

August, Monday 8

Cloudy in the forenoon went to cutting [sic] oats the boys went to pick some Whortle berries in the forenoon in the swamp in the afternoon they picked some upland berries I did not get quite through [through] cutting [sic] oats the boys bound some after supper looks some like rain to night [sic]

August, Tuesday 9

Cloudy rained in the night Went over to Fitchburgh in the forenoon to get some things in the afternoon finished cutting [sic] oats Andrew went up to Mrs Smiths to help Charlie mowe [sic] some marsh grass John Canfield and his boy staid [stayed] here to night [sic]

August, Wednesday 10

Pleasant [sic] and warm Heard of John [Dimonds?] death this morning I mowed awhile in the morning and then the boys drew a load of hay and then we got ready and went to the funeral We came back by Dansville to see if Martha would come home with us she did not and we did not get any letters Andrew had the ague to day [sic]

August, Thursday 11

Clear and pleasant [sic] went to binding [binding] oats this forenoon bound till noon and they was to[o] dry to bind after dinner set them up and then drew in some hay and after supper went to binding oats again Mrs Poxen Mrs McCann was here in the afternoon Andrew did not feel very well

August, Friday 12

Pleasant [sic] went to binding oats and Andrew went to mowing and finished [finished] the peice [sic] we was cutting [sic] around and then went to drawing oats to stack them finished them and drew in a load of hay looks some like rain I took the old carpet and spread it on the stack

August, Saturday 13

Rainy did not do much in the forenoon unloaded a load of hay in the afternoon Alpha went to Fitchburgh to get some things I worked some in the garden in the afternoon so another week is gone and with it many has gone to there [sic] las[t] home