Biographical History

Rene St. Julian, born ca 1660, was a Huguenot refugee from Paris, France who settled on the shores of South Carolina in America with his wife Mary Bullock ca 1700 or 1701. The family and their descendants relocated to Maryland in 1712, to Virginia in 1737, and to North Carolina a little after 1760. George Julian, born 1752, then moved the family to Tennessee. The family relocated to Indiana before George Julian, born 1801 in Tennessee, moved the family to Adams Co., Illinois. There, his son, John Strafford Julian, married Louisa Beach. This clan moved to Sacramento, California in 1849 where their descendants remained. Direct descendant Beatrice (Bea) Julian Snapp compiled the Julian family research as well as research of her other ancestors, including her grandmother, Louisa Beach, Louisa's mother Betsy Humphrey, and Betsy's mother, Lucy Marshall, all of New England.

Scope and Content

The collection includes research covering the genealogy of the Julian, Beach, Humphrey, and Marshall Families as well as Beatrice Julian Snapp's photo albums, scrapbooks, and other ephemera.
