Kevin Wade, who was declared dead by Marine Corps officials Tuesday morning. Wade, 33, a computer technician stationed in Okinawa Japan, was swept into the Pacific Ocean June 16 and is presumed drowned based on the length of his disappearance, said 1st Sgt. B.A. Vendergriff with the U.S. Marine Reserve Training Center in Springfield. The body of Lance Cpl. Johnson, no first name available, of Florida, who was also swept into the ocean with Wade, was found floating 11 miles out at sea the day after the accident. Wade's wife, Pam, told the Springfield News-Leader that her husband and others were playing volleyball during a get together. Several of the Marines decided to go swimming when Wade and another Marine got too close to the current of a drainage ditch and were pulled in. The ditch empties into the Pacific Ocean, she told the paper. The Marine Corps Judge Advocate General will conduct an investigation into the death and the investigation could take up to four months, Vendergriff said. Wade was a star baseball and basketball player at Billings High School, which he graduated from in 1975. The Wades have two sons, Kasey, 10, and Jon, 8. At this holiday season, this poem is in memory of my Dad, Harold Wampler, Sr., Clever, Mo.

He was a man to fit the Lord,
Sturdy and stark his hand, Solid as a rock beneath the soil.
And like the land, He wore exceedingly well
Mellowing with the years 'till we could tell...
He moved in harmony with God and earth,
Excepting death, the natural end of birth.
While Dad lived, her played the game,
Leaving the earth better than when he came.
Bill Wampler.

Nixa's first female mayor dies at 94 By Didi Tang

News-Leader

Edna Wasson also served as postmaster and inspired her son to go into politics. Edna Bernice Wasson, who served as Nixa's postmaster for nearly 40 years and was the town's first female mayor, will be remembered as an independent woman devoted to her community and family. Wasson died Monday in the Ozark Nursing and Care Center in Ozark. She was 94. "She didn't sit down very much," said her son, state Rep. Jay Wasson, R-Nixa. "She was always busy." Said Carla Sanders, the city's postmaster: "She was full of life, and she had a full life. She was very respected in the community." Sharon Whitehill Gray was the town's second female mayor. "Mrs. Wasson was a leader in our community," Gray said. "She certainly set an example of what leadership is all about." Born in 1912 to the Wood family in Protom, Edna Wasson moved to Nixa in 1919, where she graduated from Nixa High School in 1930. She attended Southwest Baptist College and Southwest Missouri State Teachers College. On Dec. 1, 1933, she was appointed postmaster for Nixa. She retired in 1972. In 1976, she was elected mayor of Nixa. She served one two-year term. She was married to John Milton Wasson, who died in 1974. "She was the first independent woman I knew, even before that term became popular," said Jay Wasson. "She had her job, and she had her own checkbook. She did things the way she wanted to do them." Edna Wasson was a well-known figure in Nixa. "She knew everybody, and everybody knew her," said Jay Wasson, who also credited his mother for his interest in public service. "She probably started me in public service," said the state representative, who remembers that he started going to city meetings after Edna Wasson became mayor. From there, Jay Wasson said he joined the park board, the city's planning and zoning commission and then the Board of Aldermen. At the same time, Edna Wasson was a traditional woman who raised her children and grew flowers and vegetables, said her son. "She did all of those things, yet she was extremely involved in raising me and my sister," said Jay Wasson. "She had a huge garden every year. She was very involved with the garden club. ... And she canned vegetables every year." Edna Wasson also helped others in the community, he said. "She helped anybody and everybody she saw needed help," Jay Wasson said. "... Nixa meant a lot to her, and she meant a lot to Nixa."

Auto Tragedy Claims Lives of Prominent Ozark Couple

Mr. and Mrs. Francis T. Wernet Killed Instantly in One-Car Mishap on U. S. 65

Death came instantly last Sunday afternoon about 3:45 o'clock for one of Ozark's most widely known and highly respected couples, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Thompson Wernet - Francis and Lula to ever child and every adult in the community. The tragic circumstance occurred at the James River bridge, eight miles north of Ozark, when their northbound Chrysler apparently skidded on an icy spot, struck the bridge, the abutting guard rail and both were thrown from the car. The Wernets were enroute to Springfield to hear the annual Christmas Vespers program presented by the Drury College choir. They had great interest in Drury, both having been students there when they formed their close companionship 32 years ago, and both their daughters are Drury graduates. Hundreds of people attended the double funeral services held Wednesday morning at 10:30 at the Chaffin Funeral Chapel in Ozark. The large chapel held less than half the friends who gathered to pay their last respects. Flowers completely blanketed on side of the chapel and most of another. The funeral services were conducted by the Reverend W. E. Broadhurst, pastor of the Ozark Christian Church and Doctor Richard Pope, Dean of the School of Bible at Derry College. In Doctor Pope's comforting words, "In death, as in life, their was an eternal partnership, and their warm kindness will be greatly missed by loved ones and innumerable friends." Interment was in Hazelwood Cemetery under direction of the Chaffin Funeral Home of Ozark. Bearers for Mrs. Wernet were seven cousins: Jack Farthing and Herbert Taylor of Ozark, Jack Kerr of Crane and Wm. C. Taylor, Gene Farthing, Fred Farthing, and Orville Kerr, all of Springfield. Bearers for Mr. Wernet were Ed Burlingame of Kansas City and Joe C.

Crain, D. W. Shelton, Clyde W. McConnell, Tom R. Moore, Gratz Anderson and John L. Pile, all of Ozark

Not that I have any hopes of making this burden easier, as much as I'd love to. We have just got home from John's funeral and I want you to know I have been to this chapel many times, but I've never saw so many people there before, which showed so plain how many friends he had made here, besides all he had there and so many lovely flowers, in fact, I never saw a more beautiful funeral. There were 95 floral pieces. His going was such a shock to all of us. Love, John D. and Josie Melton. **** I typed this as it appeared RP

Cole, Ava Dean (Inman) 18 Aug 1934 - 26 Jul 1951 CCR 2 Aug 1951

Mrs. Avadeen Cole, 16, of Nixa was killed last Thursday morning near Stockton, KS, when the car she was driving struck a bridge abutment. Also killed was her two-months old niece, Carlyla Widders, daughter of her sister who was in the car with Mrs. Cole. The baby's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Widders of Springfield were hospitalized at Hays, KS. A reconstruction of the crash by the highway patrol indicated that Mrs. Cole had taken the wheel in the early morning after her brother-in-law, who had been discharged from the service and was being returned home from Washington, D.C., had driven all night. The party had an early morning breakfast. Mr. Widders got into the back seat for a catchup sleep, and Mrs. Cole had been driving about 15 minutes when the accident occurred. She was proceeding at moderate speed and the theory was that she was blinded by the early sunlight and did not see the abutment. Bodies of the two victims were returned by plane to Springfield, where funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon with the Rev. Roscoe Harding, pastor of Riverdale Baptist church, officiating. Burial was made in the McConnell cemetery near Nixa. In addition to her sister, Mrs. Cole is survived by her husband, Don, serving in the Navy. She and Mrs. Widders are the cousins of County Treasurer Russell McConnell.

Willoughby, Marion Victor "Brownie" 7 Oct 1921 - 11 Apr 2005 SN-L 13 Apr 2005
[Note; Son of Marshall & Hattie B. (Hunt) Willoughby; married 24 May 1955 Twilla M. Arnold Bowman]

Marion was the 7th child born to his parents, Marshall and Hattie Willoughby, at their home in Nixa on October 7, 1921. "Brownie" was a nickname given to him by his grandmother short for "My Brown Boy" as he would get such a dark tan while working in the hay fields. After graduating from high school at Clever in 1940, he enlisted into the Army on September 12, 1944, and trained at Camp Roberson in Little Rock, Ark. During World War II he was deployed to Germany to fight the Axis Powers and served in the military mail service. He learned to speak a little German with the locals in the towns of Hamburg, Marburg, and along the Rhine River. On his return home to the states from London, by way of the Queen Mary, crossing the English Channel during a storm, it took 29 days before passing the Statue of Liberty in New York harbor. On October 28, 1944, he married Wanda L. Sissel and together they had two children, Vicky Faye and Grover Kent, and later divorced. While working for the "Frisco Railroad" in Monett, "Brownie" met and later married Twilla M. Bowman on May 24, 1955. Together they raised her two boys, Kenneth R. Arnold and Ronald E. Bowman, and their son, Hal Dean Willoughby. After moving to Springfield, "Brownie" worked at SMSU first as a night custodian, and later as a supervisor for the custodial staff over the five dormitories. At home he enjoyed gardening, hunting, and fishing. "Brownie" also enjoyed writing poems about many of the things he experienced, saw or even dreamed throughout his life; remembering the good times while growing up on a farm in a small Missouri town during the "Great Depression" with his six sisters and three brothers, and the sad times overseas, serving in the Army during World War II. Some of these he shared with his loved ones and others were written down for his remembrance. The Reverend Alden Jaynes, in the Victory Baptist Church in Springfield, baptized "Brownie" and his son, Hal Dean, together on October 26, 1969. After his early retirement in 1982, "Brownie" learned to paint with oils by viewing "Bob Ross" on TV. He was later able to meet Bob and give him one of his small paintings. He also learned to sketch with pen and ink; many of his drawings were given away and others displayed throughout the home. "Brownie", after being diagnosed with Alzheimer's, went to live at the Woodland Manor on September 11, 2004, staying there until the time of his passing on April 11, 2005, at the age of 83 years. "Brownie" was preceded in death by his parents and seven of his siblings: Margaret "Mary" Willoughby, Velta Leone "Lee" Brock, Waldo "Gerald" Willoughby, Ellen "Bessie" Hedgpeth, Florence "Cecil" Jaynes, Wesley Elmo "Bud" Willoughby, and "Lillie" Belle Breazeale. "Brownie" is survived by his wife, "Twilla" Mae; their son, Hal "Dean" and his wife, Deborah, their two children, Rachel Dawn and her husband, Christopher D. Peters of Camdenton, and Randall Dean Willoughby of Springfield; two stepsons, Kenneth Ray Arnold of Diamond, and Ronald Eugene Bowman of Springfield; two children from his first marriage, Vicky Faye and her husband, Bruce Page, their two children, Kimberly Lynn Page and Jeffery Lee Page of Ozark, and Grover Kent Kelsey and his wife, Kathy, their two children, Tammy Rama York and Amanda Dawn Kelsey of Lebanon; a sister, Agnes "Lucy" Jones and her husband, Lewis of Nixa; a brother, Marshall Phillip "Phil" Willoughby and his wife, Peggy of Springfield; and also a host of nieces, nephews, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, step grandchildren, step great grandchildren, and many friends. Visitation will be today, April 13, 2005, from 7 to 8 p.m. at Greenlawn South. Memorial services will be held 10 a.m. Thursday in the funeral home with burial to follow at the Delaware Cemetery in Nixa. Contributions may be made to the Alzheimer's Association or to Community Hospices of America. The family wishes to express their deepest gratitude to all the staff and caregivers at Woodland Manor, who provided their loving care, respect and kindness to "Brownie".

Veteran Christian County official, businessman dies, by Didi Tang

Wilbur Earl Wilson, the longtime Christian County collector, was small in stature, but is remembered as a man with an enormous heart. "He helped everybody who seemed to be in trouble," said Bill Hanks, a friend of Wilson. The four-term Christian County official died Saturday at his home south of Ozark. He was 85. Funeral services are scheduled for 10 a.m. today at Barnes Family Funeral Home in Ozark, with the Rev. Jerry Applegate officiating. "He was a very dedicated businessman, and he was very community-minded," said Sue Larimer, executive director of the Ozark Chamber of Commerce. "He'll be greatly missed by the citizens of Ozark and surrounding communities." A lifetime resident of Christian County, Wilson graduated from Ozark High School in 1939 and then-Southwest Missouri State Teachers College in 1943 with a degree in agriculture and commerce. In the public sector, he worked as a probate and magistrate clerk, served four consecutive terms as the county collector until 1970, and later was elected public administrator of Ozark. While serving as the collector, Wilson also was a deputy sheriff for the county. In the private sector, he first worked for DuPont as a receiving clerk. In 1959, Wilson served as the 10th president of the Ozark Chamber of Commerce. While serving as the public administrator, Wilson purchased and operated Ozark Abstract and Loan Co. until 1997. There, he worked with Marvin Allen, who lives a few miles from Wilson's home in rural Christian County. "He was well thought of," Allen said. "He had a lot of friends. ... He was who he was." Wilson, born with a genetic condition that made his limbs shorter than normal, also farmed and raised black Angus cattle until he was unable to do so in his later years. In the late 1980s, Wilson and Hanks began a joint venture buying, fixing and selling some properties. The profits went to establish the Hanks and Wilson Ozark High School Scholarship Fund. "We were just eating lunch at the same restaurant and we talked about this piece of property," said Hanks of the real estate effort. "He couldn't get out to do things, and he had other people like me doing the running. I oversaw the remodeling of this house, and he took care of the bill paying." Wilson was hardworking, said Hanks: "He was handicapped. He couldn't do a lot of things. Work was all he knew." Wilson, who had managed his money well, helped others with financial troubles, said Hanks. "He helped a lot of people do income taxes," Hanks said. "He helped the old people who were confused with tax forms ... get their taxes sent off. "He's a good guy."

A Suicide

Body of Woman Found Sunday

Despondency over ill health was responsible for the suicide last Thursday morning of Mrs. Affie Wimmer, 62, of Ozark, according to a note left by the deceased woman. Mrs. Wimmer's absence from her home on Highlandville Hill in south Ozark, was not discovered until Sunday morning when her twin sister, Mrs. Alma Porter of Springfield called at the home and found the note. Authorities here were notified and a search was instigated. Mayor Ross Vaughan of Ozark, a member of the searching party, discovered the body underneath a small cedar tree several hundred yards east of her home, across Highway 65. Coroner Dean Harris of Clever viewed the body and stated death was due to suffocation. Two plastic bags, a pair of nylon hose and a plastic raincoat were used to cause suffocation, and Harris termed the death a suicide. Funeral services for Mrs. Wimmer were held Tuesday at 2 p.m. in the Chaffin Funeral Chapel at Ozark. Burial was in Jones Cemetery. In addition to Mrs. Porter, she is survived by four brothers, Herschel Baird of Wadsworth, Kan., Ray Baird of Kansas City, Kan., Clell Baird of Brush, Colo., and Lester Baird of Tonganoxie, Kan.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

After losing his brother, Elijah in June 2002, to the same disease, we knew how hard and how precious this time was going to be for both of us. But now we know that it is God's will. Both our boys were the sweetest and happiest babies, even through the suffering, and that is how we know God was with them through it all. Seth would always stare at the ceiling and move his head back and forth, like he was watching something that we couldn't see. We always believed he was watching the angels that flew above him. Well, Seth, now you and your brother will fly with them. We love you Seth and forever, you will be our little pumpkin boy. We love you always," Mommy and Daddy. U.S. 65 Auto Crashed Continue the Carnage

Most recent in the series of auto accident on U.S. 65 eight miles north, have left four persons dead and five others with serious injury. Four were killed instantly at 11:50 a.m. Tuesday in a head-on collision near the railroad crossing a half mile north of the 65-14 junction. Dead at the scene were Homer Woodall, 70, North Little Rock, Ark.; his wife, Mable, 79, Charles Vidan, 50, of Granite City, Ill, and Lyllana Petrovic, 45 of Paris, France. Still in "fair" condition Thursday morning in St. John's Hospital is Mrs. Mildena Vidan, 49 of Granite City while her son, Michael, 14, remains in "critical" condition. Miss Carla Mueller, 14, granddaughter of the Woodall couple is in satisfactory condition. The tragedy occurred in a straightaway portion of the highway when Woodall, northbound, pulled into the opposite lane to pass and the opposite lane to pass and struck the Vidan auto headon.

Two Ozark women were seriously injured at 1:00 p.m. Tuesday when their auto was forced off the road by another auto on the James river hill as they were enroute to Springfield. Listed in "Fair" condition at St. John's after being taken off the "critical" list is Mrs. Edward Ridenour, 50, of Ozark, the driver. She is recovering from fractures of both legs and her right elbow, internal injuries and facial lacerations. Her sister, Mrs. George Brock, 54, is still listed in "serious" condition, suffering from chest injuries, facial lacerations, and fractures to the ankle, wrist, shoulder, hip and knee. The Ridenour vehicle skidded off the road and crashed into the rock bluff, and it was forced from the highway. The offending driver was not apprehended. It is hoped the highway department and the highway patrol will take note of the rapidly increasing number of mishaps on this section of the highway, due to heavy traffic and do something quickly to alleviate the situation.

Ozark Woman Takes Own Life

Mrs. May Margaret Workman, 56, of Ozark, who was employed in the coffee shop in St. John's Hospital, apparently took her own life late Wednesday night or early Thursday, Feb 8. Harris said Mrs. Chaffin, upon finding Mrs. Workman's car in the garage, called sheriff's deputies who found Mrs. Workman's body in the car shortly after noon. Harris said death was due to asphyxiation. A hose was run from the car's exhaust in a window of the car, he said. The coroner said she was still dressed in clothing she apparently had worn to work Wednesday. She had left the hospital at 9 p.m. Mrs. Workman had been despondant since the death of her husband Edward in 1966, Harris related. Ozark Man Electrocuted

Tom Workman of Ozark was electrocuted early Tuesday morning while apparently removing wire from an REA I utility pole. A call from an area resident complaining of a loss of electrical power sent repair crews looking for the source of power failure sometime around midnight Monday. Arriving at a spot 2 miles south of Ozark on the sale barn road, the repair crew discovered Workman's body hanging from the wires of a utility pole. Christian County authorities were called to the scene at approximately 2:30 a.m. Tuesday and Workman's body was removed from the wires. County Coroner Dean Adams stated that death by electrocution was the result of Workman accidentally looping his arm over a live wire. County Sheriff Joe Mayberry said that Workman was apparently attempting to remove several strands of wire for the copper they contained. A pair of wire cutters was found at the scene along with one strand of wire that had already been removed, Workman's watch, ring and any other valuable he may have been carrying were also missing. The Sheriff believes that Mr. Workman was not alone and that his companion or companions fled the scene after the accident occurred. Workman is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Workman, Route 3; three brothers, Raymond and John, both of Ozark (Sic - names only two); two sisters, Mrs. Hazel Toothman, Sanger, Calif. and Mrs. Helen Walker, Ozark. Funeral services will be held Friday at 2 p.m. in Prospect Baptist church with the Rev. James Applegate officiating. Burial will be in Prospect Cemetery, under direction of Adams Funeral Home.

Ludwig Face Life Term in Ava Case Tried Here.

Life in prison was recommended Monday for Larry Arthur Ludwig, 18, of Ava, by a Christian County jury of six men and six women, after the jury found him guilty of first degree murder in the death April 24, 1978 of 88-year-old Hardy Burton Wright, also of Ava. Wright allegedly was beaten with a metal pipe four days earlier. Jury Forman Jerry Inman of Billings signed the verdict which recommended the term. Judge Clifford Crouch of Forsyth told a reporter that life was mandatory in first-degree murder. Judge Crouch read the verdict after the jury came in about 10:45 p.m. Monday. The jury took about two hours to decide. Ludwig was found guilty also of felonious assault in the case. The term was recommend at 2 years, the minimum. Others on the jury were Shirley Long, Syble Major, Tom Deffenderfer, Sue Clayman, Dean Ellison, Jewell Lee, Jay Swadley, John Staiger, Dale Little, June Ward and Rosalie Duckworth. Tom Chudomelka was the alternate, should one of the 12 had been unable to continue. He sat by the end of the jury box. The case came to Christian County on a change of venue. Another defendant in the two charges Ludwig faced is Marvin Duane Stillings, 19, of Ava. His case has been set for Nov. 19 in Ozark County, at Gainesville. Key witness for the prosecution was Steven Lawrence Carnell, 20, of Ava. He and James Fleming, 16, Ava are accused of being accessories after the fact. Ludwig denied striking either Hardy Wright or his twin brother, Bluford. Bluford Wright also lost an eye as a result of also being beaten. A pipe allegedly used was part of the prosecution's exhibits presented to the jury. Neil McFarlane, an assistant Missouri attorney-general, prosecuted the case, assisted by Ms. Khristie Green, also an assistant to the attorney-general. Douglas County Prosecuting Attorney Bob House disqualified himself. A confession purportedly given by Ludwig to Sgt. Henry Crafton, Highway Patrol was said to have been the most damaging evidence against Ludwig. Inman, a salesman for Earnhart Chevrolet in Aurora, said Ludwig's testimony in addition to the confession was a deciding factor. Inman told the Headline" "The robbery part - he admitted being there. The attempted robbery, you should say. The confession was read and was passed around to each of us. He confessed to making plans to go there to commit a robbery. Cantrell testified that Ludwig had a crescent wrench with him when Ludwig and two others went to the Wright brother' home the night of April 20, 19789, the date Police Chief Jerry Huffman of Ava said the beatings occurred. Gail Fredrick, attorney for Ludwig, was given 30 days by Judge Crouch to decide whether she would ask for a new trial. Date of sentencing, if one is set, would be determined by Fredrick's decision.
