Name of Creator

Casimir P. Stevens

Biographical History

Casimir Pulaski Stevens was born February 10, 1867 in Lancaster, Iowa to Stephen Stevens and Hannah Gray. Casimir was a locomotive engineer and lived in various places throughout the United States. He died in 1947 and is buried in Floral Hills Cemetery in Kansas City, Missouri.

Scope and Content

This collection contains manuscripts and notes used to write family histories on both the Stevens family and Gray family. Casimir P Stevens used the information from his genealogical research to write several books on both families from about 1918 to 1940. Typed original copies of his books were included in the donation and have been added to the Midwest Genealogy Center book collection. Photographs of family members in the collection date around the early twentieth century.
