Biographical History

The Livesay/Livesey name originated in Lancashire, England as far back as 780 AD. In the United States, the Livesays descendants can trace their name back to John Livesay and his wife Joan, through one of their sons: William Lifsey in Brunswick County, Virginia in the 1700s. Now there are over 60 different spellings of the name with family members living all over the United States and in the United Kingdom.

Scope and Content

This collection contains genealogical research about the Livesay family primarily in England. Records include extracted records and copies of original records. Other records include United States Census extracted records from various states where the Livesay name was found.
