Moses Doggett, Canton, son of James S. and Hannah Doggett, was born September 19, 1829, near dannah Doggett, was born September 19, 1829, near Louisville, Ky., and moved into Indiana when about deven years of age. In June, 1847, he took up his breidence in Iowa, and from 1859 until 1862 was engaged in mining in Colorado. Returning to Iowa, he removed to Montana in 1863, arriving at Horse Prairie Creek, August 2, with his family. He mined on Grasshopper Creek and at Alder Gulch (Virginia City), where he built the first finished house on Idaho street. His be built the first finished house on Idaho street. His son, Jesterson Doggett, was the first white child born in Virginia City, his birth occurring October 29, 1863. When the little one was nine days old, Mrs. Doggett made the trip up the gulch, four miles, to her husband, on an Indian pony, taking the baby and another child on behind her. From January to October Mr. Doggett took out $14,000 from "No. 29," in Highland district, Alder Gulch, and selling out and removing to Last Chance Gulch (Helena), purchased two claims in Dry Gulch, below discovery, from which he took $1,500 in twelve days. In the full of 1865 he located at what is now Canton. Meagher Co., having then but three is now Canton, Meagher Co., having then but three beighbors, the nearest residing four miles away. He took a squatter's right and engaged in the stock business and dairying, his market being Diamond City. His ranch now consists of about 900 acres. He constructed the first irrigating ditch from the Missouri valley, and raised a crop in 1866. Mr. Doggett has been twice married, first on the 29th of August, 1849, and second, September 9, 1859. By his first marriage he has two children, Duane and Lafayette; and by the second, seven: Charles B., Jefferson, James, Loren, Ida Montana, Robert, and Lily Mabel. His second wife was Susan Rose, daughter of Lion and Sarah Rose, of Ottumwa. Ia.

LUTELLES DOOLITTLE, of Licking Co., O., was born September 9, 1839; came to Montana with Jacob Hart in 1805, and has since been engaged in farming and mining. In 1872 he visited his home in Illinois, and returned to Montana in 1873. He owns the farm Mr. Hart resides upon, comprising 280 acres of excellent hay land. Its cost was about $5,000. He also owns seventy inches of water with the second seventy inches. inches of water right.

DUNITAM & MALONRY, White Sulphur Springs. W. Dunham, of Dunham & Maioney, White Sulphur Springs, was born September 2, 1834, in Springfield, O., and moved with his parents to Proble Co., in that State, in 1839. He learned the carpenter's trade, which he followed in Ohio, Iowa, and Kausas. In 1859 he went to Colorado and California, sight seeing, returning the same year to Indiana. In 1860 he entered the Colorado mines, and in 1863 engaged in a mine at Alder Gulch, Montana. In 1865 he went to Last Chance (now. He is a member of the Masonic order. P. H. Maloney was born in 1844, in Ireland; came to Quebec, Canada, in 1845, with his parents, where his father was engaged as a stone mason. He left his home in 1858 and was employed as a sallor on the lakes, for five years. From 1863 to 1865 he was a passenger brakeman on the Louisville and Nashville Railroad. was then employed as a watchman on the U.S. Mail steamer "Gen. Lytle," on its route from Louisville to Cincinnati, until 1866, when he came by steamer to Fort Benton, Mont., and engaged in mining at Diamond City where he later served one term as under sheriff. In 1881 he formed the partnership now existing with Mr. Dunham, and devotes some time to horse raising. He is a member of the I. O. O. F.

JAMES FERGUS, P. O. Fort Maginnis, was born near. Glasgow, Scotland, October 8, 1813. Upon reaching early menhood he came to the United States in 1833. settling in the Black Hawk purchase, now the State of Iowa, and was one of the earliest pioneers west of the Mississippi river. Soon after he went to Illinois and built powder mills and bad charge of the manufacture of powder for two years. He then removed to Moline, Ill., and engaged in the foundry business there and at Rock Island, with General N. B. Buford, remaining eight He was also interested in paper mills. He went subsequently to Minnerota and located at St. Anthony's Falls, then to Little Falls, and laid out that town in 1857. The company under his supervision built the dam and a bridge across the river. He and Jos. Whitford owned the land where Fergus Falls is now located. Whitford was killed in the massacre by the Indians and the property was jumped, but the town was given Mr. Fergus' name which it still bears. In 1800 Mr. Fergus went to Colorado and the following year returned for his family. He found Capt. J. L. Fisk was coming out with an expedition, so he left his family and came with Captain Fisk by the northern route. They were three months on the way, reaching Bunnack City in 1862, and engaged in mining. The following spring they went to Virginia City during the great Alder Gulch excitement, and Mr. Fergus was selected the first Recorder of that famous mining camp. He continued mining and prospecting in that vicinity until 1865, when he moved to Lust Chance and remained one year. He then engaged in stock-raising and dairy husiness in the Prickly Pear Valley for some years, then moved to Prickly Pear canyon, where he continued in stock-raising and keeping station for ten years. He finally sold out there and removed to his present location on Armail greek, north of the Judity present location on Armell creek, north of the Judith mountains, where he is engaged in raising cattle, horees and sheep, also farming. Mr. Fergus has been actively identified with the interests of Montana, and is well known throughout the Territory. He was the first Commissioner of Madison county, and held the same position in Lewis and Clarke county six years, and was twice elected to

to Alton, Illinois, to have charge of the military prison there.

The Tenth was at St. Louis from May until August, 1864, where it served as provost guard of that city.

From St. Louis the regiment was sent to Fort Leavenworth, where it was discharged.

The Tenth Kansas Veteran Regiment was made up of four companies, as shown in the report of the Adjutant-General. Two companies, F and I, were recruited, and were named Companies A and B. The veteran regiment was commanded by Major H. H. Williams from its organization until the last of August, 1864. It was then sent to Pilot Knob, Missouri, Major Williams having been detailed to command Schofield Barracks at St. Louis.

On the 7th of November, the regiment embarked at St. Louis for Paducah, Kentucky. On the 28th of November, it arrived at Nashville, and on the 29th it arrived at Columbia, Tennessee. Here it was assigned to the Fourth Army Corps.

After the battle of Franklin, it fell back with General Schofield's army and was stationed at Nashville until the 16th of December.

In the assault on Hood's position at Nashville, the Tenth was deployed as skirmishers in advance of the Second Brigade, where it drove back the rebel skirmish line and silenced a battery.

It was also in the action on the 16th and 17th, and in the pursuit of the rebels when they retreated.

The veterans saw much service in the South during the winter of 1864. It was at Eastport, Miss., Waterloo, Ala., and at Vicksburg. At Vicksburg the regiment was transferred to New Orleans and camped at Chalmette until the 7th of March. On the 7th it embarked for the Mobile expedition, stopping at Fort Gaines and camping on Dauphin Island at the entrance to Mobile Bay.

On the 20th it went up the Bay to the mouth of Fish River, and later went into camp at Donnelly's Mills. It was in the siege which followed, and was deployed as skirmishers in front of the entire brigade. Mobile was evacuated on the 11th, and the Union soldiers took possession on the 12th. On the following day, the Tenth marched for Montgomery, Alabama, where it arrived on the 25th. It remained at Montgomery, with headquarters at Greenville, until the following August, doing provost duty. It was mustered out at Montgomery the last of September, when it was sent to Fort Leavenworth for final discharge.

The Tenth saw much hard service, and was one of the good regiments in the Union forces during the war.

ELEVENTH KANSAS VOLUNTEER CAVALRY

President Lincoln issued the call on July 2, 1862, for additional troops. Under the call, the Kansas quota was three regiments of infantry. Gen. James H. Lane was authorized by the War Department to recruit these troops. He empowered Thomas Ewing, Jr., then Chief Justice of the Kansas Supreme Court, to raise one of the regiments. The regiment so raised by General Ewing was the Eleventh Kansas Infantry, afterwards changed to Cavalry. Following is the field and staff:

The service of the TM	1 77

The service of the Eleventh Kansas has been noted to a large extent in the body of this work. That portion which has not been mentioned consisted of the service in Wyoming. In February, 1865, most of the regiment was assembled at Fort Riley, from which point it marched to Fort Kearny, Nebraska. This was one of the hardest marches of the war. There were heavy storms of snow and sleet, and the soldiers suffered intensely from the cold. The march was made, however, in twelve days.

On the 7th of March, the regiment started for Fort Laramie. This was also a terrible march. How the men survived it is a mystery. At the Sioux Agency, thirty miles below Fort Laramie, a halt was made to wait further instructions. After a short stop the regiment went on to Fort Laramie and then to Platte Bridge. Here headquarters were established, and the work of protecting the telegraph line over the Oregon Trail commenced. The Indians were also held in check. It was found that the ammunition forwarded from Fort Leavenworth was not suitable for the carbines carried by the Eleventh, and there was a great delay in getting suitable ammunition. Colonel Plumb was assigned the duty of protecting the Overland Stage Line from Camp Collins, Colorado, to Green River, nearly four hundred miles. He was given command of Companies A, B, F, L, and M. This service Colonel Plumb performed to the satisfaction of the Stage Company and of the Government. He reestablished the service and maintained it.

The remainder of the regiment at Platte Bridge was attacked by thousands of Sioux Indians on the 22nd of July. Major Martin Anderson was in command of Platte Bridge, and fought the battle of that name. It was a heroic engagement, many accounts of which may be found in histories of those times.

The regiment was mustered out at Fort Leavenworth in September,

The Twelfth Kansas, upon its muster into the service, was scattered along the border to hunt guerrillas and bushwhackers, and to protect the State from bands of these Ruffians.

In the winter of 1863, most of the regiment was at Fort Smith. From that point it did escort duty. In February the different parts of the regiment were reunited at Fort Smith. On the 23rd of March the regiment left Fort Smith, and on the 9th of April, joined General Steele's command, which arrived at Camden, Arkansas, on the 16th, remaining until the 26th. It was in the battle of Jenkin's Ferry, after which it returned to Fort Smith by way of Little Rock, reaching the

INDIAN LAND CESSIONS AND ADDITIONAL LAND OPENINGS

During the spring of 1890, the members of the commission to treat with the Cherokee Nation and other tribes and nations of Indians, for the relinquishment of unoccupied lands situated west of the Ninety-sixth Meridian, spent much time in negotiating with the Iowa, the Sac and Fox, the Pottawatomic and the Absence Shawnee, and the Kickapoo tribes. In May, of that year, General Fairchild resigned his membership on the commission and former governor George W. Jerome, of Michigan was appointed to fill the vacancy thus created. In June following, negotiations were opened with the Cheyenne and Arapaho tribes. As the result of the work of this commission, all of the tribes above mentioned, with the exception of the Kickapoo, agreed to accept allotments of land in severalty and permit the opening of the surplus lands of their respective reservations to settlement by white people.

OPENING OF THE FIRST INDIAN RESERVATIONS

The first of the surplus lands thus thrown open to settlement were those of the Iowa, Sac and Fox, and Pottawatomie-Shawnee reservations, all of which were located east of the country which had been thrown open to settlement in April, 1889. The aggregate area of these reservations was 868,414 acres and the date set for their opening to homestead settlement was September 22, 1891. From the lands thus opened to settlement, two new counties were formed, in addition to which Logan, Oklahoma and Cleveland counties were enlarged by the addition of lands lying east of the Indian Meridian and the area of Payne County was increased by the addition of that part lying south of the Cimarron River. One of the new counties was officially designated as County "A" and the other as County "B." In the general election of the following year (November, 1892), the people of these counties by popular

"Uncle Lue" Doolittle Came To Oklahoma and Logan County In '89; Civil War Veteran and a Splindid Citizen

Lewis Doolittle, a well to do retired farmer of Cresent, died Friday March 14 of heart trouble. He is an uncle of Margaret and Nettie Doolittle of Guthrie.

Mr. Doolittle was 79 years of age, a veteran of the Civil war, having served for three years in the 157th Kansas Infantry. He was an '89'er having made the race into Oklahoma and homesteading a farm three miles east of Cresent.

"Uncle Lue" as he was familiarly known to both young and aged, was a kind and highly respected citizen. He was never married. He leaves to mourn his loss a sister, Mrs. S. T. Marling of East Bernard, Texas, a brother in Montana, and the family of his deceased brother, Mrs. Mary Doolittle and daughters, Margaret and Nettie.

DOOLITPLE

When this family came to the U.S. from England, their name was spelled Dewlittle - but as time went by in the process of recordings, the spelling was changed to Doolittle. The family were merchants in England and came to the U.S. in the 1700's. The location of the family as known by members of later generation, was at Rochester, New York and the name Rochester was given to decendants -- also the name Sylvester appears on file in Illinois. Some came to Ohio and located near Springfield or Columbus.

The parents Varnel Doolittle (a shoemaker) and Elvira Lewis were married here where their children Luetellis, Lewis, Albert, Alvira, Almon 1844, and Shannon were born (it may be just the older ones). The family came to Illinois about 1848 as an older brother of his fathers, Wilse Doolittle had located near Bellair, Ill., a small town not far from Casey, Ill. About 1858 Varnel Doolittle, wife and six children went overland by wagon to Colby, Kansas, but stayed only a short time and started back to Illinois by wagon. The mother and infant died at Emporia, Kansas, and are buried there. Luetellis and Lewis remained in Emporia. The father and rest of family went to South Missouri near Sarcoxie and left Alvira with a sister either of her mothers or fathers (Hart), also one son Albert stayed here, at least no more record of him until his death recorded by the Civil War Dept.

Leutellis and Shannon were in Helena, Montana for several years. In the years between 1902 and 1904, Leutellis visited the Almon Doolittle family in Okla. I remember when I was staying in the Martha Case home when I was cashier at the Cyclone Mercantile Co. in Gutherie, he spent a Sunday with me in the Case home. Later when he died in Montana, Uncle Lew went back there, but the result of that visit is not clear in my mind or if Shannon was still living. (Signed Nellie Doolittle.)

Add anything more you know Margaret. There must have been quite a colony of them in Illinois. As I remember the cementary at Bellair, Ill. was filled at one section of tombstones with Doolittle inscribed.

Luetellis and Lewis joined the P.B. Plum Regiment at Emporia and fought throughout the Civil War. Lewis was in the Lone Jack battle in Cass Co., Missouri and was lost for three days from his regiment. (The date of this battle, August 16th, was for many years observed by residents with a reunion.) Almon and Shanon returned to Illinois with their father and in 1874 Almon was married to Mary Elliot Lingafelter and lived in a log cabin for three or four years. It was still there in 1904, when visited by his daughters Margaret and Nellie.

In late 1883 they came to Burden, Kansas where Almon's sister Alvira lived with her husband Samuel Marling, (a former resident of near Sarcoxie, Mo.) and four children.

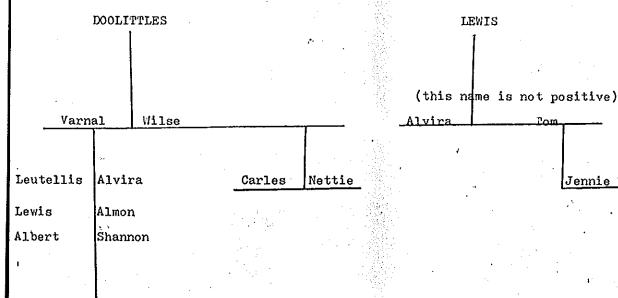

At this time, four children had been born to Almon and Mary Doolittle-Charles who died when he was 2 days old, Margaret, Harry, and Nellie.
Another child was born while they lived in Kansas, Nettie Alice. They lived near Burden in Cowley Co., Kansas until February 1891 when they left with their four children by wagon to pioneer a homestead in Logan County Okla. as four counties in Central Indian Territory had been open for settlement. His brother Lewis had made the run at the opening in 1889 and 160 acre homesteaded was across the road from his brother Lewis (a bachelor), 12 miles from Gutherie, the capitol at that time -- until 1911? -- near Cresent, Okla.

The writer of this remembers the long four days drive across Indian Territory (Cherokee Strip), crossing swollen Salt Fork Creek and the dark nights, howling of coyotes and food that was eaten standing up or sitting on the cold ground -- saw no one, not even an Indian -- and as we came to the line of the inhabited Logan County and saw houses made of planks, sod or dugouts, a few cows, horses and occasionally another wagon, it seemed like heaven.

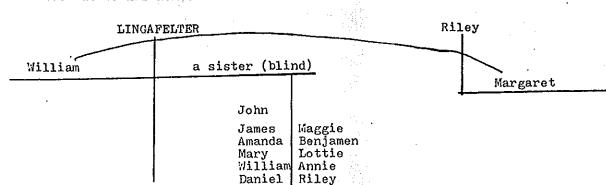

We went about 15 miles south, (the small town of Crescent 4 miles west), when we came to the Lewis Doolittle farm. He had a 3 room house, sort of a chicken house and barn and fenced pasture. Our household goods, machinery, chickens and cows came by car on Santa Fe Railroad, to Lamrie a station about 6 miles east, a second team of horses was led behind our wagon across the Cherokee Strip. Our home was small and a cyclone cellar built and well dug. We first carried water from a spring (a long trip). Here is where the Almon and Mary Doolittle family grew up-- on virgin soil and hard labor.

So during his life, Almon Doolittle made two overland wagon trips. He died in 1916 at his home in Crescent, Okla.

Jennie

By another marriage in late life
Alvin Doolittle was living in Illinois in 1904 or was it 1928 when Arthur Jean Graves and I visited. Seems Mayme Freeland and Aunt Amanda took us to his home.

LINGAFELTERS

Parents of William Lingafelter came to Ohio from Pennsylvanie in the early 1800's. They were of Dutch descent and his mother could not or would not learn to speak English. His father was a keeper (as called then) of a large farm owned by a wealthy family by the name of Elliot. The Riley's were southern Irish and came to Ohio in the early 1830's, typical southerns -- rode hunting and jumping horses and lived high class as reported by (Mary E. Lingafelter), William Lingafelter -- Pen. Dutch and Margaret Riley - Southern Irish, were married in Ohio in the 1840's (Margaret Riley was 16 yrs old when married) and continued to live near Newark, Ohio where they grew up until nine childred were born. In the late summer of 1865 with seven of their children (Amanda and James stayed in Ohio), John, Mary E., William, Daniel, Susan, Maggie and Rachel left in a wagon train of seven wagons for Illinois. They met the Civil war soldiers walking home from their service in the Federal Army. They were six weeks on the way and the mother, Margaret Lingafelter, was not able to sit up when they got to their destination near Martinsville, Illinois. After coming to Illinois, four more children were born, Benjamin, Lottie, Annie and Riley. During the second year in Illinois, Maggie died of Typhoid Fever, and the baby Benny died in his second year, leaving 11 of the 13 children born to Amanda came to Illinois in a few years, but James still stayed in Ohio and was connected with a bank in Columbus, Ohio. He was the first of the eleven children to die. There are two still living -- Annie and Riley and numberless descendents.

So during her life, Mary Elliot Lingafelter Doolittle made two overland wagon trips. She died at the home of her daughter, Nellie (Mrs. James Arthur Graves) near harrison, Mo. in 1923, was born in 1850.

Story City Is July 12"47.

Dear Mrs Gregory"

I am sorry to toll you that I am unable to find out our great gara ad fathers nowe, Wa. Rechester Deelittle was bern in Rechester N.Y. April fourth 1824.

It was my Father that visited you in Okla, but it was more than fourty years ago as my Father died in 1896.

All of my ungles and aunts have passed on except one of the youngest beys and i think he is seventy five years wid.

Seems that if there was any record of the family kept it has been lest.

I am happy to learn that the Doelittles founded Walingford Conn.

se long age, and that they have a rounion every five years.

If you go to the rounion please let me know what you fin out about our Great Grandfather and any other information that you may get.

If I am able to find out anything I will let you know.

Hopeing this will do you some good little as it is

I remain your distant Cousin

The Ol' Doc' Returns

By Boyce Bowdon

MARSHALL - One of Oklahoma's first veterinarians is back home this week observing Marshall's "Prairie City Days." 💯

He is 89 year-old Dr. Arthur Graves, who retired only six years ago after practicing 45 years in Harrisonville, Mo, where he now lives.

Dr. Graves came to Marshall on a freight train in 1903 and remained until 1916, when he doined the Army and did food conservation work in World War 的工程设施。1950年,2018年

Even though they had not seen him in more than' half a century, several old-timers recognized Dr. Graves when he appeared this weekend at the worship services of the Marshall Methodist Church, where he once served as Sunday school s u p e r i'ntendent,

At a church pienle Sunday afternoon, attended by over 100, Dr. Graves visited with the girl who used to live next door, Miss Angle Debo

The two swapped stories and caught up son sold; 如mendary 医动物性支柱性炎性

Since their last visit, Miss Debo has carned a doctor's degree from University of Oklahoma and has written a dozen books. Her historical novel about life of Oklahoma pioneers inspired the annual "Prairie City Days' a week-long festivity featuring a picnic, parade, rodeo and talent show.

Dr. Graves "still remembers every sick horse and cow he ever treated, Miss Angie remarked:

In the early 1900s, one of the first things a Marshall manidid when he got up in the morning was rush out to the barn and see if he tle law enforcement and take shots but none of cars."

"Dr. Arthur Graves

the brush hills. 🖓 🖟 🐎

Hoping to cope with this serious threat, Dr. Graves and other Marshall men organized a chapter of the Anti-Horse Thief Assoclation. To head the organization they elected a tall, tough former U.S. marshal who wore a pair of sixguns and had a reputation for using them. "Just the sight of that formidable character was chough to encourage horse thieves to move on," the old-time vet recalls.

and every time a horse, ganize a scarch party. We never did catch any horse couraged a lot of them.

"After a year or so, we didn't have any trouble with rustling."

Rabies broke out in Marshall back in 1915. "A man called me and by the time I got out to see his shep-herd, the dog was dead. He had been chained to a tree stump and had dug clear under the roots of the free, fighting to get loose. All indications were that he had rables,

"As a result of the dog's Infection; one man lost a still had his favorite horse, one lostia hog and cow."

Miss Angle Debo

plenty of hiding places in them developed rables, he added. CARLES TO SERVICE

> "We did a lot of dental work on horses during those days. Eating hard grain wore teeth down and they often had to be evened." Dr. Grave said extracting teeth from young horses was always a tough job.

There were some, features about my work that were not too tasty. I would often come home at night; feeling like I just couldn't go any further, and yet I "We would have parades would know somebody was needing me. People would was stolen we would or work a horse hard all day, and he would be sick at night, Then they would thieves, but we sure dis- wait until bedtime, thinking the animal might get: better. When he didn't, they would call Ol' Doc."

> It was customary during those days for a veterinarian to charge one dollar the first mile and fifty cents each additional mile for his calls. Dr. Graves says most of his fees ranged from $2,50 to $5.

"I'd imagine that there are families around Marshall that still have the hides of their favorite into overcoats, mittens, or valuable pair of mares, lap robes, the old vet re-another lost a horse, and manked. Horses were mighty important to us, Horse thieves hit frequent. Several people bitten by and we loved them in a sy, he said. There was lit. suspicious animals had to way that people can't love

THE PASSING OF PIONEER MOTHER

Mrs. Martha Gregory, One of Lewis County's Oldest Women, Dies In 94th Year.

Mrs. Martha Neal Gregory, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Neal, was born at Warrensburg, Kentucky, November 22, 1828, and passed to the Great Beyond July 22, 1921, aged 92 years and 8 months.

Mrs. Gregory was united in the holy bonds of wedlock to Henderson P. Gregory on August 19, 1851. There are six children living as a result of this union. One son, S. W. Gregory, of Devol, Oklahoma, and five daughters, Mrs. Virginia Garnett, of Nowata, Oklahoma; Mrs. Mary Thompson, Mrs. Naunie Hawkins and Misses Linnie and Anie Gregory, of LaBelle.

When Mrs. Gregory was married she and her husband came to Irewis county and settled on a farm north of LaBelle. Later in 1894, they moved to LaBelle, where they lived together until Mr. Gregory's death in the month of October, 1913.

In addition to her immediate family she leaves to mourn her going tweive grandchildren and helghteen grandchildren

In the going of one who was nearing the century mark, the last of a family of nine children has passed away. Her christian experience dates back to 1838, when she united with the LaBelle Baptist church remaining a member to her death. She is one of the pioneers of Missouri and has had a large part in its development. She has witnessed a great change in the seventy years of her life among us. A pioneer has passed on

On August 19, 1901, the family celebrated their golden wedding anniversary, but she has lived on and still lives on in our lives and the lives of the sorrowing ones. May the memory of her life and the joy of her worthy companionship blossom into a full grown flower of sacred memory in our lives.

Those from out of town who attended the funeral were S. W. Gregory, Devol, Oklahoma; Mrs. S. V. Garrett. No. 11. Children and Son, Shelton, of Kirksville; Ed Keithly and wife, of Center, Missouri; J. B. Gregory and wife and daughter, Lydia, of Memphis; Mrs. Arthur Meadows, of Quincy; Elmer True and wife, of Newark, and Frank McRae and wife, of Knox City.

tenant and A. D. Otey, second lieutenant. We have no record of its operations during its term of service.

The One Hundred and Fifty-second Infantry recruited under the call for "one year service," contained a Crawford County company. Company H went into the field in charge of the following commissioned officers: George W. Beam, captain; William Dyer, first lieutenant; Ferdinand Hughes, second lieutenant.

The One Hundred and Fifty-second was recruited for one year, and was organized at Camp Butler, Illinois, February 18, 1865. It went to Nashville, and thence to Tullahoma. It was mustered out of the service September 11, 1865, at Camp Butler.

The One Hundred and Fifty-fifth Infantry drew a company from Crawford County. Company C was principally from this county, and had the following commissioned officers: John W. Lowber, captain; Ross Neeley, first lieutenant, and Marshall C. Wood, second lieutenant.

This regiment was organized at Camp Butler, Illinois, February 28, 1865, for one year. March 2d, the regiment, 904 strong, proceeded via Louisville and Nashville to Tullahoma, where it was employed mostly in guard duty on the Nashville & Chattanooga Railroad. September 4, 1865, it was mustered out of the service at Camp Butler and discharged.

The Fifth Illinois Cavalry contained a Crawford County company of men. Company F was principally from this county, and was officered as follows: Horace P. Mumford, captain; Francis M. Dorothy, first lieutenant, and Wm. Wagenseller, second lieutenant. Capt. Mumford was promoted to major of the regiment May 24, 1863, and died October 26, 1864, at Springfield, Ill. Lieut. Dorothy resigned January 10, 1863; Lieut. Wagenseller was promoted to first lieutenant January 10, 1863, and to captain May 24, Bennett was moted to second lieutenant October 26, but mustered out as sergeant.

Of the field and staff, Major Mumfe Adjutant Martin, Quartermaster Robert Wilson, and Surgeon Wm. Watts, Crawford County men. Adjutant Martin signed, Quartermaster Wilson was muste out of the service. Dr. Watts entered assistant surgeon, was promoted to surge and was mustered out October 27, 1865, with regiment.

Maj. Mumford died in the latter part 1864. The following tribute to his gallen as a soldier and officer, was paid him by G Donnis, in a letter to Hon. Jesse K. Dul ' This will be handed you by Maj. Mumi Fifth Illinois Cavalry Volunteers. The M has been in my command for the last months, and the greater portion in comm of his regiment. In the expedition Vicksburg, the Major had command of entire cavalry forces, composed of parts four regiments. When I say that he hand his command as well, and did better fight than any cavalry officer I have met with Mississippi, it will be indorsed by all the officers who were with the late raids. Gen. Slocum was so well pleased and sa fied with him and the good discipline of men, that he continued him in command,

FOOTNOTES

1. Albert S. GRAVES was born 21 June 1840 in Montgomery County, Indiana. His parents were Quakers and he followed the faith all his life but was not connected with any church after moving to Iowa. On 3 October 1872 he married Rhoda GRIEST and in the same year they moved to Fremont County, Iowa. Rhoda was a member of the Friends Church there. In Fremont county they owned a two hundred acre farm. He was successful at farming and was a director of a savings bank. He gained his wealth by his own right.

Their sons were Omer E., William P., Albert M., and James Arthur. Their father Albert S., one of the oldest settlers in Fremont County, died at home eight miles northwest of Shenandoah, Iowa, in Monroe Township, at the age of 64 yrs. and 9 mos., the date 18 April 1905. His wife Rhoda died at the home of her son, Albert M.. She and her husband are buried in the cemetery in Shenandoah, Iowa. All the sons are now deceased.

2. James Arthur GRAVES II. His parents was Arthur Jean and Edith Caroline (PRATT) GRAVES. His mother was a daughter of Charles E. and Mabel PRATT of Newton Highlands, Massachusetts. She had graduated from Colby College in New London, New Hampshire, and was a medical secretary at the Elliot P. Joslin Clinic in Boston when she met and married Arthur Jean GRAVES in Yuma, Arizona, 5 June 1946, while he was stationed in the U.S. Marine Corp Base in San Diego.

Arthur Jean GRAVES graduated from high school at Harrisonville, Missouri, in 1935. He worked for Gulf Oil Company in the chemistry laboratory for salt water analysis during the summer of 1937 thru 1939, before going to Central College in Fayette, Missouri. After graduating from college he went to Harvard Medical School and received his M.D. degree. He interned at St. Lukes in New York.

He entered the Navy with the rank of Lt. Junior Grade and served 32 months in the Pacific as a medical officer and participated in the invasion of Okinawa and Japan. His wife, Edith, died 19 September 1960 and is buried in the Orient Cemetery, Harrisonville, Missouri. He is now retired and resides in Mt. Vernon, Missouri.

James Arthur "Butch" GRAVES II was born 4 December 1947 at Monett, Missouri, has since 1976 lived in Shell Knob, Missouri. He married Ola May CONNER on 28 July 1973 after they had met in Chicago, Illinois. Ola had moved to Chicago from Birmingham, Alabama. She was born 19 November 1947 in Pickens County, Alabama. They had only one child, a daughter, Amanda June GRAVES, born 27 June 1977 and died 29 June 1977.
