

February, Monday 21

Very cold the coldest of the season wind in the west cut a load of wood and drew it up and put some meat a smoking and done the chores Byron stoped [sic] in the afternoon to get the buggy to go to Jackson did not feel very well in the evening I have a very bad cold

February, Tuesday 22

Still very cold but cloudy and looked like snow did do much to day [sic] only cut wood and do the chores and keep a smoke under the meat and sorted over a few cranberries Not quite as cold in afternoon and evening as it has been for a day or two

February, Wednesday 23

Pleasant [sic] but cold cut and drew up a load of wood Byron came home with the buggy this morning he got some things for me to Jack son Went to the donation this evening had a good time and raised over eighty dollars for Brother Holt Cash 47.60 and the ballance [sic] in produce

February, Thursday 24

Still cold did not do much to day [sic] I did not feel very well haveing [sic] a very bad cold the boys went to school and I done the chores and cut some of the wood to burn We [illegible] out to the donation three dollars and twenty five cts [cents] last evening

February, Friday 25

Cold but pleasent [sic] Squares folks came over here he brought home the vats that he borrowed last fall and he went up to Tommy Smith to send for his wool to Dexter he stoped [sic] for dinner when he came back and Jimmy came over to stay with the boys while they went to meeting

February, Saturday 26

Rained some this morning ground the axes this morning and the boys went to chopping [sic] wood down in the field I did not feel well to day [sic] in the afternoon I run the oats throught [through] the mill and put them into the granery [granary] and then drew up a load of wood another week is gone never more to be recalled

[Notes added by transcriber]