

March, Wednesday 23

Pleasant [sic] frose [sic] in the night Started for Mill with ten bush [bushels] of wheat and nineteen bush [bushels] of feed did not get there till elven [sic] o clock and did not leave till after five and had to leave my load bfore [sic] I got home and came home a horse back and got into John S.s ditch where the bridge was gone

March, Thursday 24

Plesent [sic] frose [sic] hard last night I went down to see if the bridge could be fix but gave it up till the water went down I went after my load I went around by Mr Kellys out to Mr Whitneys and Mr Coulsons and then started for home thawing very fast We fixed the bridge when I came back

March, Friday 25

Pleasant [sic] but freesing [sic] nights We took the apples out the hole and carried them to the barn Andrew cut his foot this morning I finished a letter to Allen and Alpha went to Dansville after the mail and he staid [stayed] all night I did not feel very well on account of a bad cold that I had

March, Saturday 26

Looks like a storm wind in the East Worked in the barn in the forenoon Thrashed out the beans and cleaned up the floor It rained in the afternoon cleaned up the beans had two bush [bushels] did not do much on account of the rain Piched [pitched] some hay on to the scaffold over the floor Still raining

March, Sunday 27

Wind East still raining did not go to meeting any where [sic] to day [sic] nearly sick with cold Squares folks had been up to Fathers and stoped [sic] here when they come back and stayed till after dinner And so the time is passing away soon we shall all be gone from earth

March, Monday 28

Cloudy worked at the house chopping [sic] wood for summer and done the chores Spring is here the snow is not all gone yet We have a long winter and it will soon be planting time
