

July, Friday 15

Looks like rain worked in the garden till the dew dried off and then went to work in the wheat a short time and then it commenced rain we had a hard shower Andrew went up to Johns in the afternoon it cleared off so I went to work in the wheat till night look so that it might be fair

July, Saturday 16

Pleasant [sic] went to work in the wheat as soon as the dew was off it was very warm put up fifty dosen [dozen] We heard of the death of Della Holt to night [sic] So our Friends are going from us and soon we all shall be gone and others will take our places and we shall be for-goten [forgotten]

July, Sunday 17

[blank]

July, Monday 18

Rained most all night did not do any thing [sic] in the wheat to day [sic] helped in the house and worked in the garden it was pleasant [sic] but the wind was south Took down the bed in the bedroom and scalded the bedstead and helped [point?] up the room so that it could be white washed

July, Tuesday 19

Pleasant [sic] went to cuting [sic] wheat with the reaper cut five times around and then went to binding bound that up and then cut five more times around and bound some and then drew in two loads Mrs Smith and [Jennie?] and Willie came down here to day [sic] and Nettie Burrell and Emma Holt came to [sic]

July, Wednesday 20

Rained last night worked in the garden till it dried so that we could work in the wheat till supper and there came up a hard storm it hailed and rained and there was heavy thunder the hardest we have had for a long time Mr Bachelor had a horse killed by the lightning Emma Holt went home before the storm