

September, Sunday 25

Warm and pleasant [sic] for the time of year Did not go anywhere [sic] to meeting today [sic] Nellie and Jesse came down here today [sic] and they are going to stay all night and Nellie is going to stay a few days to learn to make wax fruit Mr Walters died this morning

September, Monday 26

Foggy [sic] this morning took the reaper up to Mr Poxson to cut his clover seed but the dew did not off till nearly noon in the afternoon went to Mr Walters funeral Brother Warner from Dansville stopped [sic] here for dinner and then went over to the funeral and stopped [sic] a little while when he came back

September, Tuesday 27

Clear and pleasant [sic] but heavy dew [sic] and cool nights Hung the big kettle for boiling pumpkins for the hogs put over one kettle full to boil Andrew went up to Johns to get some things And then I went to cutting [sic] clover seed for Mr Poxson worked from ten o'clock till night

September, Wednesday 28

Pleasant [sic] and warm Cleaned up some wheat to take to mill and five bushels for Brother Warner and four for myself went to Dansville to mill and to meet with the Estimateing [sic] committee [sic] for allowing Brother Warners claim for preaching on the Dansville circuit

September, Thursday 29

Look some like rain it is very warm for the time of year Worked at home in the forenoon building a fence around the straw stack In the afternoon went to cutting [sic] clover seed for Mr Poxson in the evening went to prayer meeting to Mr Bachelors there was but a few out

September, Friday 30

Rainy this morning and it has rained all day Samantha picked her wool for the carding machine and then canned [canned] some peaches and tomatoes and then went to making [making] some wax fruit for Nellie Gray This year is passing away three months more and it will be numbered with the past and will it [illegible] go into the eternal world