Lucile was born April 13, 1902, in Walnut Grove, to Richard and Minnie Morgan. Her love for learning and teaching began at an early age. After graduating from Fair Play High School in 1918, she began teaching in a rural Polk County school. Her career brought her to Billings High School and back to Fair Play in the early 1920s, where she taught English and social studies. An excellent student herself, Lucile graduated Cum Laude from Southwest Missouri State in 1960 with a bachelor's degree in education. After marrying George in 1924, Lucile resided on the Napper Farm at Billings and raised five children. In 1955, she returned to teaching and spent 17 fulfilling years educating students at Republic High School. She received the ultimate honor for her dedication to teaching, the Missouri Pioneer Teacher Award in 2000. The secret to Mim's longevity grew from her passion for reading, traveling and family. From the waters lifted me, Now safe am I.

Peggy Ruth Noe, Spokane, Missouri, went to be with our Lord on Monday, October 9, 2000 at the age of 66 years and 4 days. She was born on October 5, 1934 and from an early age, always expressed a desire to help and give herself to others. That desire led her to her early graduation from high school after which she received a special permission from the Missouri State Board of Nursing to enter training to become a registered nurse at the age of 16 years old. Peggy devoted the next 47 years of her life doing what she loved most, nursing. That same dedication and devotion was not only spent in her career as a registered nurse, but also displayed by her in personal interactions with friends and family. Her unwavering and unfaltering dedication, compassion, patience, generosity and unselfishness were felt by all who had the opportunity to meet her, either professionally or in her personal life. On June 20, 1954, Peggy married her husband, Leroy Noe, and they shared the next 46 years together, both the good times and the bad, each drawing strength from the other. Family was very important to both Peggy and Leroy and they decided to adopt two children, a son in 1961 and a daughter in 1965. Peggy endeavored to instill in her two children the good Christian values she held so dear. For those beliefs, her children will be eternally grateful. In 1986, Peggy was blessed with her first grandchild, who was the joy of her life. Peggy was welcomed to the gates of Heaven by many of her family and friends who preceded her in death, with her grandparents, Fred and Meda McCauley, and her stepfather Harold Holt, being among the first to welcome her. Truck Overturns; Former Nixa Man Killed in Crash

Gerald Dee Nokes, 21, of Williams, Calif., formerly of Nixa, was killed instantly, early Thursday night, August 10, when the truck he was driving went out of control on the Lone Star Road near Colusa, Calif. and overturned. Coroner Howard H. Moore said Nokes apparently was thrown from the truck, an old vehicle converted for use as a road oil spreader, and it rolled over him. The accident occurred about 5 p.m. approximately a half mile south of the Myers Road intersection, about 10 miles southwest of Colusa. Moore said investigators were at a loss to determine what caused the accident. He said the truck, which was northbound, veered off the west side of the road at an angle of about 10 degrees, struck a ditch bank, swung partially around and rolled over in a field after knocking down a fence. The truck traveled for a distance of about 165 feet from the point where it left the county road to the place where it came to rest in the field. Moore said the truck had no mechanical defects that were immediately apparent. He said an autopsy was performed on the victim, but it did not shed any light on the cause of the accident.

A witness to the accident. Paul Ogletree of Arbuckle told the investigators that the truck appeared to be going along the side of the road as if Nokes intended to make a left turn, then he saw the vehicle overturn and a cloud of dust shot up from the crash scene.

Nokes, who was employed by the Cortina Rock Products Company, was driving to Colusa from Arbuckle where he had been working. Funeral services for Nokes were held in the McNary Memorial Chapel at Williams, Calif. at 2 p.m. Saturday, August 12. short illness. He was 75. Born and reared in the Hopedale community north of Ozark, Mr. Patterson spent his life there, a participating and useful member in all neighborhood activities whose influence spread through county and state. Just 31 years ago this month he and a number of his neighbors met in Hopedale Baptist church, the community center, and organized the Christian County unit of MFA. A couple of years later he was elected president of the board of directors and held that office until his death. He was also a member of the board of the MFA Milling Co., the Producers Produce Co., and the State Board of MFA. Most of his early associates in MFA preceded Mr. Patterson in death, among them names such as Chapman, Green, Estes, Lane, Smith. So far as Clarence Whittington, manager of the Ozark Farmers Exchange, can recall, only Matt Shelton and Haywood Fielden of Hopedale remain of the original group. Long a member of the Hopedale Baptist church, Mr. Patterson was a deacon at the time of his death. Those who were associated with him through the years feel that in Mr. Patterson they have lost a friend. Mr. Whittington, who has been connected with the Ozark Exchange for the past 27 years, states that in all the time he had never, regardless of the difficulties, seen Mr. Patterson in an angry or unreasonable mood. He was known to all as a pleasant personality, conscientious in all his business and social dealings. Following Nixa Shooting

Truck Driver Facing Two Murder Counts.

What started as a disturbance at a mobile home park north of Nixa last Saturday afternoon ended with two persons dead and a third facing two counts of first degree murder. Before the incident was over, a woman and a man said to be her boyfriend were shot to death by the woman's estranged husband. Victims of the shooting were identified as Elizabeth Ann Hartsgrove, 37, mother of five and Racy Askin Paugh, 47, both formerly from Massachusetts. Arrested at the scene by Christian County Sheriff Joe Mayberry and later charged with two counts of murder by Assistant Prosecutor Joe Crain was Clifton Hartsgrove, 48, husband of the dead woman. Sheriff Mayberry reported that the shootings took place in the presence of the woman's five children ages 4 to 10 years. Four of the children were Hartgroves' and one by a previous marriage. Sheriff Mayberry said that he was called to the scene by neighbors who reported a disturbance, but upon arrival found that both victims were dead and Hartsgrove present. The sheriff upon entering the trailer met Hartsgrove in a hallway who, according to the sheriff, said, "Don't shoot. it's all over." Mayberry said Hartsgrove offered no resistance and told the children to "go in and tell you mother good-bye." Coroner Dean Adams reported that Hartsgrove said he came here four days ago from Ohio where he and Paugh were truck drivers. Paugh and Mrs. Hartsgrove had reportedly lived here for two or three months. Sheriff Mayberry said that both victims had apparently been beaten prior to the shooting, resulting in the reported disturbance. Mrs. Hartsgrove was shot once in the chest with a .38 cal. pistol and Paugh three times in the chest and back. The victims' bodies were taken to Adams Funeral Home pending later arrangements. Hartsgrove was taken before Magistrate Judge Claude Boone who scheduled his preliminary hearing for Oct. 30. Hartsgrove is being held in Christian County jail without bond.

Pfander, Burl Zack, DVM 22 May 1926 - 15 Aug 2003 CCH-N 27 Aug 2003 & SN-L 17 Aug 2003

[Note: Son of John L. & Grace Pfander; married Reba M. Lanz]

Dr. Burl Zack Pfander, DVM, answered his last call on Aug. 15, 2003, at 3:30 p.m. This is so in line with his character, as he would never retire at night before he knew every "ill" animal he was responsible for was treated to the best of his ability. Pfander arrived on this planet on May 22, 1926, the son of John L. and Grace Pfander, who then lived in Jasper. The Pfander family moved to a dairy farm in Barton County in the summer of 1940. Pfander graduated from Liberal High School in 1944 and was immediately drafted into the U.S. Army. When he returned home from World War II, he enrolled at the University of Missouri-Columbia in pre-veterinary medicine. Pfander graduated from the University of Missouri-Columbia in 1952 with a Bachelor Degree in Agriculture and as a Doctor of Veterinary Medicine. Pfander opened his first practice at 1750 S. Campbell in Springfield under the name of "Cottage Veterinary Hospital." Now, 51 years later, the hospital is still an active practice under the ownership of Pfander's son Dr. Michael B. Pfander. On Sept. 5, 1948, Burl was united in marriage to Reba M. Lanz who survives him. He was a lifetime member of both the American Veterinary Medical Association and the Missouri Veterinary Medical Association. He was an associate member of the American Animal Hospital Association, the Southwest Missouri Veterinary Medical Association, the Veterans of Foreign War, and the American Legion. Pfander also served on the Board and was an active volunteer in the Nixa Sucker Day celebrations for many years. He was a member of James River Chapel Church of Christ.

In December 2001, Burl was honored as an inductee into the Missouri Hereford Association "Hall of Fame." Pfander is survived by his wife of 55 years, Reba; one son, Dr. Michael B. Pfander and his wife Jeanne; one granddaughter, Meghan M. Pfander, "who was the treasure of his life;" and a special young lady that he loved as a daughter, Cindy B. (Gullett) Reed and her husband Steve. Other survivors include several nieces and nephews, who have been a constant joy to him, each of whom he loved dearly; four sister-in-laws, Marie Banwart and her husband Floyd, Maurine Lanz and Jean Pfander, all of Lamar, and Becky Pfander of Wanwatosa, Wis.; as well as Michael's mother-in-law, Lynn Cooper and father-in-law Tom Cooper, both of Columbia. He was preceded in death by his parents; three brothers; Reba's parents Fred L. and Emma Lanz; and his two very special brothers-in-law, Wallace N. Lanz and Calvin A. Lanz. Pfander will be greatly missed by his family, his friends, clients and all the young people whose lives he touched. A very special thanks to everyone for the prayers, love and concern that was given to him through his journey these last few months during his gallant fight with cancer. To our neighbors, to our church, to all our clients and friends who have always been there for us. To Dr. Richard Cunningham and staff, to Dr. Gary Hoos and staff, to Dr. Gary Geir and staff, to Dr. Michael Albritton and staff, and a special thank you to "Home Sweet Homecare" and their dedicated caregivers. It is because of their tender love and care, that it was possible for him to remain at home with his family. The family has requested that donations be made in Pfander's name to the Clever High School Band Booster Club, Clever, Mo., 65631; the Missouri Junior Hereford Association, in care of Jessica McConnell, 11524 W. FR 108, Republic, Mo., 65738; or to the Shriner's Children's Hospital, 601 F. St. Louis Street, Springfield, Mo., 65806. "With his eyes focused on his Shepherd, Dr. Pfander is just changing pastures". From Dewey Short: "What is the measure of a Man? The true worth of a man is his unselfishness, the way he lives his life among his fellow man; judged by the standards of loyalty, honesty and decency. Dr. Burl Pfander lived the simple life he loved, by practicing veterinary medicine in the 'Ozark Hills' among the people that he loved. He led no armies to battle, but remained with his regiment on the front lines in World War II, in the European theatre under General Patton. He was no great captain of industry and he did not write his name across the stars. But, he left his mark in the hearts of his fellow man, both young and old, with his quiet Christian manner, and his common way of life in the Ozark Hills. He preferred his life born, reared and educated in Missouri with his active mind and keen intellect. He believed strongly in education and established several scholarships for young people in Missouri." A celebration of Pfander's life was held at Adams Funeral Home, Nixa, at 11 a.m. Aug. 19 with the Rev. William A. "Bill" Moore, Chaplain of the Abou Ben Adhem Shrine officiating. Burial was at 1 p.m. in Missouri Veterans Cemetery with military honors. "Rest In Peace My Beloved Husband and Friend. You were and will always be the Wind Beneath My Wings". ©Ozarks Newsstand 2003

Pierson, Joseph B. 5 Jan 1885 - 26 Sep 1967 CCR 28 Sep 1967 p1

J. B. Pierson Dies: Noted Editor and Industrialist.

Joseph B. Pierson, Route 2, Ozark, a retired newspaperman who was the publisher of the Army edition of the Chicago Tribune in Paris in 1917, died at 3:15 a.m. Tuesday in Springfield Baptist Hospital where he had been a patient 44 days. Mr. Pierson, 82, had been a reporter, editor and published for numerous newspapers and had served as president for several large manufacturing firms. He had resided near Ozark since retiring to Missouri in 1950. Mr. Pierson retired from executive positions with major manufacturing and publishing companies at least three times before his final retirement in January, 1963, on his 78th birthday. At that time, he was chairman of the board and chief executive of Cherokee Laboratories, Inc., Tulsa, Longview and Lufkin, Texas, and four affiliated companies. He joined the Chicago Tribune in 1912 and was on the staff of the home edition when he was transferred to Paris to establish the Army edition. He was associated with the newspaper for 25 years. A graduate of Illinois Wesleyan University in 1905, Mr. Pierson was prominent in the national social fraternity, Tau Kappa Epsilon, being the first initiate in 1902. He is credited with originating the name of the fraternity previously called Knights of Classic Lore. Pierson began his newspaper career on the staff of a small grocers' market paper - a weekly publication. From it, he turned to the establishment of the Eastland County Bulletin at Eastland, Texas and quickly absorbed the only competitor, The Chronicle. Pierson then began his long climb in the newspaper business, advancing from one newspaper to another until he eventually "found his place" with the Tribune Newspapers on which he served include the Cisco Round Up, Cisco, Texas; Portland Oregonian; Seattle Times; the Butte Miner; Crookston Journal, Crookston, Minn.; the Winnipeg Free Press; St. Paul Pioneer Press and Toronto Globe. After five years on the Chicago Tribune, when he also served as the Chicago correspondent for the New York World, Pierson was named by Col. Robert K. McCormick, publisher of the Tribune, to go to Europe to establish the only newspaper up to that time for the American Army which was pouring troops into France by the thousands. The paper was to be established so that American soldiers might get "the American point of view." Founding a newspaper was a monumental task during wartime. Pierson bucked paper shortages, labor shortages, and censorship to establish the paper "with a few lead pencils and a Tribune bankroll." Using an interpreter, he started the paper with 1,000 copies, printed in a dingy print shop he had purchased. By Armistice Day, Mr. Pierson and his small staff were getting out 100,000 copies. The Tribune spent $100,000 on the paper before it began to pay its own way. In January 1919, two months after the armistice, the paper turned over its profits of more than $21,000 to the army for soldier welfare purposes. In 1922, Pierson set up the first amateur radio receiving station at Halifax, Nova Scotia, later becoming the head of Press Wireless, which made the first radio press communication across the seas. All news media had access to the service. In 1944, Pierson resigned from Press Wireless to become vice president and director of Raytheon Manufacturing Company of Waltham and Boston, Mass. In 1948, he became managing partner in three family-owned distributing companies in California. In the late 1930's, Mr. Pierson acquired 4,000 acres in Douglas County. He did extensive building, all from native stone and wood. One building, because of its architecture, became known as "the castle". In 1950, when his plans for development failed to materialize, he made a gift of the ranch to the Trappist Monks, thus establishing a new way of life in this part of the Ozarks and preserving for posterity his original ideas that what he had built would not be changed. Another colorful picture had been added to Mr. Pierson's career. Mr. Pierson was a native of Watseka, Ill.; a Mason, and member of the Overland Press Club. He was well-known by prominent leaders of several countries. Surviving are his wife, Ruby; three sons, Frank, Glenview, Ill., Tom, Chicago, and Homer, Staten Isle, N.Y.; three daughters, Mrs. Robert Denney, Longview, Texas and Mrs. Catherine E. Golden and Mrs. Mary Garrick, both of Tulsa; 11 grandchildren and nine great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be at 4 p.m. today in Chapel of the Ozark with Rev. Dale Powell officiating. Burial will be in Watseka, Ill.

She's 90!

Perhaps the nation's oldest working newspaperwoman is 90 today! Mrs. Berta Mae Pile - who each week fills several column of the Republican with "personal" items about Ozark families and their comings and goings - was born May 18, 1882. She writes thousands of words of copy each week in longhand with a lead pencil - and her handwriting is so clear and legible that typesetters prefer it to typewritten copy. The editor suggested a picture to of along with this little recognition of her milestone, She said, "NO!"

TO OUR MANY FRIENDS

It is virtually impossible for us to write each family or friend that has been so near and dear to us during our time of loss. We thank God for so many friends, for every payer and kind word and for every act of kindness extended to all of us. Our sons leave us with a legacy of wonderful memories and these have been enriched by Christian love and compassion shown by so many wonderful [people. Food was prepared and brought by so many we cannot know the names of all for sure. May God richly bless all who helped in preparing the auditorium for the funeral, and those who marked the burial plots, sent flowers and gave to the scholarship and memorial fund; sent flowers and gave to the memorial and scholarship funds; also the minister, singers and those who were so helpful and thoughtful at the scene of the accident, many of whom we did not even know.

IN MEMORY OF DWAYNE PREWITT AND RON JOHNSON

Three years have gone by since that fall Sunday morning when our sons, Dwayne and Ron were killed in an accident, by an on coming car traveling in their lane, as they were coming home from church. Time hasn't made it easier, but with the grace of God., we learn to live with the hurt and loneliness and God has given us peace. A verse of scripture that Dwayne carried in his billfold has helped us and we want to share it with you, hoping it will help those who have the same hurt. Philippians Ch. 4-9: Those things which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, so; and the God of peace shall be with you.

[Note: Son of Henry Johnson & Minnie Josephine (McCoy) Raines; married 3 Jan 1942 Jacquelyn]

Jamie Raines In the early morning of March 5, 2004, Jamie Raines, 88, ended his long battle with rheumatoid arthritis. Having been wheelchair bound for the last eight years, he was able to remain in his home under the loving care of his wife of 62 years, Jacquelyn. Jamie was born on Oct. 1, 1915, in the Chadwick, Mo., area, where he grew up on the family farm. He was preceded in death by his parents, Henry and Minnie Raines, and two brothers, Ward and Glen. Jamie is survived by his "buddy," Jacquelyn, whom he married on Jan. 3, 1942; his two daughters, Pamela DeCarlis and her husband, Phil, and Deborah White and her husband, Marc, all of Springfield; grandsons Todd DeCarlis, Jeff DeCarlis and his wife, Julie, Lance Schafer, Andrew White, Mat White and his wife, Casey, Marc White and his wife, Julia; two granddaughters, Heather Schafer and Kimberly Maples and her husband, Chris; three great granddaughters; and one great-grandson. He is also survived by three sisters, Hazel Tindle of Arizona, Irma Mapes of Springfield, and Aldine Arnold of Lamar, Mo., and four nieces and two nephews. Jamie was in the US Army from July, 1941, until his discharge in July, 1945, serving as an MP in the African, Naples and Italian Campaigns of World War II. Upon discharge, he received three Bronze Stars and the Good Conduct Medal. Shortly thereafter, he and Jackie moved to Rockford, Ill., where he worked in production at National Lock Company and both of his daughters were born. Always wanting to return "home" to his folks and the southwest Missouri area he loved, they moved to Springfield in 1959 where he took a job at the Royal McBee Typewriter Company. Jamie loved to fish, and while working at Royal, made friends who introduced him to water skiing and how he could ski! He loved Table Rock Lake and spent many weekends and summer vacations there with his family boating, skiing and fishing. After retirement from Zenith, Jamie and Jackie moved to Kimberling City, where they had ten wonderful years, finding a real church family in the Kimberling City Church of Christ and making many close friends. Jamie's health condition made it necessary for them to leave the lake and move back to Springfield in 1995. He loved their home here and spent many happy hours watching the flowers, grass and tomatoes grow. He was a loyal baseball fan and the radio and television was always on when the Cardinals were playing. He also enjoyed basketball and was one of the Lady Bears' biggest fans. Three years ago, Jamie and Jackie began going to the Springfield YMCA, where he enjoyed the wheelchair class, "working out," and visiting with friends. They were members of the East Grand Church of Christ. Most of all, Jamie will be remembered for how he loved his family. Nothing made him happier than for someone to come see him and stay for lunch. He was always "Daddy" to his girls, "Pa" to his grandchildren and "Grampy Great" to his great-grandchildren and he looked forward to holiday gatherings with them all there. He will be so missed by all who loved him. Funeral services are planned for Monday, March 8, at 10 a.m. in Greenlawn South with Gordon Shields from the Kimberling City Church of Christ officiating. Burial will follow in the Missouri Veterans Cemetery where Jamie will be buried with full military honors. Visitation is from 2 to 4 p.m. today in the funeral home.

Ross C. Rainey is Victim of Tragic Tractor Accident

Crushing chest injuries were fatal Thursday afternoon for Ross Clinton Rainey, 38, of Route 1, Ozark, when he was pinned beneath his overturned tractor near his father's farm, five miles southwest of Ozark. The body was discovered by his sister-in-law, Mrs. Felix Rainey, Jr., as she drove along a brushy lane about a quarter mile east of the Felix Rainey farm. She found the victim about 6 p.m. lying on his back with his John Deere tractor overturned and the left rear wheel resting on his chest. Death is thought to have been almost instantaneous. A wrecker was summoned from Ozark to lift the tractor, and Coroner Dean Harris was summoned from Clever. Observers believe Rainey was driving along the brushy lane enroute to his home southeast of Selmore with an attached sickle bar in an upright position. It is believed that he was watching the sickle bar to keep it out of overhanging brush when the front wheels of the heavy tractor struck an oak tree at the road's edge, causing it to overturn. Rainey, a well known and energetic young farmer and a native of the Ozark community, is survived by his wife, Mrs. Thelma McGinnis Rainey, a daughter, Susan, of the home; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Felix Rainey; four brothers, Bunyard, Clifton and Junior, all of Ozark and Ralph of Nixa; and a sister, Mrs. Pad Gooch of Pomona, Calif. Funeral services in charge of the Chaffin Funeral Home at Ozark, are incomplete.

Hanks Ordered Held for Trial in Murder Case

Cecil Hankins, 29, was bound over Tuesday in Christian County Circuit Court for trial on a capital murder charge in the death last February 15 of Otis Ray whose burned body was believed to be that of Hankins, also known as Ronnie Lee Hankins. Hankins was bound over by Quentin Haden, associate Circuit Judge from Ava; and was ordered held without bond in the county jail here. Haden heard the case for Judge Sam Appleby who had disqualified himself. Prosecuting Attorney David Appleby said these were the highlights of the evidence presented in a hearing that began shortly after 9 a.m. and ended at 3:30 p.m. Chemist Don Smith of the Crime Laboratory in Springfield confirmed that gasoline had been poured in and around the burned truck in which the body was later identified as that of Otis was found. It was Bill Ramsey, then a deputy sheriff and now Ozark Police Chief, who reported the presence of what he thought was gasoline. Cecil Hankins girlfriend, Sharon Walburn, testified that in a phone call with Hankins, he told her he "might get somebody off the tracks." Otis was said to have been hanging around the tracks (railroad tracks on Springfield northside on February 15, and that he was a drinking friend of Oliver Hankins, Cecil Hankins father. There was a possibility that Oliver Hankins might be charged with hindering prosecution in the case. He was said to have failed to testify as expected, as to statements to a highway patrol that he had seen Otis Ray get into a truck with Cecil Hankins the night of the alleged slaying. Appleby said Billy Hankins, Cecil's brother and the "star witness" for the prosecution, also failed to appear Tuesday for the hearing.

Three in Hankins Family Face Charges In Killing

Criminal charges in the alleged murder of Otis Ray, 51 of Springfield now include brothers Cecil and Billy Ray Hankins and their father, Oliver, 65. Oliver and Cecil, 20, were in the Christian county jail Tuesday, Cecil without bond and Oliver after failure to post bond of $25,000. Billy Ray Hankins, 25, is a fugitive. Cecil and Billy Ray fact trial for capital murder in the alleged slaying last Feb. 15 of Otis Ray. Billy at first was charged with hindering prosecution. David Appleby, Christina County Prosecutor, says he believes both brothers could be responsible for Ray's death. The burned body found Feb. 15 was identified as that of Ray after first being ruled by a coroner's jury to be Cecil Hankins;. A perjury charge - lying under oath - was filed on Oliver Hankins following his testimony June 12 in Cecil Hankins; day-long preliminary hearing in Division II Christian County Circuit Court before Associate Judge Question Haden of Ava. Billy Ray Hankins had been expected to be the state's prime witness at the preliminary hearing, a procedure to determine if there's enough evidence to hold a defendant for trial. Appleby said officers now have no idea where the younger Hankins is. "I hope it doesn't take as long to find him as it did to find Cecil," the prosecutor said. Sheriff L. E. "Buff" Lamb said Tuesday that a lead as to Billy Hankins' whereabouts had faded by the time officers reached the spot where he was believed to be hiding.

Charlie Bell Reid was born January 21, 1869 in Marshfield, Missouri. When she was eighteen months old, she moved with her family to the Billings community where she spent the rest of a rather long life. She was married June 6, 1895 to Frank Reinbold. Jones of Monett, Missouri and Bennie, Mrs. L. G. Keith of Independence, Missouri. She was a member of the Christian Church of Billings, having professed her faith and united with the church soon after reaching the age of understanding and accountability. She passed away December 14, 1952 at her home, having reached the age of 83 years, 10 months and 23 days. She had suffered a hip fracture on November 13, but had seemed well on the road to recovery when death came rather suddenly and unexpectedly on December 14. She lived out a life of devotion to her family and consecration to her Christian faith that extended over a period of more than half a century. She lived modestly, never seeking to be spectacular in any way. Yet, to her intimate friends and to her immediate family, she was an invaluable source of inspiration and strength. Though she closed her earthly span of years and silently moved on, the old home is filled with sweet memories, and to her daughters will be sacred because their mother's sweet spirit will ever abide therein. Besides her husband and daughters, she leaves to mourn her death two granddaughters, Linda Ben Jones and Martha Reinhard Keith; three sisters-in-law, Miss Flora Reinbold, Mrs. H. V. Reid and Mrs. Lyda Denny; several cousins, nieces, nephews and close friends. Miss Flora Reinbold and Mrs. Helen Walters were with her during her last days. On Tuesday, July 11, 2006, the Don Wessel Honda "family" lost one of our own, Rick D. "Bear" Reynolds. Our sympathy extends to his wife, Kristi, his father, Les, his children Scott, Mark, Marisa and Mandy, and his grandchildren. He loved you all so much! Our sympathy also goes out to all who knew him as a loyal and trusted employee and friend during his 23 year career at Don Wessel Honda. His reputation as a world-class car salesman was only eclipsed by the integrity with which he did his job. His customers became friends and his coworkers became family. So many of you reading this know what I mean. All of us at Don Wessel Honda are so proud of our association with Rick. Our business and our lives are better because of it. He truly loved his job. Our sides split from laughing at his stories. We had to create a "Salesman of the Year" award as he repeatedly was recognized for "Salesman of the Month". We watched him nurture and raise a family. Beyond everything, he shared with us a life of fullness, passion and faith. Visitation is 6 to 8 p.m. Sunday, July 16, and services are 12:30 p.m. Monday, July 17, in Adams Funeral Home, Nixa, Mo. We'll miss you, "Bear"! That's It. The Employees, Customers and Family of Don Wessel Honda

Robison, James Monroe , Rev. 11 Jan 1931 - 9 Feb 2003

Rev. James Monroe Robison, 72, Hollister, MO, lost his valiant battle against ShyDrager Syndrome, but won the ultimate victory on Sunday, February 9, 2003, surrounded by his loving family. Monroe was born January 11, 1931 in Imperial, California to Andy and Edna Robison. After high school, he married Marie Nale, and was soon called into Christian service. He was an ordained minister with the Assemblies of God, pioneering his first church in Lakeside, Oregon. In 1959, he answered the call to overseas missionary service and was stationed in Nigeria and Ghana in West Africa. He had a passion for sharing the Word of God with nations by means of gospel literature production and distribution. His 31 years of missionary service, including ten years with Life Publishers in Miami, Florida, allowed him to fulfill his call to spread the Good News via the printed word. His enthusiasm and heart for the ministry were wonderfully reflected in the many lives he touched around the world. At the time of his second retirement, he was part of a family design and media production firm – still serving his missionary and ministry family with his unique talent and dedication. A gentle man with a ready smile, Monroe lived his faith and had a servant's heart. His living example of dignity and courage are a precious gift to all who were privileged to know him. While we call him "son, brother, husband, father, pastor, friend," the angels now call him "neighbor." He was preceded in death by his parents and son-in-law, C.R. Lucky Young. He is survived by his wife, Marie of Hollister, MO; daughter Carrie Young of Nixa, MO; sons and daughters-in-law, Jim and Dixie Robison of Alpena, AR, and Brent and Marla Robison of Branson, MO; grandchildren, Lori Young, Julie Clark, Lucky Young II, James Robison III, Matthew Robison, Andy Robison, Stephen Robison II, and Christian Robison; great-grandson, Brendon Clark; his siblings and their families, Gladys Fox, Gene Robison, LeRoy Robison, June Brand, Willard Robison, and Linda Floyd; as well as many friends and coworkers whose lives were enriched by his unfailing kindness and unconditional love. Visitation will be from 4 to 6 p.m. Friday, February 14, 2003 at Thieme-Shadel-Hicks Funeral Service at Rivermonte in Springfield. A memorial celebration will be held at James River Assembly in Ozark, MO, on Saturday, February 15, 2003 at 10 a.m. with Rev. John Lindell officiating. Rogers, Ivie Elvina (Southwick) 23 Jun 1861 - 17 Mar 1949 CCR 24 Mar 1949

[Note: Daughter of Hosea & Jerusha (Berry) Southwick; married 21 Dec 1882 John Clark Rogers d 1942]

Ivie Elvina Southwick was born June 23, 1861 near Little Cooley, PA, and died in a Springfield hospital Thursday evening, March 17, 1949. Her family came to Missouri from Pennsylvania by way of Michigan when she was in early girlhood, living at Buffalo before moving to Greene county and later to Christian county. In 1879, at the age of 18, she taught the "lower room" of the two-room Ozark public school. Professor Vance taught the upper room. There were 60 pupils in her room, which she taught two years. Twenty-eight of her pupils are still living; 13 in Ozark and Springfield. Her declining years have been heightened by an annual reunion of her former pupils, who have come to her home at Ozark from all sections of the land to associate together once more and pay tribute to the former teacher. In 1882, Ivie E. Southwick was married to John C. Rogers, cashier of the Christian County Bank. Mr. Rogers preceded her in death in 1942. Mrs. Rogers was a member of the Methodist church and the united Methodist and Presbyterian congregation at Ozark. She was a member of the Order of Eastern Star, having at one time served as Worthy Matron of the Ozark chapter. She was a charter member of the Ladies Literacy Club and helped organize the Modern Seekers Club. This group bestowed upon her the honorary title of "Club Mother". Her immediate survivors are five sons and daughter, Herbert N. Rogers of Springfield, Commander R.E. Rogers, of Ozark, J.B. Rogers of Oakland, CA, Dr. J.W. Rogers of Tulsa, OK, Dr. Charles E. Rogers of Washington, D.C. and Ruth Elinor Rogers of Beverly Hills, CA. She is also survived by 13 grandchildren and ten great-grandchildren. Funeral services were Sunday afternoon at the Ozark Presbyterian church, conducted by the Reverend William F. Vance. Burial was in the Hazelwood cemetery, Springfield, under direction of the Chaffin Funeral Home. Death came for Mother Rogers. She was ready to go. She was tired. She believed that her God knew she had need of him. With a faith simple as a child's prayer. Mother Rogers was at peace with herself. Her presence brought to our whole neighborhood a serenity we seldom experienced at any other time. Only last Saturday she was seen crossing our yard, a little bent figure tucked in a shawl. She always came to the back door because her knees were unsteady and the front steps were too steep for her. She had come to pay a bill. With gnarled fingers that had ministered to six children, an invalid husband, and innumerable sick neighbors, she opened her purse-a black one with handles. She fumbled slightly found the bills and change and then-bless her-a little paper napkin with candy for the children. No matter how disturbed our household might be, her entrance brought calm. Even children would stand quietly at her knee to receive the expected loving pat on the head. Last Saturday, her visit was especially welcome. She appeared to give no notice when she found me in tears over an illness in my family. She took my hand and we sat down together. She talked of many things, among them her favorite Old Testament quotation: "What doth the Lord require of Thee, but, to do justly, and to love mercy and to walk humbly with Thy God?" Mother Rogers stayed with me for more than an hour and during her visit my worries vanished. Remarkable? No. It was no more than she has done for dozens of her friends and acquaintances for fifty years. One night recently there came a knock. Mother Rogers had sent three play tickets she was unable to use. We went to the play, enjoying it doubly because of her neighborliness. No eulogy can be written for such a cultured humanitarian. She has written her own eulogy in her daily life-written it well in the hearts of her friends-written it beautifully with deeds. I know it was her ardent wish to go before she became helpless, but her death leaves me inconsolable. I loved her dearly. So did you. When her loss is felt too keenly, I shall remember how wistfully she repeated to me the words of a favorite song she had learned as a girl-"I heard a sweet voice, The voice of my God; 'I love thee, I love thee, Pass under my rod'"

Huge Damage Suit Involves Ex-Countians

Rollers Seek $220,000 from Federal Court

A total of $220,000 in damages is sought in a suit brought in federal district court in Kansas City by former Christian County residents. Donald Roller, 32, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jamie Roller of Sparta and his wife, Barbara, 30, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Harrison, formerly of Sparta, are plaintiffs in the suit, and defendants are the National Life and Insurance Company of Nashville and two individuals, Vernon Bouchen and William Glen Scanlon, both of Kansas City. The suit is an outgrowth of a three-car automobile accident last March 11 on State Line road,, marking the dividing line between Missouri and Kansas in Kansas City. In this accident, in which apparently the Roller automobile was the innocent bystander, one three-year-old son, John, of the Rollers was killed and the other occupants of the car injured. Plaintiffs petition, filed by attorneys Bill Davenport of Ozark and J. A. Applequist of Mt. Vernon, allege that the defendants Boschen, who was acting as agent of National Life and Scanlon, caused the accident by "gross negligence". At the time, Donald Roller was on a visit to his parents in Sparta. His wife was driving their 1952 Chevrolet south on State Line road toward their home in Suburban Muncie, Kansas. With her were their four children, James 12, Donna Jean, 11, Kenneth 7 and John, 3. Mrs. Roller was 32 paces short of Bannister Street intersection, the petition states, when Boschen, coming from the west in a Volkswagen, slowed down for the intersection, then speeded on through. Coming from the south on State Line road at high speed was Scanlon's 1954 Packard. The Volkswagen hit the Packard broadside. The Packard then careened toward the northeast, then back northwest and rammed the Roller Chevrolet, "smashing it into the ground and onto the adjacent shoulder and lawn." The petition asks $25,000 in damages for the child's wrongful death; $100,000 actual and $50,000 punitive damages for Mrs. Roller's severe injuries; $14,0955 for injuries to and loss of services of the older children and Donald asks $20,000 for the medical and nursing expenses incurred and loss of wife's services and consortium. "The entire family remaining is now living at their home under hospital conditions," the attorneys say, "There are four hospital beds set up in their living and dining rooms, and Mr. Roller has employed a full-time housekeeper." Judge R. Jasper Smith, formerly of Springfield, has been assigned to hear the case.

Miss Martha June Routh, 20, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rhuel Routh of Route 10, Springfield, was killed, and two companions were seriously injured Thursday night last week in a wreck on Highway 65 in the Ed King corner, the first turn south of Selmore. Injured were Robert W. Dickenson, 20, of Route 9, and Ewing Mitchell "Mitch" Hough, 21, 1127 Prospect, Springfield. The accident occurred about 11:45 o'clock, according to T.B. Chaffin, who answered a call for his ambulance about that time. Mr. Chaffin said some tourists, a man and his wife, were camped overnight on a parkway at the turn, and he assumed that they had the ambulance called, then just as he was about to leave on the call Wilbur Wilson of Ozark stopped to report the wreck. When he arrived at the wreck scene, Mr. Chaffin said, he found Hough, thrown clear of the car, lying on the ground smoking a cigarette. The girl was pinned under the car, and was dead. Dickenson was in the car, behind the steering wheel. The car, a late model Buick, was upside down at the side of the highway. Mr. Chaffin brought the two youths to the Haguewood hospital, but as a physician was not available he rushed them to St. John's hospital in Springfield. Hough sustained fractures of both legs above the knees. Dickenson suffered some concussion, but was able to be removed from the hospital to his home, Mr. Chaffin learned Wednesday. It was reported in Springfield that Dickenson had traded for the Buick coach a day or two before, and the three had driven to Rock-a-way Beach. They planned to return by way of Riverside Inn for a chicken dinner and were headed there when the accident happened. Miss Routh was a junior at SMS and had been employed at the Vanity shoe store and by her father in his real estate office and at the Grandview market which he formerly operated. Young Hough operates Mitch's service station on South Glenstone in Springfield. To the Worshipful Master, Wardens and Brethren of Friend Lodge No. 352, A. F. & A. M., Ozark, Missouri.

In His infinite wisdom, the Supreme Architect of the Universe had permitted death to again invade our ranks and take from membership in our Lodge to the Supreme Grand Lodge above another worthy member. He was buried by the brethren of the Lodge with Masonic honors in the Ozark Cemetery. In his earlier days, Brother Russell was a successful farmer and stockman in this community. Later he turned to merchandising with equal distinction. BE IT RESOLVED, That we will ever bear in mind grateful remembrance of the zeal and fidelity with which Brother Russell discharged his Masonic duties and will try to emulate his devotion to the Grand Principles of our Fraternity. BE IT RESOLVED, That we commend his example of the peaceful, industrious and upright life and that we will cherish his memory as a true and faithful member of our Craft. RESOLVED, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon our records, and a copy furnished to the Ozark newspaper for publication.

Nixa Man Is Electrocuted Installing Air Conditioning

Ray D. Russell, 28, Nixa was electrocuted Monday while installing air conditioning in a Springfield home. He was pronounced dead on arrival at Cox Medical Center, Springfield. Mr. Russell, a past worshipful master of Friend Lodge of Masons, Ozark, was at work in a crawl space beneath the home of Warren David, 818 South Belcrest. The ground was very wet beneath the house and Mr. Russell apparently touched a defective electrical drop cord he was using about 1:30 p.m. The current is believed to have grounded through Mr. Russell's wet clothing, blowing a 20-amp fuse in the Davis home fuse box. Two men working at the Davis home heard Mr. Russell scream. They were Noel Bills, 54 and James A. Williams, 63, both of Springfield, and both employees of Ozark-York Heating and Air Conditioning, Springfield, as was Mr. Russell. Mr. Bills, working in the rear of the David house, ran to the opening in the foundation leading to the crawl space under the house. He said he heard Mr. Russell say, "I'm coming out." But after that he heard nothing. So, he ran to the door of the Davis home and said to call an ambulance. When Mr. Williams., working in the Davis attic, arrived at the foundation opening, he called to Mr. Russell but got no answer. When ambulance personnel arrives, Messrs, Bills and Williams assisted them in removing the victim from beneath the residence. Pat Horton, 38, an employee of Alton-Luce Co., Springfield, investigated to find out what happened. He found a bare spot in a drop cord with which Mr. Russell was believed to have come in contact. No marks were found on the victim's body when examined at the hospital by a pathologist, police and Coroner Ralph Tieme. Death was believed caused by an erratic heart beat attributed to a jolt of 110-volt electricity. Mr. Russell was a lifelong resident of the Nixa and Highlandville communities. Survivors include his wife, Kathryn; a son, Kent of the home; and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Russell, Highlandville. Funeral services were held at 10 a.m. this Thursday at the Nixa Baptist church with the Rev. Kenneth Bandy officiating. Burial was in Payne Cemetery north of Nixa.
