daughter of Thomas T. McIlroy, in 1866; they have four children living: Maggie L., Sarah Gussie, Lulu J., and the babe, Allie Maudé. Mr. and Mrs. M. are members of the C. P. Church. Mr. M. is an enthusiastic stock-raiser, and has many fine horses, cattle, and sheep. His homestead consists of two hundred and forty-three acres of good land, all in cultivation, besides other land to the amount of two hundred and fifty acres.

William W. Mackey, farmer, post-office Clarksville. His landed estate consists of two hundred and twenty-nine acres of good land, most of which is in a high state of cultivation; his house is a large, comfortable, two-story, frame building, built by himself, and is surrounded by all the out-buildings and other appliances necessary on a first class farm. Mr. Mackey was born in Pike county, Missouri, May 22, 1837; he is the fourth of five brothers; was reared on the farm, and educated in the schools of the neighborhood. On arriving at man's estate he began his career as a farmer, which has been his principal business through life. He gives especial attention to the raising of wheat. He married Martha A. Scott, a native of Illinois, and daughter of John M. Scott. They have three children living: Lillie J., Earnest A., and Virgil W. Mr. and Mrs. M. are both members of the Baptist Church at Dover. Miss Lillie is a member of the same church at Lagrange, where she is attending school. Mr. M. is a clear-headed man, shrewd in his business, fair in his dealings, a good neighbor, always kind and hospitable.

John Stephenson McConnell, farmer, post-office Clarksville, is a native of Pike county, Missouri, born October 4, 1822, near Louisiana. Robert McConnell, the father of John, was born in Fayette county, Kentucky, in September, 1795, and immigrated to Missouri with his father in 1800, settling in the town of St. Charles, and came to Buffalo township in this county in 1807. When the war broke out in 1812, they with others moved into Fort Buffalo. Robert McConnell was married in 1820, to Jane V. Turner, daughter of John Turner, one of the pioneers of that time. Robert McConnell continued to reside in Pike county, Missouri, after he had grown to manhood, until 1849, when he removed to Pike county, Illinois, and thence to Calhoun county, where he lived until his death. Capt. William McConnell, the grandfather of John S., built the first grist mill in Pike county, Missouri. Our subject was raised on a farm, and received a good common school education. He was married in 1843 to Miss Mary Ann Sidwell, daughter of John Sidwell. They have four children living, three boys and one girl. He has a fine farm of 160 acres where he lives, and eighty acres in Calhoun county, Illinois. He is a member of the Masonic Order, and also a worthy and exemplary member of the Christian Church; a man much respected by his neighbors.

Thomas J. McDannold, farmer, post-office Clarksville This gentleman is a native of Pike county, Missouri, born March 6, 1839. His father, Newton McDannold, was a native of Kentucky, born in 1807, and immigrated to Missouri in 1834, first settling on what is known as Little Ramsey Creek, stopping there about two years. He then moved to his permanent residence, the old McDannold homestead, two and a-half miles south of Clarksville, where he followed the avocation of a farmer, and where he raised a large family of four boys and four girls, who all grew to be men and women, and seven of whom are still living. The mother's maiden name was Louisa Gaines, a native of Kentucky. She died in 1847, and the father in 1881, at the age of seventy-three. Reuben McDannold, the grandfather of Thomas J., was a Kentuckian, who came to Missouri in 1834, and settled on the waters of Little Ramsey Creek, where he continued to reside until the time of his death in 1848, at the age of eighty-four. Our subject was raised at the old homestead, and educated in the neighboring schools. He went to Louisiana; from there to Memphis, where he engaged in business for a time, and from there he came to the western part of this county, and moved from there to his present farm in 1866. His farm contains 150 acres of choice land, with a rich limestone soil. He has a fine two-story residence, situated on a high point with a fine view of the splendid country that surrounds it. Mr. McDannold was married, in 1861, to Susan J., daughter of William Smith, Esq., an old resident of Pike county. They have three children, two boys and a girl: Hermon G., Mary H., and John W.

William McKee. The subject of this sketch is the fifth and only son now living. He was born on what is known as the McKee homestead in the year 1849. His father, James McKee, was a native of Ireland and was born in the town of Dublin in 1800. He came to America with his parents when a small boy. He sometime afterward went to Kentucky, and thence to the city of St. Louis, where he resided for some years, and came to Pike county about the year 1830 and began his career as a teacher, which he followed for many years. In 1832 he was united in marriage to Miss Elizabeth Mulherin, daughter of John Mulherin, one of the early settlers of this part of the county. This couple reared a family of nine children, eight of whom are dead. Mr. James McKee died, after having accumulated a considerable amount of property, in 1861, the mother preceding in 1854. H. McKee died August 25, 1878. His widow, who was Miss V. S., daugh-
