Repository: Midwest Genealogy Center, Independence, Missouri

Scope and Content

Items in this collection were found in yearbooks that were donated to the library. The yearbooks have been donated by individuals and the items left were of a personal nature such as photographs, programs from a school event, or a graduation announcements. When possible, the school and year were noted when the item was removed from the yearbook. Items in this collection give a more detailed view of the activities and students who attended a particular high school. The collection is organized by state, with subseries for each school located under its corresponding state.
