as a young lady, she met Frank Campbell, also raised in the community, They married in 1917. Frank first worked with his father in a blacksmith shop, but later he opened a cafe. He spent most of his life trucking, but in later years, he ran a barber shop in back of the post office. He worked there until illness overtook him and he passed away in 1953.

Mable is survived by two sons, Paul of Highlandville and J. Wayne "Cookie" of Houston, Tex.; four grandchildren, Mrs. Pauline Firestone, Washington, D. C., Miss Suzanne Campbell, Miss Heather Campbell and Kent Campbell of Houston, Tex. Also surviving are two great grandchildren and a brother, Carl Kentling of Wichita, Kan.

Mable served the community as postmistress for 48 years beginning August 11, 1921. She was 22 years of age. At that time, postage was 2 cents for first class mail and a postcard could be bought for a penny - this was in the days when Warren Harding was President.

An exciting time for Mable as shortly after she became postmaster, three boys from Springfield robbed the post office. But in no time, the postal authorities apprehended them. None the less, it was a most trying experience for the young postmaster.

When we would visit, Mable would recall that when she first took over the post office, the porch was a favorite gathering place for farmers to do their visiting when they came to town. IT also was a favorite place to discuss politics on election day.

Progress was made during her years in office. It changed from a 4th to a 3rd class post office in 1964. Three routes were served by the office: the Reeds Spring, the Ozark route and the star route and route one out of Highlandville.

Times changed moneywise, too. When Mable took the Office, the pay was $30 a month. When she retired in 1969, she was receiving nearly $7,000 a year.

One of our fondest memories of Mable was to see her on a wintery day sitting back of the postal window in an easy chair. There by the wood stove, she would relax a moment - and one would find a cat in her lap. Cats became a loving hobby with Mable from the days of "Babe: her first constant companion at the Post Office until she had attained a numerous collection, housing and feeding them over the years.

Besides her cats, Mable made a trek most every day to the building that housed the Post Office during her Postmastery, where she maintained the Thrifty Shoppe for most of her remaining days. Its progress flourish a while as people brought in their wares. She sold several antique items, gifts, jellies, etc. but second-hand clothing got to be involved, time consuming job and very little profit; so she had to put a limit on how many and the length of time they were permitted to stay.

But, most of all, it was a place up town where she could visit all her friends. She liked the quiet serenity of our little town - from the last clang of hammer on anvil from Delbert White's blacksmith Shop in the late 1930's til the roaring thud of the City Water well drilled in the late 1970's, quietness blessed the little town.

Even though she loved people, she dreaded growth and had no desire to see progress come and change that which seemed to make time stand still.

The last time I visited Mable, she was saying, "Not many come in anymore. So many have died, you know.", speaking of her old friends. And, as I looked into the face of this ageless lady, who had changed to me so very little over the many, many years I had known her - with acceptance of a few facial wrinkles and graying hair; it was hard for me to accept that she, too, would soon not be coming to the little shoppe again.

But, you, it wouldn't surprise me a bit if she hasn't all ready opened up a little Thrift Shoppe in Heaven on Hallelujah Square - and that "Business As Usual" is going on up there. A crown of saints to meet her and welcome her in where they can visit forever, days on end. Yes, I can imagine a great homecoming and all are having fun; I doubt if she looks back to earth to miss us - nairy a one.

[Note: surname spelling from tombstone]

Bobby Donald Carsteen had dozens of friends. He made them easily. One of his chums was David Yates, 12, of 1706 Cairo. Just after noon yesterday, Bobby, who's 10 years old and lives at 1516 East Walnut, went to David's house to play. David's mother sent him to the store for a loaf of bread and a box of salt. Bobby went along. Both boys rode their bicycles. On their way back, they rode east on the 1600 block of St. Louis, which is unpaved. Bobby was in the lead. A rural delivery ice truck passed David, then started to pass Bobby. The truck got about halfway past Bobby, then something happened. No one will ever know how Bobby lost his balance and fell beneath the huge rear wheels of the truck. Possibly his bicycle wheels got caught in a rut, throwing the bicycle toward the truck. David didn't see the accident, because he had turned to glance over his shoulder. By the time the driver of the truck, Hugh Allen Kern, Jr., 17, of Route 2, had stopped the machine, Bobby was dead – his head crushed beneath the wheels. The accident occurred just outside the city limits, but both city police and highway patrolmen were called to the scene. According to Patrolman Herbert Sobolewaki, Kern had no commercial chauffeur's license. No charges have been filed yet, however. Kern told police he passed Bobby and that the youth went out of view. "I heard a crash, stopped the truck and found the boy, still on his bicycle, with blood running from his head", Kern said. Cheerful Bobby was a fourth-grader at Oak Grove School. His friends said he was happy – "always seemed to be having a good time." Survivors include his mother, Mrs. Clay Chastain; two brothers, Herbert Carsteen, 17, and Alvin Carsteen, 20; and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Moore, Clever. An inquest was held this afternoon at Thieme Chapel. Funeral services will be at 2:30 p.m. Tuesday afternoon in the Methodist Church at Battlefield with the Rev. Marvin A. Crocker officiating. A fire, discovered shortly before 8:00 p.m. Wednesday afternoon, resulted in the death of an Ozark resident, Levi Allen "Buck" Carter, 78. Cave, Mary Lou (Schmittou) 29 Sep 1928 - 17 Dec 2004 SN-L 20 Dec 2004

On Friday, December 17, 2004, the children of Mary Lou Cave handed her back to God at the path to eternal life in the same bittersweet way that she had once freed them, each in their own time, to walk their own path of life-desperately wanting to keep her physically close, while rejoicing that the life she dreamed of and prepared for was about to begin. Mary Lou began this life on September 29, 1928, when God handed her to her parents Nell and Clyde Schmittou. Along with her older sister and brother, Betty and Bob, the three distinct personalities combined to create the kind of happy memories that she loved to recount throughout the years. She graduated in 1946 from Springfield Senior High and worked at the O'Reilly PX and as a telephone operator before taking the hand of James Cave in holy matrimony in 1947. She gave up jitterbugging and traded her bike and skates for a crib, then readily opened up her heart and arms for God to fill with three cherished children, Robert, Dona, and Connie. As a mother, she nourished and guided, but never pushed. She delighted in watching her children and grandchildren reveal their own distinct personalities. With everyone, she was open and interested, loving and lovable. Although a content homebody, Mary Lou blossomed in social settings. She was a member of the VFW Post 3404 Ladies' Auxiliary and Grant Avenue Baptist Church. When reminiscing about her life, she never dwelled on the painful, disabling arthritis that plagued her for over 40 years. She preferred instead to proclaim that she had (lived a good life.) Mary Lou leaves behind her son, Bobby, and his wife, D.D.; her daughter, Connie; her granddaughter, Shelly Pattison, and her husband George, and their children, Cory Coomer and Bryce; her grandson, Brian Cave, and his wife Marcie, and their sons Cooper and Owen; Peggy Cave, whom she loved like a daughter; her brother, Bob Schmittou; and an extended family of friends and relatives. She has now rejoined her beloved husband, Jimmy; her daughter, Dona; her parents; her sister, Betty Gamble; and her parents-in-law, Mae and Willard Cave. Services for Mary Cave will be held at 1 p.m. on Tuesday, December 21, 2004, in Greenlawn Funeral Home South, with burial to follow in Highlandville Cemetery. Visitation is 6:30 to 8 p.m. Monday, December 20, 2004, in the funeral home. Because Mary's heart was all encompassing, to honor her you may make a memorial contribution to the charity of your choice. Please say a special prayer for those who suffer with rheumatoid arthritis and for the servicemen past and present who have sacrificed to preserve the country she loved so dearly. After her final meal, Mary Lou said (I'm ready for my walk now.) We soon realized that she indeed would be setting out, free of pain and wheelchairs, on that wonderful journey to eternal paradise. It was her time and she had earned it. For after all, she had lived a good life.

Chappius, Donald D. 12 Nov 1947 - 29 Sep 1977 OH 6 Oct 1977 p1
Ozark Man Shock Victim

A 30-year-old man was killed about 12:30 p.m. last Thursday when a boom truck removing a damaged billboard came in contact with a high-voltage line north of Ozark near U. S. 65. Donald Chappius was killed and a companion injured when the truck boom he was working on near the highway about one and a half miles north of Route 14 swung into an electrical line believed to carry more than 6,000 volts. Chappius fell off the vehicle and landed against a steel support arm of the truck, authorities said. Witnesses said the boom continued swinging into the power line for 30 minutes until the power company officials could be notified to cut off the electricity. The truck's owner, Ron Bilyeu, was injured while trying to move Chappius' body. Bilyeu did not come into direct contact with the power line or truck, but apparently was shocked through the ground, authorities said. He was taken to St. John's Hospital in Springfield where he was treated and released. Christian County Coroner Arthur D. Adams said Chappius' death was due to electrocution. Workers could not remove Chappius' body until power was cut because of the high voltage running through the truck. Chappius was employed by Southwest Welding Company of Ozark which was using the boom truck to remove a wooden billboard for Ozark Sign Company. The billboard was damaged during a wind storm earlier in the week.

Chastain, Wanda L. 6 Dec 1947 - 4 Jul 1964

Death didn't take a holiday in the Ozarks during the Fourth of July. Two persons died in traffic accidents in the Ozarks, one Friday, one Saturday. Dead are Wanda Chastain, 16 and Charles Martin Jr. 23. Six persons were injured in the accident which claimed the life of Miss Chastain as she and her friends were returning from a swimming party about 1 a.m. Saturday on East Sunshine Road, two miles east of Springfield. They were Edward Gardner, Billy Ray Tooley, May Watkins, Robbie Eisley, Joleen Lindsey and Bobby Smith. All were taken to St. John's Hospital for treatment and Tooley, Miss Watkins, Gardner and Eisley were released after treatment. Miss Lindsey and Smith were in "satisfactory condition" at the hospital last night where the former is being treated for facial lacerations and the latter for possible internal injuries, lacerations and contusions about the face. About 30 minutes before the crash, sheriff's deputies reported they had observed both cars – and all of the occupants—at a swimming party at James River Bridge, about three miles east of the accident scene. The accident occurred, according to Trooper Ray Divine, as Gardner's car was stopping or had stopped for a stop sign and was struck in the rear by the Eisley vehicle. Gardner's car was knocked across the road and overturned and the other car continued across the road and hit a tree. An inquest will be held but no date has been set. Miss Chastain, a lifelong resident of Springfield, would have a senior at Central High School this fall. She was a member of the West 66 Fundamental Baptist Church. In addition to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willard Chastain, she is survived by a brother, Billy, of the home, a sister Mrs. Wilbur Lindsey, Springfield; her paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Chastain, Brookline and her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Artie Jones, 1055 College. An empty bottle labeled "carbolic acid" lying within ten feet of his body Monday morning told the story of the manner of the death of D.E. Chevront, who moved from Heflin to Tallapoosa about two months ago, the body being found by a boy who immediately reported to officials the finding of the body. A note addressed to his wife in which he made the statement that his course was best, asking her to kiss their little girl goodbye for him, was found in his pocket. It was reported Monday that Mr. Chevront ate his breakfast at the usual time, went to the post office and later went home to place his cow in the pasture near where his body was found. The wrapping paper from which the bottle of acid had been taken was lying beside the body of the dead man when the first citizens reached the spot, the bottle being about ten feet away, according to the reports. Judge A.I. Head, to whom the matter was first reported, and Webb Baes, constable for this district were among the first officials to reach the scene. They found Mr. Chevront lying on his back, and he evidently died without a struggle. As soon as the finding of the body was reported to Mrs. Chevront, she telephoned to Pierce Owens, Heflin Undertaker, to come for the body and he arrived her about 2 o'clock in the afternoon, the remains being removed to the home and prepared for burial. An inquest over the body was held in the afternoon by Coroner Slate and a verdict of self destruction was returned. Mr. Chevront had made his home in Heflin for many years, leaving there about the middle of March to take up residence here. He had been engaged for many years in handling real estate and timber in Cleburne county and had recently contracted with several fire insurance companies to begin this line of business in Tallapoosa, and had engaged desk space in the office of the Tallapoosa Journal, but had not opened his campaign for new business. It is said that he had been suffering physically during the past few months and ill health is believed to have been the chief cause leading up to his death. The Chevronts came to Heflin from Chadwick, Christian County, Missouri about six years ago and made many friends here who were deeply shocked at the news of Mr. Chevront's death.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to thank our many friends in Tallapoosa, Heflin and other places for the ready sympathy and help extended to us in our great sorrow, the death of our beloved husband and father, the late D.E. Chevront. These evidences of devoted friendship will always be cherished by us as coming straight from the hearts of sincere friends.

Mrs. D.E. Chevront
Miss Aileen Chevront

A.C. Chorn, of Springfield, Mo., died from a massive stroke on January 13, 2007, at the age of 88 years. AC had retired from the Springfield Public Schools, where he worked in the maintenance department for several years. AC's first wife, Maxine, preceded him in death in 1996. He is survived by his wife, Mary Louise; his stepson, Bob Haswell; a brother, Johnny Chorn, of Houston, Texas; and a nephew, Earnest Chorn, of Stockton, Mo. AC was preceded in death by his mother and father, Myrtle and Jessie Chorn; brothers, Willard and Heavy Chorn; and a sister, Sarah Virginia Blanton. A memorial service will be held at 10 a.m. Friday, January 19, 2007, in Walnut Lawn Funeral Home, 2001 W. Walnut Lawn. Interment will be in Patterson Cemetery in Taney County, Mo. A. C. was born April 15, 1918, and raised on a 40 acre homestead in what is now known as Hercules Glade, in the Mark Twain National Forest. They were poor but so was everyone else in those times. He often told of those days in the one-room log cabin, where he would awaken to have snow on the feather comforter that had blown in through a crack in the wall. It was a good year when dad could buy each of his kids a new pair of shoes, a pair of overalls, and a shirt. All their neighbors would herd cattle, hogs, turkeys, and sheep along those wagon trails to Chadwick to the railroad. His father and mother were Pentecostal believers and he once told me about seeing a young lady fall under the Spirit onto a hot stove and was not burned. Following his father's death in 1933, AC and his older brother Willard were drafted into the Army where they served in the Second World War. A. C. was shipped to Iran and drove big 6X6 supply trucks from the Persian Gulf into southern Russia. He never spoke of the times when raiders would attack these supply trains, but he told of many other adventures that happened there. What a great change, in such a short time, for this young man from an Ozarks hill farm to go to the cradle of civilization where he saw Queen Esther's Palace, Daniel's Tomb, and drove a big 6X6 truck up onto the Zageroot in UR of The Caldeas. The most lasting memory was how seasick he got on the boat trip through the Tazman Sea on the way over. My stepfather taught me to hunt, fish, and enjoy nature. His mother was a full blood Cherokee Indian from Oklahoma, so he knew how to set traps and snares. One night when our boat motor failed, and left us up Beaver Creek, we slept on the ground next to a small campfire we built. The most fun we had was when I took him fishing in Canada. He caught a seven pound Northern pike on a four pound Ultra light rig. We all shall miss him, for he was a good man.

Church, Phil 7 Oct 1919 - 15 Oct 2006 SN-L 18 Oct 2006 & SN-L 19 Oct 2006

[Note: Son of John Rufus & Pearl Church; married G. M. "Patsy" Parks]

Phil Church passed over to the other side Sunday morning, October 15, after 87 years and eight days on this earth. Phil began life on October 7, 1919, in Newhall, West Virginia, and served overseas in World War II in the Philippines and New Guinea. It was while he was stationed at O'Reilly General Hospital in Springfield that he met and married G.M. "Patsy" Parks and they have remained united for 62 years. After the war, Phil returned to his wife and young family in southwestern West Virginia and stayed active in the National Guard, even serving 10 months active duty during the Cuban Missile Crisis. All told, he served 25 years between active and reserve duty. In 1947 Phil began selling appliances and in 1954 he began selling automobiles. In 1963 he and his family moved to Springfield, Missouri, due to the economic depression within the West Virginia coal industry at the time. He soon became the general sales manager of Central Dodge, then on the corner of St. Louis Street and National Avenue, owned by Gene Cunningham and Dean Wise. In 1972 Phil and Ron Gelsheimer purchased Sports Care Center selling Volvos, Morris Garage, and British Leyland products on St. Louis Street. In late 1976 he and Ron sold that enterprise and opened Ozark Chrysler Plymouth (later Ozark Dodge) on Highway 65 and CC Highway, just south of Springfield. In 1984 he partnered with his son Rufus Church in that venture. By 1992 Phil was in semi-retirement, selling a few vehicles per month to his dedicated customers, but a real passion from his boyhood had been reawakened-the breeding and promotion of game fowl. He became an officer of both the United States and the Missouri Game Fowl Associations and lobbied extensively in Jefferson City for the preservation and protection of this cause, also serving as the keynote speaker at conventions around the nation. Phil was introduced to the Christian faith and the Episcopal Church by a dear friend, Dr. Frank Maple, and was active at St. James Episcopal Church, serving as junior and senior warden, and made many friends. His sense of humor, patience, common sense, dedication to duty, and even-handed and fair treatment of all people, regardless of their station in life, made him a natural leader and earned the respect of all who met him. In June of 2003, Phil suffered a fall resulting in a fractured skull and severe brain trauma. After almost a month at St. John's Hospital, he was released and until his death, resided at Magnolia Square Skilled Nursing Facility. The family would like to thank the entire organizations of St. John's, Magnolia Square, Oxford Home Health Care, and Community Hospice for the care and compassion that they showed Phil during his final three years. Particularly notable were neurologist Dr. John Ferguson; Chris Olson, Paula O'Neill, Carol Tobin and Frank Roberts of Oxford Health Care; Dr. Thomas Dahlberg, Pam Darwin, Bert Freeman, Dawn Jones, and all of the staff at Magnolia Square; and Roye Lane of Community Hospice. These are only a few of the many people who showed extreme kindness and genuine concern for Phil's needs in these last critical years. Phil was preceded in death by two children, Patrick Church and Nancy Joan Church; by his parents, John Rufus and Pearl Church; and by three brothers, Corbett, Bill and Edd Church. He is survived by his wife, Patsy Church of The Gardens in Springfield; his sister, Ruth Church Cox of St. Albans, West Virginia; three children, Phyllis Church Scott and husband, Donald, of Orlando, Florida, Peggy Church Stepp and husband, Steve, of Springfield, and Rufus Church and wife, Kay, of Springfield. Phil is also survived by nine grandchildren: Paula Scott Dobe of Florida, Ed Scott of Georgia, Donna Scott Kennedy of Florida, Sam Scott of Mississippi, Kennedy Church of Springfield, Dr. Phillip W. Stepp of Springfield, Elizabeth Stepp of Columbia, Jessica Church of Springfield, and Patrick Church of Springfield; and by two great-grandchildren, Katie Church and Hunter Church Fick of Springfield. Phil Church will be often remembered and tenderly missed by his immediate family, friends, extended family and all of those who had the privilege to have known him and had their lives touched by him. May he rest peacefully till we see him again. In lieu of flowers, the family is asking that donations be made in the name of Phil Church to either the Christian County Animal Shelter or the American Diabetes Association. Visitation will be at Greenlawn Funeral Home North on Friday, October 20, from 6 to 9 p.m. Services and burial with military honors will be conducted at 10 a.m. Saturday, October 21, at the funeral home.

Warren Clark, 56, Springfield was killed last Friday morning at 7 o'clock when his 1975 Chevrolet pickup truck veered off of Hwy 65 about 10 miles south of Ozark, traveling about 400 feet before it halted upside down near the bottom of a steep draw. Trooper Mike Shockly said Clark lost control of his truck while passing another vehicle. Clark, an employee of Master-Jackson Paving Co., was on his way to work with a crew on the paving job near the Hwy EE intersection. The truck, going south, hit the guardrail and plunged into the draw, mostly following the concrete spillway. John L. Frazier of Nixa, a Fasco employee here and Roy Marshall of Monett saw the accident. Frazier said, "We were right behind him and it looked like there was a camper ahead of him. Looked like he was getting ready to pass him. He started around and lost control. He started fish-tailing and his right rear bumper hit the guard rail. I pulled over and got the Taney County sheriff on my CB radio. Frazier then went down to the body and stayed there until the ambulance from Ozark arrived. Frazier and Marshall were on their way to the lake for scuba diving. Frazier said the accident happened at five minutes after 7. Frazier said the badly damaged body was about 20 feet behind the truck. Deputy Sheriff Orville Danderson said there were 70 feet of skid marks to the point where the truck left the highway. "When he started to pass the car, he saw he didn't have room, so he locked it up all the way. The moment he went off the road, there just wasn't anything he could do about it." Danderson said all the marks at the scene showed the truck flipped over at about 100 feet and slid the rest of the way down the spillway. David Ballou of the Ozark Volunteer Ambulance Service said the truck probably ran over Clark after he was tossed out. "He had extensive damage. He was a big fellow . . . weighed probably 200 or 225." The draw drops steeply at about a 40-degree angle. Footing is very difficult because of the angle and the rocky terrain with high grass and weeds. Footing on the concrete spillway is almost impossible because of the angle of descent. "We had plenty of help getting him back up", Ballou said. Assisting were members of the construction crew. Ballou was just preparing to end the night shift when the report came in. He and Lynn Vest didn't have time to change over with Lyle Mabe of the day shift. Mabe and his wife Betty followed to the scene in their car. Ballou is a research chemist with Dayco in Springfield, reporting for work there after going home for breakfast. George Rice and Freddie Trimble of George's Body Shop recovered the half-ton vehicle. Rice said it stopped about 400 feet from the highway. It took two wreckers, in tandem, to pull the pickup out. The big wrecker with a 250 foot cable, let the smaller one with a 100 foot cable down as far as possible, then used all of its 100 foot cable and attached two 20-foot long log chains in order to reach the wrecked vehicle. The recovery took about four hours. Thinking of the depth, steepness and the rocky terrain, Rice said, "I don't see how they got the body out." Rice said, "We had plenty of help from the highway workers." Clark's body was taken to the Adams Funeral Home in Ozark, then to Reeds Spring for services and burial. He was a 20-year employee of Masters-Jackson.

Clemons, Lola Berchie (Bird) 12 Sep 1898 - 3 Sep 1951 CCR 13 Sep 1951

[Note: Daughter of John Riley & Hannah Elizabeth (Johnson) Bird; married 9 Jul 1917 Leslie Clemons 31 Jan 1897 - 19 Dec 1977; surname spelling from tombstone]

Lola Berchie Bird, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bird, was born September 12, 1898 in Sparta, MO. When seven years of age, she with her parents moved to Springfield where she continued to live until her marriage to Mr. Leslie Clemmens of Sparta on July 9, 1917. This popular young couple established their home in Sparta where she resided until her death which occurred in Barnes hospital, St. Louis, MO, on September 3, 1951. At the age of sixteen years, Berchie professed her faith in Christ and united with the First Baptist church in Springfield. She transferred her membership to the Sparta Baptist church in 1919 and in this church she was a faithful and efficient worker throughout her lifetime. Mrs. Clemmens possessed an outstanding personality which was dedicated to the glory of God and to the people about her. Her beautiful voice in solo or concert, was a much appreciated blessing in the worship through song in the services of her church. Her prayers were humble and fervent. Her efforts were extended beyond her church as she served as leader in several phases of associational program of her denomination. Her position in a local doctor's office enabled her to minister to many who were sick. She was active in the Order of Eastern Star and a local civic club. In all these organizations she carried her full share of responsibility and the manner in which she did these things as well as the keeping of her home was a true manifestation of her love for beauty. Those who survive her are, her husband, Leslie Clemmens of Sparta; a sister, Mrs. Leatha Dodd of Wichita Falls, TX; a brother, Mr. Lora Bird of Clinton, MO; two nieces, Mrs. Virginia E. Hatfield of Wichita Falls and Mrs. Doris Quick of Kansas City, MO; a host of other relatives and friends. Funeral services were conducted Saturday afternoon in the Sparta Baptist church by the church pastor, Rev. E. N. Webb, assisted by Rev. Floyd Hanks of Springfield. The pastor's sermon subject was "The Victorious Life" based on the text; I Cor. 15:57. "Thanks be unto God, who hath given us the victory through Jesus Christ, our Lord." Rev. Hanks read a number of scriptures and led in prayer. A trio composed of Mrs. Byron Anderson, Mrs. Knial Kisse, Jr., Miss Betty Ferrell accompanied by Mrs. E. N. Webb sang "In the Garden", "Does Jesus Care?" and "Sometime We'll Understand". The more than four hundred bereaved loved ones and friends and the many, many beautiful floral tributes of sympathy attested to the high esteem in which Berchie was held. Interment was made in the beautiful Sparta cemetery under direction of Chaffin Funeral Home of Ozark.

Cobb, Charles William 1885 - 20 February 1951 CCR 29 Nov 1951

Testimony in the trial of Arthur T. Clark, Taney county farmer and building contractor, who is charged with first degree murder in the bludgeoning slaying of a neighbor, Charles William Cobb, 65, last February, 20, got underway in the circuit court of Christian county in Ozark about four o'clock Tuesday afternoon of this week. All day

Monday and most of Tuesday was spent in the selection of the 12 members of the all male jury. Judge Tom R. Moore is presiding at the trial which was brought to Christian county on a change of venue from Taney county. Clark's first trial in the Cobb murder case began last September 5, in Ozark, but was called off after three days of testimony because a member of the jury became ill. The case has been called the "mortgaged cow" murder case because Ruby Cobb, 25-year old wife of the slain man, testified that she signed a note for $600, payable to Mrs. Orma Clark, wife of the accused man, putting up two of her best cows as security for a promise to have Cobb "done away with". Both Mrs. Cobb and Mrs. Clark have pleaded guilty as accomplices in the murder but as yet have not been sentenced. Also charged as defendants in the case are Carl Wood, 71, and his brother Clarence Wood, 68. Testimony and evidence brought forth by the prosecuting attorneys show that it was Carl Wood to whom Ruby Cobb wrote passionate love notes and claimed would marry if her husband was out of the way. The two brothers have not been tried in the case. The prosecution finished with their witnesses late Wednesday and the defense was to begin the presentation of their witnesses Thursday morning. More than capacity crowds have been jamming into the courtroom to hear the testimony in this sensational murder trial.

Farmer, 71, Dies on Hunting Trip, Shot mangles Arm.

Schuyler Cobb, 71, farmer of near Clever, died in a hospital here early yesterday morning as the result of a shotgun wound suffered Saturday afternoon while he was hunting. Mr. Cobb, his physician said, had set the gun down to open a gate when it accidentally discharged, mangling his left arm just below the shoulder. "He was rushed here in an ambulance," said the physician, "but he had already lost a lot of blood. We amputated the arm and administered plasma but it was no use." A physician from Billings, who accompanied the Maples Funeral Home ambulance which brought Mr. Cobb to Springfield, said the elderly man was hunting alone and had lain wounded in the field for some time before anyone found him. Age 16. Died Nov. 8, 1972

Just like the flowers that bloom in June, They fade away and died too soon.

Roy was a bud but one day in June. Now he has faded and gone too soon.

Sixteen years is a very short time to lose one so precious and fine.

You have left us all sick and sore. because your years could have been so much more.

You will keep us with memories we will keep dear in our heart.

Sadly missed by one and all, We lost our flower in the fall.

Grandma Rysted.

Widders, Carlyla 13 May 1951 - 26 Jul 1951 CCR 2 Aug 1951

Mrs. Avadeen Cole, 16, of Nixa was killed last Thursday morning near Stockton, KS, when the car she was driving struck a bridge abutment. Also killed was her two-months old niece, Carlyla Widders, daughter of her sister who was in the car with Mrs. Cole. The baby's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Widders of Springfield were hospitalized at Hays, KS. A reconstruction of the crash by the highway patrol indicated that Mrs. Cole had taken the wheel in the early morning after her brother-in-law, who had been discharged from the service and was being returned home from Washington, D.C., had driven all night. The party had an early morning breakfast. Mr. Widders got into the back seat for a catchup sleep, and Mrs. Cole had been driving about 15 minutes when the accident occurred. She was proceeding at moderate speed and the theory was that she was blinded by the early sunlight and did not see the abutment. Bodies of the two victims were returned by plane to Springfield, where funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon with the Rev. Roscoe Harding, pastor of Riverdale Baptist church, officiating. Burial was made in the McConnell cemetery near Nixa. In addition to her sister, Mrs. Cole is survived by her husband, Don, serving in the Navy. Mable Collins, died January 13, 1974. Although it has been only a year, at times it seems much, much longer. If I could have walked a piece with her, or could have drawn back the curtain to catch a glimpse of the beautiful place that is prepared for us, maybe it wouldn't be so hard to say farewell, but until we meet again. I'll hide my heart ache behind a smile and wait for reasons, till after a while and though he try me, I know I'll find that my burdens are silver lined. We'll talk it over, my Lord and I. I'll ask the reason, he'll tell me why. We'll talk it over in the bye and bye. Entire Skaggs and Collins Family. Iva Brazeale.

Man Murdered South of Ozark

David Lee Courtney, 23 year old man from Quitman, Arkansas, was shot and killed last Thursday night. The cold blooded murder took place about six miles south of Ozark on Highway 65. Courtney, according to Sheriff Joe Mayberry, was apparently on his way to Kansas City. He had been having tire problems during the day. He was reported to have been seen talking to two men in Branson, who were later to be jailed for the shooting. An Ozark man Russell Grubaugh picked Courtney up in Branson and brought him back to his car which was located a few miles south of where the shooting occurred. Courtney then drove his old Pontiac to a point between twin bridges and Indian Village. He apparently stopped to check lug nuts on the wheel he had installed shortly before, He had no lug wrench and was evidently trying to tighten then with a pair of pliers. At this time, Christian County Deputy Jim Campbell was heading south on Highway 65, stopped to see if he could assist Courtney. Campbell asked Courtney if he was having trouble. Courtney said, "You wouldn't believe the trouble I've had." Deputy Campbell then continued south about a mile to a spot where he could turn around. He then came back north and found Courtney lying beside his car in a large pool of blood. Campbell said about 5-10 minutes had passed between the time he left Courtney and when he found him dead. As pulled up to stop, he saw a small red pickup with a camper driving away to the south. He then called for help. This happened about 9:15 p.m. Thursday night. Road blocks were then set up. A short time later, two men driving a red Chevrolet Luv pick-up was stopped at the intersection of Hwy 65 and 160 between Ozark and Branson. The men were arrested on suspicion of murder by a highway patrolman and a Taney County Deputy and taken to the Taney County Jail. They are Kenneth Redding, 25, of Kimberling City and Danny L. Jackson, 27, from Lampe. A check of the pick-up revealed three weapons: a .357 magnum pistol and two 12-gauge shotguns, one of which was a "sawed-off" version, The two were given paraffin tests which showed that Redding had fired a gun recently . A spent .12 gauge shotgun shell was found in Reddings pocket. They later were transported to Christian County jail where they were charged with first-degree murder and are currently being held in jail without bond. According to Christian County corner Dean Adams, Courtney was shot in the south at a very close range. x-rays revealed buckshot and wadding still lodged in the head. Preliminary hearings for the two accused is set for March 18 at 9:00 a.m. before magistrate Judge Claud Boone. Courtney's car was taken to George's Body Shop in Ozark and later searched. Clothing, new shoes and personal effects was all the car contained. His body was returned to Heber Springs, Arkansas for burial. According to Sheriff Joe Mayberry, a motive is taking shape but isn't complete enough for release, but says it will involve some other Arkansas people.

[Note: Daughter of Oliver T. & Frances M. (Seisser) Cox]

Edra E. Cox, 57, a teacher at Missouri Southern College and sister of Senator Noel Cox of Ozark, was found dead Tuesday in her apartment near the Joplin college. Marsh Funeral Home attendants at Aurora said Miss Cox, a longtime resident of that city, was found dead about 8:30 a.m. Tuesday by two of her students. She was a teacher of commercial subjects at the college. Jasper County Coroner Wendell Fuhr said tentative investigation indicates Miss Cox may have died from carbon monoxide. Fuhr said investigation by Joplin fire department and Gas Service Company employees disclosed that the flue to which a gas stove in the apartment was vented had somehow become blocked. The coroner said evidence indicates that she went to bed with the heat turned up and that, because of the blocked ventilation, the oxygen was burned out of the air, resulting in the supply of carbon monoxide. Fuhr said he is withholding a decision on an inquest pending a further report from the state patrol laboratory but adds "as of now" he feels the death will be ruled accidental. Miss Cox was a teacher for 30 years, the last 17 years in Aurora High School. She resigned last summer to accept a position with the college in Joplin. Miss Cox held a bachelor of science degree in education from Southwest Missouri State College in Springfield, and a master's degree in education from George Peabody College. Survivors besides Senator Cox include another brother, Charles of Spokane and a sister, Mrs. Betty Venderford, Miraloma, Calif. Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. today in the Spokane Baptist church, with the Rev. Fred McPhail officiating. Burial will be in Spokane Cemetery under direction of Marsh.

Murder Charged Crank.

Robert Crank, Sr., 41, Rt. 1, Sparta, Was in the Christian County Jail Tuesday awaiting a preliminary hearing Dec. 4 on a capital murder charges that could send him to the gas chamber at the Missouri Penitentiary in Jefferson City. He is accused of killing his wife, Wanda Jean Crank, 40, last Sunday at her trailer home where she was said to have moved after the couple separated in September. They had made their home on the Finley River at Sparta. Crank was denied bond by Sam Appleby, Associate Circuit Judge. A Coroner's Jury ruled Monday after the inquest that death was caused by "strangulation." It was noted that the 15-year-old daughter, Ronda testified that her father told her, "I've just killed your mother. Fred Braden, a neighbor, said that Crank rode in the ambulance to the hospital in Springfield where Mrs. Crank was pronounced dead on arrival. The arrest warrant in court record said death was due to "striking and strangling." The autopsy report noted there were bruises, contusions and a laceration on her head. The autopsy report by Thomas L. Tombridge, Springfield pathologist, also said death was due to strangulation,. He couldn't say, his report read, if the strangulation was by hand or with some "ligature" such as a rope or stocking. Authority for the autopsy was signed by Richard L. Crank, one of the couple's four grown sons. On the jury were Wesley H. Doran, Lonnie Robertson, Robert Hardebeck, John D. Haguewood and Lyle Mabe. Ronda Crank, 15, youngest of the couple's five children, testified that she had just returned with her boyfriend when her father told her as she walked into the house what he had done. Then he told her to call an ambulance and the police. Mrs. Crank's body has been taken to the Gowling-Hope Funeral Home in Excelsior Springs, Mo. Records in Circuit Court show that Crank had this past Oct. 4 sued his wife for dissolution of their marriage. It was still pending. They married May 18, 1955 in Richmond, Mo and separated this past September 23. There was only one girl. The sons ranged in age from 18 to 24. Only the girl still lived at home. A property settlement which Crank and his wife had signed, listed the property and its disposal. It included a 130-acre farm near Sparta and about 50 head of cattle, plus the usual farm equipment. The cattle was said to have been sold at auction Monday night at the Blansit Sales Barn. Crank had the right to sell it as Mrs. Crank had agreed to his ownership in the settlement. She was to get only certain personal property and $3,000 in cash. He also received title to a house and lot they owned in Lexington, Mo.; a 1979 pickup truck, 20 acres and riding stables and equipment in Kenosha, Wis. The couple also had checking and savings accounts. The couple also owned a western store which was used to secure a promissory, the amount unspecified. There is a $70,000 mortgage on the Sparta farm, the encumbrance owned by the Federal Land Bank. In the settlement, Crank took responsibility for the debts. The dissolution would have given Crank visitation rights with his daughter. Carl Inman and Dale Thornton, both of Sparta, described Crank as a good neighbor - "As fine a neighbor as you'd ever want. He 'cornered' across from me", Inman said. Thomas said the couple had been in his home several times. The ambulance crew, all Sparta residents, were Roy Coffey, Sheila Preston and Ester Flatness. Fred Braden drove the ambulance. He's the owner of the Braden Oil Co. of Sparta.

Crank, Rufolo - Applebys Withdraw From 2 Cases Here.

Judge Sam Appleby and Prosecuting Attorney David Appleby have disqualified themselves in two criminal cases awaiting trial in Christian County Circuit Court. Judge Apple had withdrawn from the James Paul Rufolo case after the defendant's lawyer, Donald Cooley, filed a motion suggesting that this judge was prejudiced against Rufolo. David Appleby petitioned his father, Sam Appleby, to disqualify him from the Robert Crank murder case because he and members of his law firm, Appleby, McConnell & McCormick, might be called at witnesses in the Crank trial. David Appleby told a reporter that he had been employed by Crank in other legal matters and that Mrs. Crank had consulted with him prior to her death. Crank is accused of killing his wife Nov. 11 at the trailer home she occupied in Sparta. Judge Appleby signed the disqualification order Monday. The prosecutor said he asked the advice of Attorney General John Ashcroft, and Ashcroft agreed that he should withdraw. Judge Appleby appointed Ashcroft as his special prosecutor. He probably will appoint an alternate attorney general to take charge of the case. A preliminary hearing for Crank has been scheduled for Dec. 4 in Ozark on the death of his wife, Wanda Jean, 40, on Nov. 11 at a trailer home she occupied in Sparta. Rufolo, 23, was charged Sept. 28 with driving while intoxicated, driving without a Missouri auto license, and assaulting an officer of the law, Deputy Sheriff Orvil Danderson. Rufolo accused Danderson of severely beating him during the arrest. The assault against Rufolo said he kicked and used his fists on Danderson at the time. Judge

Clyde Rogers has been appointed to hear the Rufolo case and will be in Ozark Nov. 29 for a setting. Rufolo has demanded a jury trial.

Crank Children Sue As 'Heirs' To Property

The five children of Robert E. Crank, Sr. and the late Wanda Jean Crank have filed suit in Christian County Circuit Court here for an order declaring themselves to be the legal heirs to the property their parents owned at the time of their mother's death on Nov. 11. Their petition stated that their father killed their mother "premeditatedly" and for that reason, his interest in the property should be forfeited. At the time of her death, a dissolution-of-marriage suit was pending here. The file included a property settlement signed by Crank and his wife. Property listed in the petition for declaratory judgment includes a 130-acre farm in Christian County; a house in Lexington, Mo.; a 21-acre tract in Kehocha, Wis; the latter sold and payments due; a promissory note in the amount of $17,500 and secured by "a certain tract" of land in Christian County; furniture and household belongings of the house in Lexington; furniture and household belongs in the mobile home in Sparta where Mrs. Crank was living when she was slain, and a Cadillac automobile. The plaintiffs are Richard Crank, Robert E. Crank, Jr., Ronald Crank, Randy Crank and Rhonda Crank. Richard Crank was authorized by the others to be their agent in the suit, filed by a Springfield law firm.

After Judge Denies Bond, Crank Freedom On Writ To Be Asked Murder Trial Set Here For Jan. 28

Robert Crank, Sr., 41, Sparta, has been bound over to Circuit Court Division I for trial the fourth Monday of January on a charge of capital murder in the strangulation death of his wife, Wanda Jean on Nov. 11. Judge Sam Appleby refused defense attorney Bill Wear's request that the charge be reduced to manslaughter or 2nd degree murder so that Crank could try to post bond. Wear then announced that he would demand Crank's release on a writ of habeas corpus. Wear said he would take the matter to the Springfield Court of Appeals "as soon as I can get a copy of the transcript" of the preliminary hearing last Tuesday. Mrs. Laurie Schneider, a court reporter from Springfield, who took Tuesday's testimony, that she had two transcripts ahead of the Crank hearing that must be done first. Wear, longtime Springfield lawyer, contended that the State had failed to make a case for capital murder. "They haven't shown that there was any premeditation." Wear indicated that he'd be willing to go to trial on a manslaughter charge. The state was represented by Neil MacFarland of Jefferson City, an assistant attorney general. Prosecuting Attorney David Appleby was disqualified because his firm had discussed previous legal matters with Mr. and Mrs. Crank and therefore, he and members of his firm might be called as witnesses when the murder case comes to trial. Only four witnesses were questioned Tuesday. They were Rhonda Crank, 15-year-old daughter; Bruce Roller, 17, who was her date on the day Mrs. Crank was killed, Dr. Thomas Tombridge, Springfield pathologist who performed the autopsy and very briefly Robert Crank, Jr. Rhonda was on the stand about 30 minutes and spoke in such a low voice, she had to be urged often to speak louder. She paused a long time between answers, either due to emotion or uncertainty about her answers. She was wearing blue jeans and a reddish leather jacket over her shirt. Her long blondish hair fell nearly over her shoulders. Questions from MacFarlane drew more detail from Rhonda about the moment when she said her father told her, "I've killed your mother" than were brought out at the coroner's inquest. She said she asked her father, "What did she ever do to you?" And she quoted her father as replying "Her and her lawyer are plotting up something against (me) to leave (me) to sit and rot in jail." The reference was to the marriage dissolution her father had filed about a month before the slaying. Bruce Roller's testimony largely corroborated Rhonda's on what was said except he didn't recall her father replied anything to Rhonda's question about "What did she do to you?" Roller also testified that Robert (Bobby) Crank, Jr. tried to feel his mother's pulse to see if she were alive. Bobby Crank was called to the stand to be asked if he felt any pulse. He said he did not, "I was too nervous," Wear attempted unsuccessfully to have a photograph barred as evidence. It was taken of Mrs. Crank apparently around the time of the autopsy was performed in Springfield. Wear objected because there was no testimony to show when the picture was taken. Roller, called back to the stand, was asked by MacFarlane if the photo fairly represented Mrs. Crank's appearance when she was placed on the stretcher at her trailer home. Roller said it did. Judge Appleby said he would not reduce the charge because there was "probable cause" to believe that a capital crime had been committed. The judge also indicated that he felt the Crank children might be in danger if their father was freed on bond. Mentioning the children - one daughter and four grown sons - Judge Appleby remarked: "I think it is dangerous to consider bond." MacFarlane observed "This case isn't bondable because we don't have to prove guilt at this time." The defendant sat impassively throughout the hearing and didn't change expression at the judge's decision. He spoke only briefly a time or two to his lawyers. Assisting Wear were Ms. Blythe Crist-Brown of his law firm and Bill Aull, a Lexington, Mo. lawyer. The Cranks owned property in Lexington.

Crowley, Charles Edward 9 Dec 1936 - 16 Dec 2003 SN-L 18 Dec 2003

[Note: Son of Elmer Ernest & Blanche Elizabeth (Frazier) Crowley; married 14 Sep 1958 Margaret Josephine Beyer; married 13 Nov 1987 Vicki]

Charles E. Crowley Born in Boaz, Mo., on Dec. 9, 1936, to Blanche and Elmer E. Crowley, Charles E. Crowley left his friends and family on Dec. 16, 2003, at 6:38 p.m. Charles loved his Lord and accepted him as his savior as a young man at the Clever Christian Church. Charles was a lifelong learner. He graduated from Clever High School in 1954 and earned a Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Missouri in 1958. He remained a loyal tiger fan by attending almost every home football game. Throughout his life, he continued learning. In 2003, family and friends shared with him as he achieved the MAI designation as an appraiser, a difficult course of study to complete, and was elected president of the Ozarks Mountain Chapter of the Appraisal Institutes. Charles also loved his country and joined the army in June of 1958. He served as a commissioned artillery officer with the rank of 2nd lieutenant. He continued his service in the reserves and was promoted to the rank of Captain. In 1963, Charles began working for the Farmers Home Administration as a county supervisor to farmers in Barry, Lawrence and Dade counties. In 1967, he returned to the farm to raise dairy cattle in the Clever and Nixa areas. He continued farming until 1987 when he became a real estate appraiser; a field in which he received several awards and earned the respect of his peers and the legal community. In his work as a county supervisor and as an appraiser, Charles loved to be challenged by problems which required his extensive knowledge and experience to solve and stretched his understanding of the field. Charles was known for his expertise and integrity in the field of appraisals and was many times called upon as a witness in legal proceedings. Even as his health declined, barely able to lift himself from his chair, he spent three hours undergoing intense cross examination in a trial. Charles was very proud of his contributions that helped solve many complex legal cases. Charles was active in several community organizations. He was a member of the Heart of the Ozarks Sertoma and a past member of the Cooperative Sertoma. The same attention to detail in his professional life was evident in his love of working with wood. His work combined the skill of a craftsman and the creativity of an artist. The beauty of his work is evident to family and friends. His love of work and craftsmanship paled when compared to his love for his wife, Vicki, whom he married on Nov. 13, 1987. She was his "everything" in life; as his best friends and confidant, she encouraged, loved and strengthened him. In health and sickness, she was by his side taking care of his every need, and for that his love for her was magnified. Charles is survived by his wife, Vicki; three children, Juanita Crow and her husband Dwight of Clever, Mo., Belinda Henson and her husband Mark of Pierce City, Mo., and Edward Crowley and his wife, Terri, of Lexington, Ky.; three stepchildren, Rick Gregg and his wife, Jenny, of Nixa, Mo., Rebecca Sawyer and her husband, Emmett, of Brookline Station, Mo., and Debbie Bersano and her husband, Larry, of Lexington, Mo.; and two sisters, Esther White of Picayune, Miss., and Nina McFadden of Springfield, Mo. He is also survived by eight grandchildren, Brandon, Justin and Tanner Gilmore; Eric and Katherine Crowley; and Taylor, Meghan and Shelbie Henson. He also had fifteen step grandchildren and five step great-grandchildren. Charles was a remarkable and dignified man with a wonderful sense of humor. He helped others even when it meant sacrificing his own personal goals. He quietly displayed strength, courage and wisdom to all who knew him. His memorial service will be held on Dec. 20, 2003, at 10 a.m. at the Brentwood Christian Church, 1900 E. Baratavia, Springfield, MO 65804. The Reverend Phillip T. Snider will officiate. The body was cremated at Charles' request. The family requests that in lieu of flowers, donations be made to the Brentwood Christian Church or the Boys and Girls Club of Springfield, Mo.

In 1963, Charles began working for the Farmers Home Administration as a county supervisor to farmers in Barry, Lawrence and Dade counties. In 1967, he returned to the farm to raise dairy cattle in the Clever and Nixa areas. He continued farming until 1987 when he became a real estate appraiser; a field in which he received several awards and earned the respect of his peers and the legal community. In his work as a county supervisor and as an appraiser, Charles loved to be challenged by problems which required his extensive knowledge and experience to solve and stretched his understanding of the field. Charles was known for his expertise and integrity in the field of appraisals and was many times called upon as a witness in legal proceedings. Even as his health declined, barely able to lift himself from his chair, he spent three hours undergoing intense cross examination in a trial. Charles was very proud of his contributions that helped solve many complex legal cases. Charles was active in several community organizations. He was a member of the Heart of the Ozarks Sertoma and a past member of the Cooperative Sertoma. The same attention to detail in his professional life was evident in his love of working with wood. His work combined the skill of a craftsman and the creativity of an artist. The beauty of his work is evident to family and friends. His love of work and craftsmanship paled when compared to his love for his wife, Vicki, whom he married on Nov. 13, 1987. She was his "everything" in life; as his best friends and confidant, she encouraged, loved and strengthened him. In health and sickness, she was by his side taking care of his every need, and for that his love for her was magnified. Charles is survived by his wife, Vicki; three children, Juanita Crow and her husband Dwight of Clever, Mo., Belinda Henson and her husband Mark of Pierce City, Mo., and Edward Crowley and his wife, Terri, of Lexington, Ky.; three stepchildren, Rick Gregg and his wife, Jenny, of Nixa, Mo., Rebecca Sawyer and her husband, Emmett, of Brookline Station, Mo., and Debbie Bersano and her husband, Larry, of Lexington, Mo.; and two sisters, Esther White of Picayune, Miss., and Nina McFadden of Springfield, Mo. He is also survived by eight grandchildren, Brandon, Justin and Tanner Gilmore; Eric and Katherine Crowley; and Taylor, Meghan and Shelbie Henson. He also had fifteen step grandchildren and five step great-grandchildren. Charles was a remarkable and dignified man with a wonderful sense of humor. He helped others even when it meant sacrificing his own personal goals. He quietly displayed strength, courage and wisdom to all who knew him. His memorial service will be held on Dec. 20, 2003, at 10 a.m. at the Brentwood Christian Church, 1900 E. Baratavia, Springfield, MO 65804. The Reverend Phillip T. Snider will officiate. The body was cremated at Charles' request. The family requests that in lieu of flowers, donations be made to the Brentwood Christian Church or the Boys and Girls Club of Springfield, Mo. Henry F. Davis died at his home in Ozark at 5:30 p.m. Thursday, September 5, 1918, aged 72 years, 11 months and 22 days. Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at the Presbyterian church, conducted by Rev. Halle Glanville and at the cemetery by the I. O.O. F. and Rebekah Lodges of Ozark, of which he had long been a prominent member, with interment in the city cemetery. Henry Ford Davis was born in Woodfield, Ohio September 13, 1845. There he grew to manhood and in 1863, entered the service of his country in the civil war. After being honorably discharged, he returned to Woodfield, where he taught several terms of school. In 1867, he took the western fever and came to Springfield, Mo. On February 23d, he married Harriet D. Robinson, one of his former pupils. To this union, four children were born, viz, Estella, Cora, Harvey and Elsie. Cora died at the age of 4 years. Harvey died in Ozark at the age of 17 years, The other two, Mrs. Stella Ball and Mrs. Elsie Moore are still living and reside at Cassidy. He was converted in his early married life and has been a member of the Methodist Protestant Church of Cassidy. Mr. Davis was one of our foremost progressive citizens, always taking a lively interest in the welfare of the community in which he lived and universally on the right side on public questions that affected to up building of his surroundings. He became a member of the Finley Lodge of I.O.O. F January 20, 1893 and has been a loyal contributing member for over 25 years and has been a member of the Rebekah Lodge from the time of its organization. Mr. Davis had been in failing health for more than a year and since early spring, he had been slowly but gradually sinking, for the last three weeks before his death, his falling was rapid. He fully realized his condition and calmly transacted his business. His only expressed regret was that he could not live to see the successful end of the war. In his death, Ozark and Christian County have lost one of their best citizens and the family have the deepest sympathy of their many friends.

PLANE CRASH KILLS SIX

Photo and Caption: Dennis Clinton, Coroner Dean Adams and Sheriff Buff Lamb discuss the plane crash near Boaz, west of Nixa, last Saturday which killed all six occupants.

Icing was blamed for the mishap.

A twin engine plane from Battlecreek, Michigan crashed near Boaz, between Nixa and Clever Saturday, killing all six passengers. The plane hit the edge of a field and skidded into the timber. a two-foot deep hole in the ground where the plane first hit was evidence of the tremendous impact of the crash. FAA Investigations were summoned from Kansas City. Weather was too bad to fly, so the trip was made by car, arriving late Saturday night. A local farmer, George Wright. saw the plane just before the crash. He said the plane was in serious trouble and was weaving back and forth badly, and the engine was "sputtering". This happened about 2:30 Saturday afternoon. Because the FAA officials were delayed, they allowed the bodies to be removed. Christian County Coroner Dean Dams identified the bodies as: Rev. Robert Brizendine, 46, his wife, Edith Mae, 42, Dexter, Michigan, Robert L. Sweezie, 42, his wife, C. Elizabeth, 39, from Hickory Corner, Mich., Terry DeVries, 40 and his wife, Lois Jane, 40 from Portage, Mich. An air controller at Kalamazoo, Mich, FAA said the plane left its Battle Creek base Friday and was on a flight plan to Joplin and was later to fly to Miami. A spokesman for the Joplin control tower said the aircraft left the airport Saturday in what he termed "bad weather." An air controller at Springfield Municipal Airport said the radar facility there had radio contact with the pilot who said he was headed back to Springfield because of ice buildup on the plane's wings. Authorities at the scene said the wings were covered with a half inch of sleet and ice. Debris from the white and green plane was confined to a small radius. One occupant of the plane, a man,. was thrown clear, but the other bodied remained buried in the rubble. Attendants from Meadors Ambulance Service, Republic, extricated the bodies. They were later taken to Adams Funeral Home in Ozark.

No charges to be filed against deputies in fatal shooting

News-Leader

The Dec. 26 fatal shooting of a Springfield man at a Nixa mobile home park by Christian County Sheriff's Department deputies was justified, Christian County Prosecutor Ron Cleek said today. No charges will be brought against the deputies in the death of Mike Digiuseppe, 53, Cleek said. Three deputies had responded to reports of an intruder at a residence in the 4400 block of North Fremont Road. Officers reportedly found Digiuseppe in the home holding a gun and threatening a woman who lived there. A deputy ordered him to drop the gun at least twice. Instead, Digiuseppe started to point it at the deputy, Cleek said. The deputy fired twice. One shot missed and the second struck Digiuseppe in the abdomen. The deputies were placed on administrative leave pending the results of an investigation. Forensics tests and autopsy reports have not been finalized, but Cleek said the deputies should be allowed to return to active duty.

[Note: Daughter of Charley & Josephine Hodges; married 1 Jun 1941 Rev. Leroy Duke]

Rev. Kathaleen F. Duke, beloved wife of Rev. Leroy of Nixa, Mo., was a faithful minister, minister's wife, mother, grandmother and great grandmother. She was born in Joplin, Mo., to Charley and Josephine Hodges on May 12, 1923, and went home to be with her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ on the 26th day of December, 2003, at 1:40 a.m. in Mercy Villa, at the age of 80 years, 7 months and 14 days. Diana Duke stayed by her side to the end. She served in the ministry faithfully by the side of her beloved husband of almost 63 years as a very talented pianist, organist and accordion player as she played in all of the churches they pastored together. They sang together in pastoral and evangelistic work for those years in song services, altar services and special ministries, both for her husband and those who needed her services and talents. She and her husband built three churches. They pastored in Crane (their first church after being married), and Duenweg, Mo. (where they pastored twice and built the present church building). Upon the second pastoral term in Duenweg, they built Sunday school rooms onto the church as well as rest rooms, etc. They built Central Assembly of God in Denver, Colo., where they pastored for almost 15 years. They also pastored in Bakersfield, Calif. at the Panama Lane Assembly, then went on to pastor in Encinita, Calif. They held tent and auditorium crusades with deliverance and healing meetings and saw great success in Missouri, Oklahoma, Kansas, California, Arizona, Oregon, Alabama, Indiana and many other places. They traveled together to Canada, Mexico and the Hawaiian Islands as well as 19 overseas tours to Israel, Egypt, Syria, Lebanon, Jordan, Greece, Italy, Austria, Germany, England, among other countries. Kathaleen ministered to 325 children weekly in project housing in Denver for several years and had a tremendous children's and youth ministry, as well as teaching, preaching, conducting daily vacation Bible schools, serving as Sunday school superintendent, visiting the sick, shut-ins and absentees and praying for them, all with great results in her ministry. She was very active to the end of her life, sending out cards and letters to the sick, as well as birthday and anniversary cards and letters by the multiplied hundreds even after she suffered a stroke in 1989 and was paralyzed on the left side for almost 15 years. She never missed a day sending out her letters and cards until the day she went to the hospital before her homegoing. Kathaleen and Leroy were married in Joplin, Mo., on June 1, 1941, at the First Assembly of God Church by Pastor S.K. Biffle. Kathaleen and her husband were a very loving couple and very devoted to each other and were deeply in love. They were sweethearts and lovers to the end, and they will meet and be together in heaven. Her sons Paul K. Duke and Leroy Duke Jr., along with her beloved husband, miss her greatly as well as her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She was a dedicated, Godly Christian wife, mother and prayer warrior, and a very hard worker in both church and home; she was always a very sweet, wonderful person. She has three sons, LeRoy Duke Jr. of Springfield, Paul K. Duke of Topeka, Kan., and the eldest, David Duke of Republic, Mo.; seven grandchildren, Randy Duke of Phoenix, Ariz., Debbi Hunsaker of Nixa, Mo., Heather Duke of Topeka, Kan., Ashley Hunstead of Topeka, Heidi Bowman of Manteca, Calif., Tammy Burke of Sacramento, Calif., and Donald Duke of California; 11 great-grandchildren; and a great host of friends who loved her. She is also survived by her brother, Charles Hodges of League City, Texas, and a sister, Delores Tingle of Joplin, Mo. She wanted to give many thanks to her church family for the visits and prayers over the weeks of her hospital stay. She wanted to give special appreciation to her doctor, Richard Honderick for his care and special considerations. She will be greatly missed, but never forgotten by those in the places where she and Leroy pastored and ministered for 62 years together. Bless you all. The day will come when we shall join her in heaven and will all be together again forever and ever. Funeral services will be at Greenlawn Funeral Home North on Wednesday, Dec. 31, 2003, at 10 a.m. with Rev. Jack Moore and Rev. John Anavelly officiating. Frank Edwards, 88, well-liked political figure of Christian county, died at his home near Nixa Sunday after a long illness. Mr. Edwards suffered a stroke nearly two years ago, and while the brightness of his mind seemed unimpaired, he never recovered. His friends at the county seat, where from 1895 until 1907 he served as recorder of deeds, remember him as a pleasant personality, interested in people, with a talent for lilting jingles with a core of idea; and although a good politician, never less than efficient in the position he filled. In his later years, especially, he derived pleasure from the interplay of personalities in politics, and hoped to live to see another presidential election. He claimed to have been the last man alive who was among those officially admitted to the execution of the three Bald Knobbers at Ozark in the late 80's. Among other public positions, Mr. Edwards held the post of deputy to Sheriff G. A. Johnson from 1884 to 1889. And so late as 1947-8 he served a term as associate county judge for the western district. Tom Crain of Ozark was county representative in the state legislature for two terms 1929-32; and he remembers Mr. Edwards then as chief clerk for the lower house. He later served for a time as guard in the state treasurer's office, followed by a period as state oil inspector. Survivors include his widow, Hester Hedgpeth Edwards; a daughter, Mrs. Amos Kinsley of Little Rock, by his first marriage to Flo Keltner; a daughter, Mrs. Howard Davis of Springfield; and a son, Byron, of the home, by his second marriage; and a sister, Miss Cordelia Edwards of Springfield. Funeral services were conducted Tuesday afternoon in the Nixa Christian Church by the Rev. Roscoe Harding. Burial was made in Payne cemetery under direction of Harris of Nixa.

He graduated from Central High School in Springfield, in 1958, and shortly thereafter enlisted in the U.S. Navy. He quickly advanced in the electronics engineering area, holding the highest test scores at the Great Lakes Naval Training Facility for over 20 years and becoming an instructor there at a very young age. He then became involved in nuclear propulsion and worked at several naval nuclear facilities as well as on nuclear aircraft carriers, destroyers and submarines. He was part of a history-making nonstop cruise around the world using nuclear propulsion. His career led him on several around-the-world tours and took him and his family to New York, South Carolina, California, Hawaii, and back to Missouri. After his retirement from the Navy, he built and remodeled homes and had a passion for woodworking. He was always a health and fitness enthusiast, avid runner and bicyclist. [Note: Daughter of Samuel A. & Sarah Perinza (Woody) Elkins; married 5 Nov 1888 Dr. Cullen Bryant Elkins 1 Jun 1862 - 25 Feb 1947]

The funeral of Mrs. Alice Flagg Elkins, 77, widow of Dr. C.B. Elkins, 804 South Pickwick, who died at St. John's hospital last Monday night, was held Wednesday afternoon in the Alma Lohmeyer chapel at 2 o'clock, her pastor, the Reverend Clayton Potter, officiating. Pallbearers were Ward Adams, Herbert Rogers, Clark Howell, Neil Gray, Vern Dillon, and John Clark. Burial was in Hazelwood cemetery. Mrs. Elkins was one of the city's most widely known women and universally liked for her cheerful and friendly temperament. For years she was one of the outstanding leaders in local Democratic politics—one time president of the Green County Women's Democratic club, a longtime committeewoman, and invariably a judge in the first ward in every election, even this year's primary. She probably "inherited" her interest in politics from her husband, an active Democratic leader who was one-time secretary of the state committee and secretary of the state board of health and under Governor A.M. Dockery was resident physician at the state penitentiary. Mrs. Elkins also was a longtime active member and onetime president of the Kurean Society of the South Street Christian church, where she had been a member ever since coming to Springfield in 1905. She also was both active and popular socially—and indeed, her last activity was to attend a dinner party at the Frisco Saturday night and to spend the rest of the evening with friends. She went home around midnight after making arrangements to meet her friends the next morning again. When they called Sunday morning and received no answer, they called her son, Ralph Elkins. He was not at home, but Mrs. Elkins went immediately to her mother-in-law's home, found her unconscious. She was taken at once to St. John's, where she died Monday night. Cause of her death possibly was a stroke of some sort. In spite of her interests, animation, and persistent activity, Mrs. Elkins actually had not been in good health for many years; but few people realized it because of her refusal to give in to her ailments. Mrs. Elkins was born near Rogersville, Mo. Oct. 5, 1870, the daughter of a Union officer, Captain Flagg. She married Dr. Elkins at 17, and they lived at Ozark, Mo., until his appointment by Gov. Dockery took them to Jefferson City in 1900. At the end of the term, they moved to Springfield. Dr. Elkins died in February of last year. Mrs. Elkins was first president of the Women's Auxiliary of the Greene County Medical Society. Surviving her are two sons, Dr. Ronald Elkins and Ralph Elkins, both of Springfield; one sister, Mrs. Lillian McStay, of Riverside, Cal., and three grandchildren. — Springfield Leader and Press.

Ellingsworth, Robert E. 29 Dec 1838 - 8 Jun 1905

"The Billings Times", Billings, MO., Thursday June 15, 1905 copied this story. The original story was carried in Ozark Democrat on June 9, 1905.

Suicide—Robert ELLINGSWORTH, a well known farmer living west of Highlandville committed suicide about one o'clock yesterday afternoon. By shooting himself. Nothing could be learned as to the cause of the act. Mr. ELLINGSWORTH was about 65 years old and leaves a large family. Corner YOACHUM being out of the county, arrangements are being made as we go to press to have an inquest held by a justice of the peace Ozark Democrat, June 9th.

(Robert had previously been in a farming accident, and was crippled. It was assumed that the suicide was because he could no longer work his farm, this from a grandson that was at the farm when it happened. He had done this by sitting back up against a tree, and pushing the trigger of a rifle, with a stick, aimed at his head—Jim Cochran)

[Note: Son of Clair & Pearl Engel; married Dyann]

In Loving Memory Of Jack L. Engel "A light from the family has gone, a voice we loved is stilled, a place is vacant in the home which can never be filled. We have to mourn the loss of one we would've loved to keep, but God who surely loved him best has finally made him sleep." Jack L. Engel, beloved husband, father, step-father, grandfather, great-grandfather, and friend went home to his Lord, Sunday, December 4, 2005, in his home in Fremont Hills, Missouri, surrounded by his family. He was 82 years old. Jack was born on September 20, 1923, in Daytona Beach, Florida, the son of the late Clair Engel and Pearl (Engel) Murphy. He was preceded in death by a daughter, Sheila, and a sister, Arlene Stoven. He is survived by his loving wife, Dyann; son, Eric and wife, Lisa, Bruner; stepson, Scott Garrett and wife, Deborah, Aurora; step-daughter, Deanna Smith and husband, John, Peculiar; a stepdaughter, Julie Glennon, Springfield; grandchildren, Bryan Engel and wife, Juli, Santa Tressa, New Mexico; Jason Engel and wife, Tina, Vandalia, Illinois; Jennifer Engel, Ozark; Hannah Engel, Navarre, Florida; step-grandchildren, Tony and Cayla Parry, Peculiar; Zackhairy Garrett, Aurora, Mo.; Erin and Todd Tatum, Springfield; six wonderful great-grandchildren, a girl and five boys; and brothers, Arthur "Bud" Engel, Clever, and Bill Murphy and wife, Betty, Auburn, Washington. Peace to my sweet husband. Jack was a well known restaurateur at Riverside Inn in Ozark. Wherever he went people would remember him and many times would say, "He would always make you feel like you were his only customer in a room of many." He treated people with grace and humility. A gallant and distinguished gentleman. Jack was also a developer and partner of many subdivisions: In Ozark, Old Engelwood, Engelwood, Bingham Heights and Fremont Hills Towne Centre; in Nixa, Mapledale Subdivision, Detroit Theater, Nixa Village Center North (City Hall) and Nixa Village Center South (St. Johns); in Rogersville, Johnson Heights; and Springfield, Airport East. But his favorite was Fremont Hills. What was once a cornfield and pasture is now a beautiful city and 18 hole golf course. He always said, "The smell of earth turning and see the land turn into something beautiful was a joy." Jack moved to Ozark from Traverse City, Michigan, as a boy of 12. Before high school he built furnace fires in the early mornings for many businesses on the square of Ozark. To make extra money, he would set traps for rabbits and other small animals then sell their skins to Tom Bingham. He started working at Riverside when he was in high school, sleeping on a cot and eating Mary Ellen Marley's fried chicken wings for breakfast before going to school. His work ethic started early and stayed with him all his life. He taught many young people by his example, how to work and apply themselves to their future lives. If his illness had not taken away his health, he would have worked until the Lord took him. Jack just wanted to go home, he was so tired. Jack was an elder in the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter Day Saints and traveled many miles through Missouri and Arkansas holding services and teaching Sunday School for many years. He will always be loved and missed by his wife and family. We have lost a great man, but always remember, forget the things that made you sad, but never forget to remember the things that made you glad. "Do not stand at my grave and weep; I am not there, I do not sleep. I am the thousand winds that blow. I am the diamond glints on snow. I am the sunlight on ripened grain. I am the gentle autumn rain. When you awaken in the morning's hush I am the swift uplifting rush of quiet birds in circled flight. I am the soft stars that shine at night. Do not stand at my grave and cry: I am not there, I did not die." Funeral services will be at 2 p.m.

Wednesday, December 7, 2005, in Adams Funeral Home, Ozark, Missouri. Burial will follow in Hopedale Cemetery, Ozark, Mo. Viewing will begin Tuesday at noon. The family will receive friends from 6 to 8 p.m. Tuesday, in the funeral home. In lieu of flowers, donations may be given to Community Hospices of America or the Parkinson Foundation.

An icon. The one person who knew more about Ozark than anyone else. The one person who cared more about Ozark than anyone else. Those were just some of the comments made by friends of Mary Lou Erhart, retired Ozark city clerk, who died suddenly Aug. 10. Mayor Donna McQuay said she fielded the same question over again when folks called to express their regret and sympathy: Did Mary Lou ever get her trip to Hawaii? No, McQuay said. "She didn't. But if I know Mary Lou she is up there in Heaven with her own island and with Kenny and she's in charge. It was something she always wanted to do. We had our own little luau party at the community building when she retired." Erhart often talked about going to Hawaii, McQuay said. But living life got in the way of that dream. Former mayor Neal Grubaugh remembers Erhart and that dream. "She always wanted to go Hawaii," he said. "But she was always on the go with her grandkids-she didn't have time to go to Hawaii." Erhart became city clerk in 1982 and retired in 1999. During those 17 years she kept the city running through different mayoral administrations, ran a household and buried her husband. "Her husband, Kenny, developed cancer," Grubaugh said. "She took care of her job and of him and never missed a beat." Grubaugh, who was mayor from 1983 to 1991 said Erhart combined honesty with loyalty-qualities that endeared her to the Ozark community. "I think she was a very loyal person-to her job, to the community and to me as mayor," he said. "She was city clerk the whole time I was there. Nobody is any better than the people working for them. If I was any good at all, it was because of her. "If she told you something that was exactly what she meant; there was never any question. She said it and that was it. She was honest and forthright with everybody. And if she made a mistake she expected to be told but she didn't make many. "I'm going to miss her-miss her a lot." Grubaugh's wife, Betty, a local political force in her own right, also remembers Erhart with fondness. "She was quite a lady," she said. "This town will certainly miss Mary Lou. There's no doubt about that. She knew what was going on in this city when no one else began to understand. She was sharp. She was Neal's very close worker when he was mayor and she has been a very dear friend to me. I feel sorry for Ozark that we've lost a friend like Mary Lou. She will be greatly missed." City Clerk Lana Calley and Treasurer Alice Edwards, reflecting through their tears, expressed their sadness at losing a friend. Mary Lou was like everybody's mother or grandma," Calley said. "Everybody really relied on her knowledge and her pep talks. I called her every once awhile for reassurance. It is like losing your mother-you're going to pick up that phone to call her and she's not going to be there." "Mary Lou was city clerk when I started," Edwards said. "She was a wonderful lady. She loved the city of Ozark and she always tried to do what was right for the city. She loved her Lord and she loved her family. I don't think a day went by when she didn't share a story about her grandchildren. She was a wonderful friend to me and I will miss her." Even after Erhart retired, she consulted for the city to keep things running smoother, McQuay said. And not only will the folks in Ozark miss Erhart but many outside the are who benefited from her kindness will miss her too. "She was here at City Hall last week," McQuay said. "She was getting ready to go on a missionary trip to Arizona. She was always involved in church work and dedicated even more time with church after she retired. Her dedication and loyalty was just overwhelming. That is hard to find in this day and age-to find someone who cares that much. There's no doubt in our mind where Mary Lou is."

This is a WONDERFUL story about Mary Lou. Ever since we became close friends with her daughter and son-in-law, Pam & John Morton, 18 years ago, Mary Lou was like my "second mom." She made AWESOME chocolate gravy, southern-fried chicken and the best potato salad in the world! My husband, Jerry, and I will miss her dearly....her memory will live on with us into eternity, when we will get to see her again!

Estes, Mary M. (Davis) 22 Mar 1852 - 20 Apr 1945

Mrs. Mary M. Estes, 93, whose memory reached beyond the Civil war, died at 9:40 o'clock this morning at the home of a son, Charles M. Estes, 734 South National, owner of Estes Farm Hatchery, where she had lived for the past eight months. A native of Jerome county, Tennessee, she had lived in the Clever community for the past 88 years, coming there with her parents when she was five years old. Her father, Wash Davis, was a Confederate Civil war soldier and a slave owner whose slaves remained with him after the war even though they were free to leave. Many years after the war, one of the slaves, old Jenny, came to see her master's daughter when Mrs. Estes herself had grown daughters. Her childhood home was a half-mile south and a mile west of the Old Wire road, which ran through the present town of Clever. At that time Springfield was the nearest trading point. Being born in 1852, she was old enough during the Civil war to have had vivid recollections of happenings of that time and many times recalled the battle of Wilson's Creek, which fought so near their home that they could hear the noise of the firing. "The noise of the battle was terrific," she used to say. "I never witnessed such a night in all my life. It was awful." She remembered the days when nobody thought of raising chickens or turkeys because of the great numbers of them growing in the wild, which could be had for the shooting, and whose eggs could be had for the gathering. Deer were plentiful in those days and several deer licks were on her father's farm. They raised their own wool, had it taken to a carding mill and then spun it into yarn which they wove into coverlets (coverlids in those days). The Estes family still has one of the coverlets and at least one of the looms. Mrs. Estes is survived by four sons, Charles M., at whose home she died, J. E. Estes, banker at Clever; J. A. Estes, route 2, and W. A. Estes, Logan, Mo.; and two daughters, Mrs. Perlina Cloud, 548 East Elm, and Mrs. Ella Blades, San Francisco. Her husband, J. Wiley Estes, died 22 years ago at Clever, where they owned and operated a large farm. Funeral arrangements are incomplete but services will be held in the Methodist church at Clever where she had had her membership for many years. Maples of Clever is in charge. Contributed by Dan Spellman.
