Biographical History

David Francis "Frank" Bone was a Methodist circuit preacher in Northwest Missouri in the late 1800s through the early 1900s. He was born in 1843 in Richmond County, Missouri and married to Ella Devlin.

Scope and Content

This collection is digital images only. The owner of the original diary and family Bible loaned the items to the library to be digitized. The collection consists of a diary written by D. F. Bone during the year 1900. Both images of the diary and a transcription are included. Several pages from D.F. Bone's family Bible including all the family record sheets with birth, marriage and death information about the Bone and Cox family have been digitized and included in the collection.
